The Kean Human Rights Book Club featuring John Prendergast is brought to you by the Human Rights Institute at Kean University. This unique book club focuses on important and revealing books about human rights issues in the world today. These books were hand-picked by John Prendergast, author, activist, and the Anne Evans Estabrook Human Rights Senior Fellow here at Kean.

Besides two books penned by Prendergast himself, the list includes award-winning titles from Samantha Power, Adam Hochschild, Philip Gourevitch, and Sheryl WuDunn and Nicholas Kristof.

Proceeds from the sales of each of these books will benefit the Enough Project. The Enough Project fights to end genocide and crimes against humanity, focused on areas where some of the world’s worst atrocities occur.

The club will meet the last Tuesday of every month at 6:30 p.m. in the Kean Barnes & Noble bookstore. Meeting dates are January 27, February 24, March 24, April 28, May 26, and June 23.

The first book discussed in the series will be The Enough Moment by John Prendergast.
