H.O.P.E. for Children

Annual Conference
Friday, March 30, 2007
8:30 am - 1:00 pm
Kean University
Downs Hall

Pre-registration is required.

JOIN KEAN UNIVERSITY AND THE LOCAL COMMUNITY FOR A DAY OF H.O.P.E.

Come be a part of a one day conference to address social issues related to poverty and children with the surrounding communities of Kean University.

WORKSHOPS WILL INCLUDE:

- Palliative Care
- Dealing with At-Risk Adolescents
- Children with Disabilities
- Children, The Homeless and Poverty
- Latino Children and Immigration
- Children and Hunger
- How does the State Budget for Children?

$15 registration fee includes continental breakfast and 3 CEUs for those who qualify. Please consider a donation for a food gift card.

H.O.P.E. Action Group is a group of social work students and faculty at Kean University concerned with issues of poverty in the state of New Jersey.