Ten Other Reasons for Visiting the Library*

1. You can experience peace and tranquility by using a study room on the 2nd or 3rd floor. See the Circulation Desk Staff for details.

2. You can use over 55,000 full-text periodicals. Check the Periodicals List available from the Library’s home page (http://library.kean.edu) for specific journal, magazine, and newspaper titles.

3. You can request books, book chapters, or journal articles not owned by the Library by using the Interlibrary Loan Request Form available from the Library’s Homepage (http://library.kean.edu).

4. You can enjoy your beverage and snack at Starbucks located on the Library’s first floor.

5. You can access books via the Library’s electronic book (E-book) collections from the comfort of your home. Go to the Library’s home page (http://library.kean.edu), click Articles & More, and click the All Database Types button, and then scroll down and click Ebooks.

6. You can check your e-mail or browse the Web in the Student Technology Lab located on the Library’s first floor, room L-114.

7. You can stay in tune with the Kean University Library using Facebook or YouTube.

8. You can sign up for EasyBib or EndNote Online to create and organize your bibliographies.

9. You can keep abreast of current events and Library news through the Kean University app on your mobile device.

10. Find information fast using the Library’s databases available from the Articles & More section of the Library’s home page (http://library.kean.edu).

Explore the world of information during your college career by making the Kean University Library a priority destination.

Check out the Kean University Library’s home page (http://library.kean.edu)

Visit the Library, located in the heart of the Kean campus, throughout your adventure-packed college experience. Choose from the following exciting activities:

- Studying
- Reading
- Information Seeking
- Researching

Consult this brochure for further details.
Library Barcode Advantage Plan:

Bring your Kean photo ID card to the Circulation Desk to activate your Library privileges. Take advantage of the following thrilling benefits:

- Borrow books!
- Check out Course Reserve materials!
- Renew borrowed materials online!

Review the Library’s schedule before planning your itinerary:

Go to the Library’s home page to see the library hours: http://library.kean.edu/hours.htm

Note: The Library is closed when the University is closed. Library hours change during the summer and between semesters.

The Library offers many resources and services:

Get personalized help with your research questions:

- In-person Reference Desk
- Telephone Reference Service Call (908) 737-4629

The Research Guides (http://libguides.kean.edu/) are a collection of subject-specific guides that provide a quick and easy way for student researchers to explore Library resources.

Venture into vast online territories. From the Library’s home page (http://library.kean.edu), you will be able to access:

- Books, E-books, Videos, & More (Kean Catalog)*
- Articles & More (Databases, Full-text, E-journals)*
- Periodicals List (Journals, Magazines, Newspapers)*
- Research Guides (Subject-Focused Resources)
- Ask a Librarian (FAQ, TXT, E-mail, Phone)

*Some resources may require you to log-in with your Kean Google e-mail username and password.