Guest Speaker: Dr. Frank Esposito

Professor. Historian. Administrator. Leader.

Dr. Frank Esposito first came to Kean 39 years ago. Although he has had numerous roles, one common denominator, “Educator”, runs through them all.

Dr. Esposito obtained his Ph.D in American History from Rutgers University – New Brunswick. A specialist in American Indian, Colonial and recent American history, Dr Esposito first came to Kean as an assistant professor of educational arts and systems for the College of Education in 1970.

During his time here, Dr. Esposito has also served as Assistant Dean, Associate Dean, Acting Dean, Dean of The Graduate College, Vice President for Academic Affairs and Interim President.

Now a Distinguished Service Professor of History, he has had seven books published and is author of over 100 articles/journals.

ABOUT THE HONOR SOCIETY OF PHI KAPPA PHI

Phi Kappa Phi is the nation’s oldest, largest, and most selective all-discipline honor society.

The Society’s mission is to recognize and promote academic excellence in all fields of higher education and to engage the community of scholars in service to others.
