Announcing a New Scholarship! The Dr. Barbara A. Wheeler Scholarship Fund will award one deserving student $500 on May 2nd at the Tribute Event in her honor. Dr. Wheeler, a Kean University faculty member since 1987 and faculty advisor to many Kean student groups, has served our community as scholar, activist, author, and educator. She has traveled to more than 80 countries, teaching faculty and students in many disciplines including Africana Studies, International Affairs, Higher Education, Political Science, and Anthropology. Her legacy will be forever enhanced with the addition of this scholarship fund benefiting students at Kean University for years to come.

The Dr. Barbara Anne Wheeler Scholarship is now open and accepting applications.

Requirements:
The Dr. Barbara Anne Wheeler Scholarship is for students who have a minimum 3.5 GPA, and have shown their dedication in the fields of study to which Dr. Wheeler has devoted her career. In addition to the Kean University Foundation, Inc. Scholarship Application, matriculated students are required to submit an essay of not more than two pages describing their educational interests in the areas of activism and global diversity. The scholarship application can be picked up in the scholarship office in Townsend Hall, or downloaded from the Kean.edu site by following the links for “Financial Aid.” Be sure to indicate on the scholarship application that you are applying for Fall 2010. Completed applications may be mailed to or dropped off with Dr. Emily Filardo, Kean University, Hutchinson Hall J-330P, 1000 Morris Avenue, Union, NJ 07083.

For further information contact the Women’s Studies Program at x74020, or womenssp@kean.edu