Schedule of Events

Lecture with Dr. Harriet Washington on Medical Apartheid
Tuesday, February 19, in The Little Theatre, 12 noon
Co-sponsored by Africana Studies

Film Festival Featuring Dr. Sut Jhally Productions
Thursday, February 28, in B109
12:30pm Dreamworlds III
2:00pm Wrestling with Manhood: Boys, Bullying, & Battling

Dr. Sut Jhally Presents 2 Multi-Media Lectures on Advertising, Gender Roles, and the Power of the Media
Tuesday, March 4, in The Little Theatre
12:30pm—1:50pm “Tough Guise: Media, Violence and Masculinity”
2:00pm—3:20pm “Advertising and the End of the World”

Dr. Susanna Rich in her own Multi-Media Poetry
Presentation entitled “Television Daddy”
Monday, March 10, 7pm in Vaughn Eames 119
Tuesday, March 11, 7pm in Vaughn Eames 119
Co-sponsored by the Department of English

Two Days Analyzing the Influence of Pornography with
Dr. Robert Jensen. Dr. Jensen will present his provocative and controversial views on pornography’s escalating violence, hostility, and accessibility.
Dr. Jensen will speak on these topics at the following times:
Wednesday, March 12, in UC 228
2pm - 3:20 pm

Thursday, March 13, in UC 228
11am—12:20pm
12:30pm—1:50pm
2pm—3:20pm
5pm—7:40pm

How Did My Mother End up Cleaning Your Mother’s Toilets? Lectures and Discussion with Danielle Phillips
Wednesday, March 26, in Room UC228
11:00am—12:20pm A Fascinating analysis of the historical roots of domestic workers, focusing on class, gender, race, and sexism.
2:00pm—3:20pm Phillips further examines the historical roots of domestic work in the U.S. and shares her experience using archival research in her findings.

“Women’s Work” - in these lectures/discussions, Dr. Ethel Brooks examines the protest organizers and the women they represent in the sweatshops of South Asia, Central America and the US.
Thursday, March 27, in Room UC228
12:30pm—1:50pm
2pm—3:20pm

“An Unheard Voice”: A Program about Sexual Violence
Thursday, March 27, in the Little Theatre
5:00pm—6:30pm
Former date-rape victim uses her experience in this powerful presentation encouraging students to make healthy choices.
Co-sponsored by The Kean Counseling Center and The Office of Student Life & Leadership Development

Black Masculinity and the Struggle for Civil Rights.
Join Dr. Clarence Taylor for a fascinating look at this important movement toward social justice. Dr. Taylor is Professor of History, and Chair of the Black and Hispanic Studies Department at Baruch College, C.U.N.Y.
Thursday, April 3, in UC226a&b
Presentations at the following times:
12:30pm—1:50pm
2:00pm—3:20pm

Look for additional events in April and May

To reserve space for yourself or your class, or for further information about these and other upcoming Women’s History Month events, contact the Women’s Studies Program at x74020, www.kean.edu/~womenssp, or womenssp@kean.edu.