Board of Trustees—Public Meeting—December 8, 2012

PRESIDENT’S REPORT

President Farahi also thanked the campus community, and Dr. Jeffrey Toney in particular, for all of their hard work on the reaccreditation effort. He said the university can move forward as a strong institution now, but noted there was still work to do in areas such as student advisement, updating programming and introducing new programs to addressed economic trends.

Dr. Farahi reported Hurricane Sandy’s impact on campus, noting strong preparation work by Campus Planning and Facilities helped minimize the damage on campus; Ocean County College was not as fortunate, he said. Dr. Farahi asked Vice President of Student Affairs Janice Murray Laury to brief the Board and the audience on student services during the storm. Ms. Murray Laury noted the campus was closed, but about 90 students remained on site. Residence Life, Campus Police and Campus Planning pulled together to provide all of the students with the services, the safety and even the entertainment they needed to weather the storm. The board heard from a student who stayed on campus, as well as Denis Castronon, the director of student life.

Dr. Farahi then introduced Professor Rose Gonnella, executive director of the Robert Busch School of Design. Prof. Gonnella reported on the various accomplishments and impressive awards earned by students in the design programs. She then noted that one Kean graduate, Manik Rathee, had been a key player in the Obama re-election effort—so much so that he got a hug from President Obama on election night! She introduced Manik, who said a few words about well Kean prepared him for his work in the real world.

Last, Dr. Farahi reported that the Kean Wenzhou initiative continues to progress; more than 200 students are enrolled in the pilot initiative in Wenzhou currently, and the application for substantive change will be filed with Middle States in January.

PUBLIC COMMENTS

The Board received public comments from Dr. James Castiglione, Dorinda Cosimano, Victoria Stewart, Dr. Kathleen Henderson and Isaac Zaksenberg. Copies of their comments, where provided, will be filed with these minutes.
PRESIDENT’S REPORT
President Farahi again thanked the campus community for all of their hard work on preparing a factual and accurate response to the concerns raised by the Middle States Commission on Higher Education, which in November approved the University’s reaccreditation. He said the university is a stronger institution now and encouraged all members of the community to continue to keep up the good work.

Dr. Farahi reported that for the first time in 25 years the state of New Jersey is making available to higher education institutions capital funding through bonding. He asked Phyllis Duke, Assistant Vice President for Operations, to review the University’s plans to seek bond funding for six specific projects. Ms. Duke reviewed the details of the bond initiative and the projects the University would submit in search of funding. Dr. Farahi introduced Matthew Caruso, director of University Relations, who provided an overview of ongoing University marketing efforts utilizing both traditional and social media outlets.

Dr. Farahi then asked Dean Susan Polirstok to present on popular and successful grant-funded initiative that is improving traffic safety—and likely saving lives—through early education and programming. Dr. Polirstok introduced the University’s partners in this initiative and they reviewed in detail their work and current results.

Dr. Farahi introduced Vice President Janice Murray-Laury, who reported on several significant student volunteer initiatives. She introduced Scott Snowden from the Center for Student Leadership and Kean student George Morgan, who reported they had just returned from working on a special park project spearheaded by New Jersey firefighters to commemorated the lives lost in the Sandy Hook school shooting in Connecticut.

PUBLIC COMMENTS
The Board received public comments from Dr. Pat Ippolito, Ed Esposito, Dr. James Castiglione, Dr. Kathleen Henderson, Danielle Ford, Corina Hernandez, Emmanuel Vozos, and Chazz Fellenz. Copies of their comments, where provided, will be filed with these minutes.
PRESIDENT’S REPORT
President Farahi reported the University had submitted six applications to the state of New Jersey for funding from the Higher Education Bond Act, and that four of the applications, totaling about $54 million in funding, were approved for funding by the Christie administration.

Dr. Farahi reported that enrollment and registration numbers are improving, and the University is working hard to continue that momentum. He also reported the University is working with the City of Elizabeth on efforts to improve the Elizabeth Train Station. Dr. Farahi then introduced Dr. Jeff Toney, Provost and VPAA, for an overview of the Faculty Research Days that took place in April 2013.

Dr. Toney commended faculty and student for their tremendous efforts in support of Faculty Research Days, and noted more than 110 posters summarizing faculty/student research efforts were on display. He then introduced Susan Gannon, director of the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs, to provide more details.

Ms. Gannon reported that 191 students presented during the 5th annual Faculty Research Days, and 95 faculty members participated. She then introduced four specific projects and the faculty and students who participated in those initiatives. Each faculty member and student gave a brief overview of his or her research projects. A copy of their presentations, where provided, will be filed with these minutes.

PUBLIC COMMENTS
The Board received public comments from Dr. Jon Erickson and Dr. Kathleen Henderson. Copies of their comments, where provided, will be filed with these minutes.
PRESIDENT’S REPORT

President Farahi reported the University continues to adhere to its commitment to providing access to a world-class education, noting this year’s tuition increase is just under 3%. Kean remains the most affordable, comprehensive University of New Jersey’s publics, Dr. Farahi noted.

Dr. Farahi reported that enrollment in the University qualitatively superior programs such as Occupational Therapy and Speech Therapy is extremely strong. Overall enrollment, he noted, was good and beginning to bounce back from last year’s challenges. Enrollment will meet our budgeted requirements, he stated.

President Farahi reported that online education just a few years ago comprised about 8-9% of the marketplace, but today is about 30%. The University needs to be aware that online growth will continue, making it even more important for the University to develop and expand programming that cannot simply be offered online. To be competitive, the University needs to:

- Develop more qualitatively superior programs
- Encourage more faculty scholarship
- Provide extensive training of faculty to ensure they are aware of new technology and pedagogy
- Identify careers of the future, implement new programs to support them
- Provide opportunities for the students to study at least a semester
- Phase out obsolete programs who have not improved or gained in enrollment five years in a row
- Build programs in environmental and sustainability sciences
- Reallocate resources to support programming with huge waiting lists
- Expand programming in specific areas to remain competitive.

The University will create new allied health programs in physical therapy and physicians assistances, and will expand its global business programming to include specialties in supply chain management and global finance, he said. Kean also must improve and expand its STEM programming, and enhance technology transfer in the computer science area. President Farahi said he will ask Board to approve a policy that requires every member of Kean University to be assessed annually for competency in their field to ensure students are getting what the University says it is providing.

Dr. Farahi then introduced Dr. Patricia Morreale from the computer science department. Dr. Morreale and her students presented on their research and the development of a special iPhone “app” in the wake of Superstorm Sandy which will allow consumers and others to quickly and efficiently report outages and check on restoration timeframes. Dr. Farahi then introduced Dean Susan Polirstok. Dean Polirstok gave the Board a brief summary of a longstanding project at Kean, Project Impact New Jersey, which addresses the needs of childcare workers in New Jersey. Dean Polirstok introduced the project director, Arlene Martin, who provided a description of the initiative and reported on the recent receipt of a $1 million grant to move the initiative forward. Dr. Farahi introduced Dr. Sue Bousquet, acting Dean of the College of Humanities and chair of the University Planning Council, who gave an update on the status of the development of Kean’s new strategic plan. Dr. Bousquet noted the plan would go to the Board for consideration and approval at the September meeting.

PUBLIC COMMENTS
The Board received public comments from Ana Rita Pincaro and Dr. James Castiglione. Copies of their comments, where provided, will be filed with these minutes.
PRESIDENT’S REPORT

President Farahi reported that University enrollment is begun to rebound from the tough year before. Fulltime, undergraduate freshman enrollment is up about 160 this fall from last year; transfer and graduate enrollment is down slightly and the growth of online education opportunities may be playing a role in this. Ten years ago online education held 8% of the marketplace; today, it control about 30% of the market, he noted. Enrollment at KeanOcean also is rebounding from the losses suffered due to Hurricane Sandy. The Gateway Building, which brings Ocean and Kean students together, welcomed students this semester and a grand opening is planned for October 2.

Dr. Farahi noted the development of the Wenzhou-Kean University campus continues to progress smoothly; the campus is now operating and all classes take place in the new location. The University welcomed 214 new freshman this fall for its second class; a total of more than 440 students are now enrolled in this landmark initiative.

Dr. Farahi noted the new academic space for the Robert Busch School of Design and other programs will open in January 2014; the new facility is located at the corner of Green Lane and Morris Avenue.

Dr. Farahi also noted the University fared extremely well with the state of New Jersey’s Building Our Future Bond Act allocations. Four of six projects were funded, for a total of about $53 million.

Dr. Farahi introduced Dr. Susan Polirstok, Dean of the College of Education, who reported on the University’s recent award of a $1.75 million, five-year grant from the state of New Jersey 21st Century Learning initiative to establish an afterschool program in Hillside, NJ.

Dr. Farahi then introduced Dr. Sue Bousquet, acting Dean of the College of Humanities and chair of the University Planning Council, who reviewed with the Board the draft 2013-2020 Kean University Strategic Plan. The plan was sent to the Board for review, comments, additions and input. Action will be considered at the December Board meeting.

Board of Trustees – Examples of Presentations
Appendix 6.8: Board of Trustees: Examples of Presentations

Board of Trustee’s Presentations

• Professor Rose Gonnella, Executive Director of the Robert Busch School of Design. Prof. Gonnella reported on the various accomplishments and awards earned by students in the design programs. She then noted that a recent Kean alumnus, Manik Rathee, was recruited to serve on President Obama’s re-election campaign — the President expressed his thanks to Rathee personally on the morning after the 2012 election. She introduced Rathee, who said a few words about how well Kean prepared him for his work in the real world. http://youtu.be/69XQ82UK9Rs

• In President Farahi’s report regarding Hurricane Sandy’s impact on campus, he noted that preparation work by Campus Planning and Facilities helped minimize the damage on campus. Director of Residential Facilities and Operations, Denis Castanon, was joined by Charlie Campbell, who is one of the 90 students who sought shelter at Kean during the storm and during the days that followed. They noted that although the campus was closed, Residence Life, Campus Police and Campus Planning pulled together to provide all of the students with the services, the safety and even the entertainment they needed to weather the storm.

• Matthew Caruso, Director of University Relations, provided an overview of Kean’s marketing and communications efforts utilizing both traditional and social media outlets. Caruso described how the University marketing strategy leverages the talents of faculty and students, the beauty and location of the campus, and the sophistication and award-winning nature of programs to support recruitment efforts. Mr. Caruso also explained how the university’s use of social media is leveraging opportunities to use real time stories of faculty, alumni and students to help attract interest in Kean University.

• Vice President Janice Murray-Laury reported on Kean’s continued emphasis on instilling a sense of service and community in all Kean students. She highlighted significant student volunteer initiatives, and then introduced Scott Snowden, Director of the Center for Student Leadership and Service, and recent Kean alumnus George Morgan, who reported they had just returned from working on a special park project, “26 Parks” spearheaded by New Jersey’s Firemen’s Benevolent Association. Snowden and Scott organized a group of Kean student leaders to work with the FMBA volunteers at the Jersey Shore to build the first of 26 new parks planned to commemorate the lives lost in the Sandy Hook Elementary School shooting in Connecticut.

Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs Dr. Jeffrey Toney and Susan Gannon, director of the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs, spoke about this year’s Faculty Research Days at Kean. Dr. Toney noted that more than 110 posters summarizing faculty/student research efforts were on display. Ms. Gannon reported that 191 students and 95 faculty members gave presentations during the five annual Faculty Research Days. She then introduced four specific projects along with the faculty and students who participated in those initiatives. Each faculty member and student gave a brief overview of his or her research projects.

Dr. Patricia Morreale from the Computer Science Department and her students presented on their research and the development of a special iPhone app in the wake of Superstorm Sandy which will allow consumers and others to quickly and efficiently report power outages and check on restoration timeframes.

College of Education Dean Susan Polirstok gave the Board a brief presentation on the college’s recent receipt of a five-year, New Jersey 21st Century Community Learning Center Grant in partnership with the Hillside School District. The grant amounts to $350,000 a year for five years, or $1.75 million. The project focuses on providing the district with academic support, career exploration, family literacy and recreation activities. The project involves a collaborative effort of administrators, faculty and Kean education students.

Phyllis Duke, Assistant Vice President for Operations, reviewed the University’s plans to seek state bond funding for several projects that would further enhance the University’s ability to provide world-class, academic leadership in areas such as environmental sciences, computer science, occupational therapy, STEM programming, nursing and theatre programming. Ms. Duke reviewed the details of the bond initiative and the projects the University would submit for state-funded assistance. The University earned state funding for five of the seven grant proposals it submitted.

UNIVERSITY SCHEDULING GUIDELINES

Background Statement
To address the future of the University, the Task Force was created at the request of the University President with additional appointments from the Senate Chair to represent all University colleges, representatives from KFT, and Student Organization. A series of events has made the survival of four-year land-based higher education institutions a serious challenge for budgets and student enrollment. These events include the:

- State of New Jersey’s financial difficulties and rapidly diminishing commitment to fund higher education
- growing presence of online degree programs
- transfer law making New Jersey’s County colleges a more appealing option for first and second year students
- impact of Superstorm Sandy on the economy, families, and enrollment, especially at the Ocean Campus
- Middle States Accreditation issues, although now resolved, will impact enrollments in the short term
- inability of the University to substantially increase parking spaces and access roads to handle peak scheduling times, while other times and days are underutilized. Course scheduling must fully utilize facilities throughout the day and across the week so as to maximize parking opportunities for students, faculty and staff.

The increasing pressure to fund the University from tuition and fees threatens the mission of Kean University (since 1855) – opportunity for first generation college students. If changes are not made to maintain a stable revenue base and cost efficiency, the University would become unaffordable to all but a few.

The Task Force held several meetings to develop a series of initial scheduling recommendations for implementation in the Fall 2013. These recommendations should provide improved revenue without substantially increasing tuition and fees, and provide a model for maintaining Kean’s competitive advantage – quality AND affordability – moving forward. The Task Force will provide an additional review of the impact from Fall 2013 and propose revisions and/or modifications of these recommendations, as needed. These recommendations will, in many instances, require faculty and administration to revisit curriculum, scheduling, and registration procedures that may no longer serve today’s University. Without these changes, the long-term future of the University could be compromised. The following process has been approved by the University President with the revisions indicated in italics:
The Scheduling Process
Although it is acknowledged that scheduling and assignments are management prerogatives, the process of scheduling of courses is a collaborative effort among programs/departments/schools in consultation with their Department Chair/Executive Director and reviewed by their Dean. They have the responsibility to utilize appropriate data over time (including, but not limited to enrollment and economic data) to produce a schedule of course offerings that meets student academic and scheduling needs. The schedule should utilize faculty resources equitably and in accordance with the terms and conditions delineated in the Master Contract and local letters of agreement. The schedule should also optimize the use of all facilities by planning class offerings throughout the day and week, as appropriate.

Registration is a collaborative, ongoing process of several months and necessary review dates must be designated in order for programs/departments/schools to participate in an examination of registration patterns and adjust schedule offerings, as necessary.

Recommendations
1. Scheduling must be guided by prior student registration history and appropriate historical registration data must be available to the programs/departments/schools.
2. Guidelines for Faculty scheduling must be published and applied equitably in accordance with the Master Contract and Local Letters of Agreement.
3. A calendar depicting review dates will be published by the Office of the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs by June 30, 2013 in order for programs/departments/schools to provide input on registration patterns and make appropriate recommendations to the schedule of course offerings.
4. An additional category should be added to Keanwise indicating the frequency of offering for EACH course (e.g., every semester, every year). Such scheduling frequencies should be determined by programs/departments/schools in collaboration with their faculty. (Deans will finalize this information by June 30, 2013.)
5. Classes should be scheduled to optimize the use of all facilities (e.g., spread throughout the day and across the week).
6. Each program/department/school will review all course outlines and caps and propose changes in caps where academically appropriate and economically feasible. Proposed changes to caps must be revised through the curriculum process. Where caps appear to be below the general course size recommendations by course level, approval from the Dean will be required. (There will be a three year cycle of course review including 1/3 of all courses in a program each year.)
7. Consider adding support (e.g. graduate assistants with expertise in the given discipline) for larger classes. (Deans will recommend teacher aides/support for classes over 50 if appropriate.)
8. Class size must take into consideration program accreditation guidelines, particularly among professional degree programs, wherever possible.
9. Each College will establish a set of recommendations appropriate for course capacities in their programs that reflect differences by course level and content. The chart below is one such example. The overall goal is to achieve an average class size of 24 across programs/departments. Executive Directors, Chairpersons and Program Coordinators may identify courses for exceptions to recommended ranges to Deans with approval from the Vice President for Academic Affairs. Different sections of the same course cannot have different caps unless restricted by room capacity or special purpose (e.g. writing emphasis, etc. with prior approval from the Vice President for Academic Affairs.) Programs in development and at offsite locations may require flexibility in course caps; and also in supporting new programs for a total of no more than three years.

10. Implement a financial incentive for students who register and pay early (e.g., Keanbucks)
11. Create a Keanwise wait list for courses that is managed by the program/department/school.
12. Explore differential course or program fees for those courses requiring specialized instruction/equipment and/or materials (specifically Physical Education, Recreation, and Health; programs in the College of Visual & Performing Arts, etc.)
13. Classes (sections) are subject to cancellation as follows*:
   a) Undergraduate- under 15 enrolled
   b) General Graduate- under 12 enrolled
   c) Doctoral- under 10 enrolled

* Under special circumstances where running a particular course or section is deemed to be in the best interest of students and a program, the Dean in consultation with the Vice President of Academic Affairs’ office can make occasional exceptions.

"We’re very blessed to have been invited here at Kean University. We believe that this is absolutely the right setting...This is where intellectual exchange takes place and where ideas are explored. And where leaders are born. And so, we want them to see public service in action. We want you to understand, as students, that public service is a noble undertaking."

Danielle Ford, Marketing Communication Strategist, Office of University Relations

"Social Media is allowing us to get our message to the far corners of the globe to really represent Kean. [...] In essence we're a team of story-tellers. We're sharing the experiences of our community with the world."

Regarding the Vision 2020 "University Blvd" Project:

"The City of Elizabeth has done a study; not only on what the students want at Kean University, but what the business community wants and what Union County College wants. And all of it points to how they can increase jobs, how they can increase economic share, how they can increase the diversity of the Hispanic community that exists there. It'll get more people here. It'll have more access to the university and the college, as well as the business community here in our city."

Scott Snowden, Director, Center for Leadership & Service

"The Immersion program started this summer. We have brought over 100 Chinese students from Wenzhou Kean University. Tamy Kostadinova, Current Student

I chose Kean because I heard a lot of people talking about this university. And the first time I came to look at the University, I felt at home. [...] I meet so many different people, so many different cultures. It's amazing. I love it.

Manik Rathee, Class of 2011 - Robert Busch School of Design
(User Engineer, Obama for America 2012)

I was able to solve problems that hundreds of thousands of people would see. And be able to put the stuff that I learned from Kean into play on a really large scale. Every single project [...] All these things prepared me for what I was going to do on the campaign. Kean definitely set me up to go down the path and then gave me the right nudges in the right places to get there in the exact time that it was right for me. You've always got the professors there that are, not only there to teach you, but are there to guide you. Everyone here is going to go way overboard to make sure you're where you need to be and that's a pretty special thing to find in a school that's this big.

David Garcia, '14, Chemistry and Biology Major

A lot of my professors have ended up being my mentors and have been really important in guiding me in where and what I have to do throughout my career to achieve my goals. [...] I would have never been given the opportunities: to work with Dr. Toney. I would never have had the opportunity, even, to go to Johns Hopkins...The list goes on and on.

Lakesha Cameron, Kean University Student

“One of the things that is really special about Kean is the diversity, you don’t really get that from other Universities.”

VIDEO: LAKESHA CAMERON: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KRI2JTu_RVc

Kaitlyn Johnston, Kean University Student

“Coming here to Kean has made me realize that there are more things to focus on than solely classes and that there are things that you can do and places you can go and people that you can meet that will really advance you, not only within your education but within yourself.”

VIDEO: KAITLYN JOHNSTON: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=F9mS_lXrel4

Michal Kucza, Kean University Student and Student Athlete

“The coaches here at Kean support us. They give us all the tools that we need and what I take away from the sport here at Kean are a lot of different aspects including time management, just having respect for others, just being a team leader on the court and off the court.”

Leadership Forum
Wednesday, January 25, 2012
930am
K-130

I. Welcome

II. Discussion Items:
Kate Henderson
1. Textbooks and Instructor Manuals
2. Late receipt and administration of Sir II’s.
3. Failure of departments to do peer reviews of all Fall adjunct Faculty
4. Failure of departments to do peer reviews of those on their 3 year cycle
5. Half Semester Faculty still not being properly compensated
6. Courses being offered for 45 contact hours for 1 student credit
7. Copy of Power Points given from all VP’s and Deans at the last BOT retreat day. (Most especially personnel flow charts).
8. No notification to KUAFF of adjuncts who are quitting, or, having to leave for personal or medical reasons
9. Timing on Inquiries and Info requests – We are still missing information we asked the president for back in September. We cannot keep cc-ing the world on every inquiry.
10. Access to classrooms remains a real problem. 20 minutes out of a 50 minute class is lost regularly waiting to get access to a classroom.
11. Status update on fires set in women’s lavatory in CAS and Willis, disrupting classes
12. What is the status of “Live25” which I trained on and was really excited about, not Kean Exchange
13. Expected date for issuance of adjunct contracts for Winter and Spring Semesters.
14. Confusion on the posting of course syllabi for students. Rather than have the posters name, which is the department secretary or aide, should not the faculty’s name appear in its place.
15. Students from Weekend College have asked about when they have to spend their bonus kean dollars, does it carry through to the spring semester, or do they lose it at the end of the fall semester.
16. Campus Alert update. The last situation, allegedly students and faculty were never notified, and this comes from the students.
17. E- Notices to Faculty have become a child’s game of “telephone” and misunderstandings are regularly happening.
18. Update on NCAA situation
19. Update or written draft of Upcoming Middle States Report due in March

Leadership Forum
Wednesday, September 26, 2012
930am
K-130

I. Welcome

II. Phil Connelly
   a. Clarification on the Leadership Forum
   b.
      i. In general the Forum is not the venue for problem resolution; though representatives may receive guidance concerning the appropriate venue for issues to be addressed with the University structure.
      ii. The Leadership forum is, essentially, a collaborative, information sharing, advisory board that represents various administrative, academic and collective bargaining unit constituencies throughout the university. The Forum provides the context for the free exchange of ideas and concerns through mutual respect ultimately enabling all represented parties to work collaboratively towards the fulfillment of the University mission.
      iii. Among the Visiting Team’s recommendations is the following: “Kean’s president, board members, administrative and faculty leaders spoke eloquently about the students of Kean and the importance of institutional transformation in sustaining mission. The team recommends that the leaders of each constituency and among constituencies should find ways to articulate the shared vision about mission more frequently and broadly across the institution.”

   5. Payroll Portal - Kudos to Kate Garra and Payroll Dept ford going green
   6. Job descriptions for two new Assoc. VPAA's. Who does what, so people know who to go to for what?

Mr. Richard Trabert- BOT member attending
Ruth Ma sending Kris Engel in her place
Leadership Forum
Wednesday, January 30, 2013
930am
K-130

I. Welcome

II. Discussion Items:

Steve Barandica
1. Involvement Center

Robert Lerner
1. Technology in the classroom
2. Student Accessibility to laptops

Audrey Kelly
1. Geoffrey Canada, Tues., March 5
2. Human Rights Conference #ENOUGH!, Fri., March 8

Jeff Toney
1. Course scheduling
2. Professional development workshops

Steve Pinto
1. Payroll portal (off campus access)

Kate Henderson - KUAff (AFT Local 6024) Issues:
1. Payroll Portal for Access off Campus
2. $10.00 fee to use MS Office 2010 Downloaded off the OCIS Website
3. Missing Signed MOA's
4. Contracts for spring 2013 Semester, where are they?
5. Class Caps
6. Student Overloads
7. Moody’s Rating Drop for Kean & Foundation
8. Keys & Codes
9. Reversal of 6 credit limits with no exceptions which were imposed by VPAA per statements and said to be reversed in conversation made by Kean to OER
10. Calendar & Contracts
11. “Promissory Estoppel” Issues
12. Explanation as to the 6 credit limit (no exception) fiasco:

1st excuse: MOA dating back to 2003 allegedly limiting adjuncts? (wrong)

2nd excuse: The Adjunct Contract states adjuncts cannot teach more than 6 credits per semester? (Wrong)

3rd excuse: Adjuncts teaching 9 credits per semester would be problematic for Kean when it comes to Obama’s ACA,(Wrong It deals with anyone teaching more than 30 hours per week. Even if we factored in the Carnegie hours onto the credit hours that would only come to 27 hours per week for three – 3credit courses. Still under the 30 hour ceiling

4th excuse: Low Enrollment requiring mass cancellations on Jan. 4th (Wrong) why were many of them restored and outside adjuncts hired in place of those who were originally assigned to the courses.

5th excuse: Dean’s no longer make decisions concerning their respective College’s. Now the VPAA makes all class assignment decisions?

6th excuse: Kean cannot pay its employees, not even the adjuncts?

13. Chairs and Depts. cutting deals with adjuncts without clearing it with Union and PC as Chief Labor Negotiator

14. Request for a separate “Labor Leadership Forum” to deal strictly with Union matters, which was the original membership when the “Leadership Forum” was first started under President Esposito’s leadership. The current Leadership Forum has morphed into a mini-UPC, with most of all the same members.

15. Security and Lockdown Issues

16. Communication about what is going on, instead of us having to read about Kean in the newspapers.

17. Kean-Ocean and Kean China

18. Bb 9.1 training and required migration from Bb 8.0 ending in the spring.

19. Are there any other Kean faculty teaching Synchronous (live-online) classes besides me? Or, are they strictly doing, Bb assignments, self directed assignments via email, and Asynchronous learning?

James Castiglione

1. Overload policy and rationale
2. SIR II policy
3. Final list of SP 2013 course cancellations
4. University closing policy

1. In general the Forum is not the venue for problem resolution; though representatives may receive guidance concerning the appropriate venue for issues to be addressed within the university structure. The Leadership forum is, essentially, a collaborative, information sharing, advisory board that represents various administrative, academic and collective bargaining unit constituencies throughout the university. The Forum provides the context for the free exchange of ideas and concerns through mutual respect ultimately enabling all represented parties to work collaboratively towards the fulfillment of the University mission.

3. Final list of SP 2013 course cancellations

Janice Murray-Laury
1. Upcoming Events

Ruth Ma
1. Gym issues and East Campus plasma screens

James Castiglione
1. Professional Staff Performance-Based promotions
2. Summer teaching assignments policy for full-time faculty and staff
3. Re-establishing the Career Development Committee
4. SIR II student evaluations - consulting with ETS

Kate Henderson
1. Calendar: Why was the KUAFF left out of any and all discussion or consultation over the calendar when student groups were included on the scheduling committee? What is the calendar which has been decided on and when was it finalized?
2. Campus WI-FI: Students in Dorms are still complaining they are not getting reliable WI-FI
   Wi-Fi Strength in the Library continues to be intermittent and weak.
3. Fall 2013 Registration: Why were only resident faculty and the University President listed with their names and corresponding Course offerings in the Course Fall Catalog, but, no other faculty names. Students want to know who they are taking their classes from.
4. Workload: The Administration indicated to OER that the Kean administration was restoring things back to the way they were back in the Fall 2012 Semester, however, adjunct faculty remain being told they cannot teach more than 6 credits by their chairpersons and ED’s. Where is this guideline in writing, and was the union ever apprised?
   Can the University place a hiring freeze on the hiring of any new adjunct faculty being hired, until all currently employed adjuncts have had the opportunity to accept assignments before outsourcing?
5. University Guidelines, Practices, Policies and Procedures: Since as the VPAF told us last meeting, that only BOT’s can make Policies. Where can all the University Guidelines, Practices, Policies and Procedures are found? It appears documents are being created on demand rather than after discussion and being processed through the shared governance procedure and propted to be a guideline, practice, policy and procedure.

6. Dorm Issue: Air quality and leaking bathrooms, which cause mold living environments

7. Fall Weekend College Calendar: When will this be published?

8. Class Caps: Where are all the reports we have requested these past two months? The only one we have thus far received is the one received today from VPAF for a copy of PPT Presentation at the BOT’s Meeting.

3. All faculty (resident and non-resident) have to migrate Bb 8.0 over to Bb 9.1 at the end of the Spring Semester, how are we supposed to do this if we don’t have course assignments, so it can create course shells for us to migrate all the material over to?

I. Welcome

1. The Council provides the context for the free exchange of ideas and concerns through mutual respect ultimately enabling all represented parties to work collaboratively towards the fulfillment of the University mission.

II. Discussion Items:

James Castiglione
- Arbitration ruling banning capping of overload teaching.
- List of cancelled classes for Fall 2013
- List of full-time faculty resignations from May 1, 2013 to present date
- Enrollment numbers: FTFTFs; transfers; total at Union campus; total headcount and FTEs at Kean@OCean; total headcount and FTEs at China campus
- Mandatory training resolution from BOT meeting
- Reassignment of GCOM faculty

Kate Henderson
- Actual Enrollment numbers for:
  - Kean (Union)
  - Kean (cc)
  - Kean (Wenzhou)
  - Total including all satellite campuses
- Spring Calendar for 1st and 2nd Half Semesters
- Determination on Classes being held on the Wednesday before Thanksgiving at Kean-OCC. Statistically students’ attendance is way off as OCC is formally closed. While we do have our own building, not all Kean-OCC classes are held in that building.
- Status on how Spring courses
  - When will they be posted?
  - Will Instructors names where possible accompany the postings?
  - When does registration begin and Close?
- Will there be a Winter Intercession this year? If so how will it be impacted by the 3 day teaching restrictions on adjunct faculty from ACA?
- Will adjuncts be prevented from Teaching Summer I and Summer II Courses as well?
- Request from Adjuncts to Have Evening Professional Development Classes Offered
- Better communication is needed about “Atomic Learning”
- Doors leading into Buildings need to be visibly numbered above the doors, so if there are four or five access doors to a particular building, a student or staffer calling into Kean police can properly and quickly identify which entrance needs security or police attention.
- Interoffice Mai Issues
- My School Building facilities online program

I. Welcome

The Leadership Council is, essentially, a collaborative, information sharing, advisory board that represents various administrative, academic and collective bargaining unit constituencies throughout the university. The Council provides the context for the free exchange of ideas and concerns through mutual respect ultimately enabling all represented parties to work collaboratively towards the fulfillment of the University mission.

II. Discussion Items:

James Castiglione

- Status of KeanWise and registration process.
- Use of "Pending" designation for assigned classes.
- List of untenured faculty in each class and a list of those who received non-reappointment notices or letters with VPAA's recommendations for non-reappointment.
- Reassignment of GCOM faculty
- Compensation for Chairs and Program Coordinators in the College of Visual & Performing Arts.
- Plans including timelines for new construction projects.

Kate Henderson

- Update on Permanent Replacements for:
  - Director of Library
  - Assessment and Middle States Director
  - BlackBoard Director
  and those we do not even know about yet who have either quit or were let go.
- Status on "Pending" Courses for Spring Semester
- Sir II's (Electronic or Paper) for this year.
- Wenzhou-Kean University
- Concern for Stair Safety on the two story stairwell located at the entrance of Green Lane New Building when there is ice or inclement weather
- Update on Swipe Card Access
- Kean (Union) to Kean-OCC interoffice Mail Issue
- ZipCars?
• Winter Intercession (5 days per week) as it affects Part Time Faculty and current NJ Pension and Medical dictates
• Issue concerning the numbering of Building Doorways to more easily identify Building entrance to Campus Police in an emergency
• Update on number of Courses which actually ran for the 2013 Fall Semester compared to last Fall 2012.
• Update on Experimental Remedial Math Program involving our most vulnerable Math Challenged students in class sizes of 50. How many failed mid terms??? How is it that students can pass their online homework assignments but fail classroom tests on the same material. Veracity of students actually doing their own work is in question.
• Customer Service for outsiders calling into Kean. If it is frustrating for in house students, faculty and staff to connect to a living person, what is the outside prospective students having to deal with.
• Issue of keeping main campus switchboard open during all hours of Kean Academic Operation (especially from 4:30pm-10:00pm).
• Update on New Academic Building in VE Parking Lot.
• Request to videotape/record Webinars for many meetings being held for Faculty and Staff, thus permitting all faculty and staff to access information who are unable to physically attend. Especially those off campus

• Discuss date to submit agenda items

CAM agenda 11/13/13

Agenda

1) Awaiting a decision from the university with regard to Antonio Quimpo clerk/driver. At our 10/24/13 meeting the university responded that they would seek clarification to see if driving students is within the scope of clerk/driver.
I.F.P.T.E claims the clerk driver does not drive students and this is theft of work from our bargaining.
V.P. Newsome also made a suggestion to the university to changing clerk/driver 12 month title to motor vehicle operator and move both MVO's from dorms to facilities where 12 month operator can be utilized efficiently and move two 10 month MVO's to dorms This was based on Denise Castinon reason for clerk/driver title.

2) Any progress with regard to the hiring of additional personnel with titles within the bargaining unit of I.F.P.T.E. The last response 10/24/13 was approval has not been given. If this still holds true who is responsible for granting approval.
