

The Bachelor of Arts in Sociology and Master of Public Administration 5-year Program

A 5-Year Combined Bachelor of Arts in Sociology and Master of Public Administration program provides students with advanced knowledge and skills necessary to take on leadership roles within public and nonprofit organizations, including governmental entities. The program is structured to provide a solid academic foundation designed to meet the needs of today's administrative environment, which includes managing complex issues and analyzing, recommending, and implementing impactful policy changes.

Contact: Dr. Jung Ah (Claire) Yun

Department of Criminal Justice and Public Service and Administration

College of Business and Public Management