Ms. Kelly read the statement of compliance and reported the meeting was properly advertised and in compliance with the Open Public Meetings Act.
5. CHAIR’S COMMENTS
Chair Fastook thanked everyone for attending the meeting and noted how great it was to be back in person on a bustling campus. He said President Repollet has done a tremendous job guiding the University through the pandemic and positioning Kean to expand and grow. He congratulated faculty, students and employees on their perseverance and encouraged the campus to continue to work together to achieve its goals.
6. PRESIDENT’S COMMENTS
The President welcomed everyone to the first in-person board meeting in more than two years. He noted that the last time he attended a Board meeting in person, he was sitting in the trustee seat. Dr. Repollet said he both delighted and humbled to be sitting in the President's seat and to report on the tremendous work that all constituencies on campus are currently engaged in. He noted how inspiring it is to work firsthand with everyone on campus, from faculty and students, to administrators and staff, to adjuncts and ABM employees.

The President then introduced Dr. Sancha Gray, Senior Vice President for Entrepreneurial Education Initiatives (EEI). Dr. Gray provided an overview of the work of her division undertook this past year, highlighting efforts to build a strong pipeline for K-12 students to Kean University. She also shared a short video on the success of EEI summer programs.

The President then introduced Kate Gallagher, the new SVP for Student Success and Retention. Gallagher shared some statistics on the division's successful first year, including a 5% increase in retention. She asked Dr. Frank Argote-Freyre of the KFT to join her at the microphone to introduce this year's cohort of Equity in Action Fellows. The program is designed to help the University further diversify its faculty to the benefit of students and the institution as a whole. Each of the six fellows present introduced themselves and their areas of study.

The President then welcomed Sara Campion from Interdisciplinary Studies to share a presentation on the recent Global Studies Travel Learn to South Korea. Campion noted the project was partially funded by the first Fulbright curriculum award the University received in over a decade. She introduced both faculty and students who participated in the program, and shared a video overview of the trip and the work undertaken.

Dr. Michael Salvatore, Senior Vice President for Administration, was introduced by President Repollet. He shared with the Board and the public an overview on a number of initiatives related to data analysis, research and the University's efforts to reach Carnegie R2 status. Salvatore introduced Dr. George Avirappattu from the mathematics department who led a summer research project at Indiana University under one of the top research experts in the country. He and a student researcher discussed the project they worked on mapping institutional data from 2005-2021.

Dr. Repollet then introduced Vice President Karen Smith of University Relations to provide some updates on brand marketing initiatives including a campus spotlight on Amazon Prime. Ms. Smith shared a portion of the "College Tour" video spotlighting Kean and now playing on Amazon Prime. She reminded everyone to attend the first President's Alumni Ball on Friday September 30th.
