THE 2017-2018 ANNUAL CAMPUS SECURITY AND FIRE SAFETY REPORT

The Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report is a Kean University publication that provides important campus life and fire safety information to all current students and employees. As part of Kean University's commitment to ensuring the safety and well-being of its community, the report is accessible twenty four hours a day, seven days a week online via the Kean University web site at www.kean.edu. Additionally, paper copies are made available upon request. The information provided in the Annual Security Report is updated annually in accordance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (also known as the Clery Act). This report also complies with provisions of the Drug Free Work Place Act of 1988, the Drug Free School and Community Act of 1989, and Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) as well as other federal and New Jersey state laws.

Provisions of The Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report are subject to change without notice. Versions of The Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report published on the www.kean.edu website are to be considered the most complete and up-to-date statement of the current University policies in effect.

A MESSAGE FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY AND POLICE

Please take a few moments to review the important material in this newsletter, which describes the University's efforts in the important area of campus security and safety. Security, safety and crime are issues of concern to everyone. Despite the traditional view of the University campus as a sanctuary from the ills of the larger society, some incidence of crime on-campus is an unfortunate reality—which every University has to be concerned with.

The vast majority of offenses that have been reported at Kean have been directed against property rather than against people, and Kean is a safe community by any reasonable measure. We believe you will find that Kean has much to be proud of in terms of campus safety and security, that our efforts in this area are serious and ongoing, and that we consistently give crime prevention and the safety and security of every member of our community the highest priority.

The Department of Public Safety and Police exists to serve all people within its jurisdiction with respect, fairness and compassion. It is committed to the prevention of crime and the protection of life and property; the preservation of peace, order and safety; the enforcement of laws and University rules; the maintenance of a sense of security; and the safeguarding of constitutional guarantees.

The department recognizes and supports, in action and in spirit, the mission of Kean and the philosophy that community policing and service is its foundation. It is driven by the goals of enhancing the quality of life, investigating problems as well as incidents, seeking solutions and fostering a sense of security throughout the campus. The department nurtures public trust by holding its members to the highest standards of performance and ethics. To ensure the best community policing and service to the campus community, the department commits itself to the continual review, evaluation and, if necessary, modification of existing departmental programs, operations and policies.

To fulfill its mission, the department is dedicated to providing a quality work environment and the professional development of its members through effective training and leadership.

The 2017-2018 Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report

The Department of Public Safety and Police is located in Downs Hall in Union, NJ. The main entrance to the Police Headquarters is on the side of the building. If you have any questions or would like more information regarding campus safety, please contact the department at (908) 737-4840.

KEAN OCEAN STUDENTS: Kean Ocean students should visit the Ocean County College website for information regarding any campus closures or class cancellations: www.ocean.edu or visit the Viking Alert system at www.ocean.edu/content/public/study-on-campus/campus-life/security.html

Students enrolled in classes at Middlesex County College (www.middlesexcc.edu), Bergen Community College (www.bergen.edu) or Raritan Valley Community College (www.raritanval.edu) will have to visit your respective institution's website for information.

Any communication regarding university closures, class cancellations and/or delays will be made utilizing the methods listed above.

SECTION 1: CAMPUS SAFETY

UNIVERSITY POLICE PROCEDURES AND STATISTICS

RELATIONSHIP WITH THE CAMPUS STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT SYSTEM

Kean University cooperates with all law enforcement agencies, including its own. It seeks no special treatment, status or immunity for its students or others detected in violation of the law, on or off campus.

Someone charged with violating University policy and the law may be subject to criminal and conduct sanctions for the same misconduct. The University exercises its discretion to determine if, and when, criminal and conduct action for the same misconduct is warranted to protect the interests of the Kean community and the safety of its members.

In such cases, the University may initiate a complaint under the University Student Code of Conduct structure, independent of and in addition to, any criminal prosecution that may have been initiated.

Anyone who brings a crime to the attention of a University administrator should also speak with a police official. Officers have the discretion, except where limited by law, to refer petty or minor offenses for campus conduct action, instead of or in addition to, arrest and prosecution. It is the policy of the Department of Public Safety and Police to fully inform community members of all of their options, through campus and off-campus enforcement entities, for dealing with offenses committed against them.

The Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs is in close contact with the Department of Public Safety and Police and the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct. They exchange information within the parameters of federal privacy laws.

ACCESS TO CAMPUS FACILITIES

Campus residence halls are open only to residents and their invited guests, university personnel and university guests. This restriction is posted, under the New Jersey trespass statutes. Those who want to enter are required to present proof of residence or, if they are guests, to present identification and be signed in by a resident. Entrances to campus residence halls are equipped with card reader technology that provides access only to residents using their University identification cards.

Access policies in academic buildings during hours when classes are not in session are determined by the academic departments. Anyone in a campus building other than a residence hall, during a time when the building is not in regular use, is asked to notify the Department of Public Safety and Police of his or her presence. At the Wenzhou-

Kean campus, Wenzhou- Kean Security should be notified of the individual's presence at 0577- 55870110. Certain sensitive facilities are equipped with alarm systems.

MAINTENANCE OF UNIVERSITY FACILITIES

The Maintenance Department maintains the University buildings and grounds with a concern for safety and security.

It inspects campus facilities regularly, promptly makes repairs affecting safety and security, and responds immediately to reports of potential safety and security hazards, such as broken windows and locks. The campus is well-lighted, and regularly scheduled checks are conducted to ensure that lighting is adequate and properly maintained.

AUTHORITY OF THE UNIVERSITY POLICE AND ITS RELATIONSHIP WITH OTHER LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES

University police officers are fully trained and armed, and in accordance with the state laws under which they are sworn, have "all powers of police and constables in criminal cases and offenses against the law," as well as the authority to enforce the New Jersey motor vehicle laws.

The Kean University Department of Public Safety and Police works closely with the police departments of the surrounding communities and participates in mutual aid.

The current working relationship between the campus and township police departments is such that incidents occurring on the campus are handled fully by the University police unless the University police specifically requests assistance.

At the Union campus, primary responsibility for the investigation and prosecution of crimes on campus lies with the Kean University Department of Public Safety and Police. In appropriate cases, the advice, expertise and assistance of various units of the New Jersey state police and the Division of Criminal Justice may also be used.

At Kean Ocean, law enforcement services are provided by the Toms River Police Department, which responds to fire and medical emergencies as well as reported crimes. While there is no formal Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) in place, the Toms River Police Department undertakes investigations of criminal activity at Kean Ocean.

At Wenzhou- Kean University, law enforcement services are provided by Wenzhou- Kean Security, which responds to fire and medical emergencies as well as reported crimes. Wenzhou- Kean Security works with local law enforcement agencies, including the Ou-hain Police Department and the LiAa Police Department.

MONITORING AND RECORDING CRIMINAL ACTIVITY AT OFF-CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS

The University relies on its close working relationship with local law enforcement agencies to receive information about incidents involving students on campus. The KUPD also requests crime statistics from state and local law enforcement agencies that may have jurisdiction over property which is owned or controlled by Kean University. Likewise, the KUPD requests statistics from local law enforcement at the Wenzhou- Kean campus.

The Department of Public Safety/Police will actively investigate any crime information it receives concerning or involving a member of the campus community. If the University is notified of a situation in which a campus community member was the victim of a crime, the department may issue a Campus Safety Alert, detailing the incident and providing tips so that other community members may avoid similar incidents.

If the Kean University Department of Public Safety and Police is notified of crimes or other serious incidents occurring at off campus establishments or locations, they will forward any information for misconduct action to the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct for students attending classes at either the Union or Kean Ocean campuses. Any misconduct reported at off campus locations in Wenzhou China will be reported to Wenzhou- Kean's Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct.

CAMPUS REPORTING AUTHORITIES

The Clery Act specifies that officers of Kean University's Department of Public Safety and Police will serve as official campus security authorities for the purpose of reporting criminal offenses. Other officials of the University who have responsibility for campus security reporting under federal law include: individuals outside of Kean University Public Safety and Police who have responsibility for campus security; officials of the institution who have significant responsibility for student and campus activities; and other individuals identified by University campus security policies as the individuals to whom students and employees should report criminal offenses.

Professional staff and administrators within the following departments/units have been designated as campus reporting authorities: Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs, Office of Residential Student Services (including Resident Assistants and student security staff), Center for Leadership and Service (including faculty advisors to student groups), Department of Athletics and Recreation, Miron Student Center Operations and Event Management, Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct, Office of Student Government, Health Services, Kean Ocean Administration Office, Kean Ocean Campus Life Office, Wenzhou-Kean University Office of Academic Affairs, Wenzhou-Kean University Office of Student Affairs, Ocean County College Campus Security and Public Safety Department and University vice presidents and academic deans. Individuals affiliated with those departments are responsible for reporting crime statistics. Campus Security Reporting Forms are available from the Department of Public Safety and Police and may be obtained from the director of each administrative unit. The Campus Security Reporting Form can also be accessed at <http://www.kean.edu/sites/default/files/images/CSARreportForm.pdf>. At the Wenzhou- Kean campus, the Campus Security Reporting Form can be obtained from Wenzhou- Kean Security or the director of each administrative unit.

Campus ministers, Student Support Services Advocate, Kean Health Services clinicians, and psychological counselors within the Office of the Kean Counseling Center are exempt from reporting personally identifiable information, but must provide general statistical information for purposes of Clery reporting obligations.

CRIME PREVENTION PROGRAMMING

Basic informational and crime prevention materials are available to incoming students and their families during the orientation process. Transfer students, graduate students, international students and those using campus facilities for summer camps and recreation also receive basic crime awareness and prevention materials.

At the Union campus, crime prevention materials specifically targeted to resident students are distributed by the Office of Residential Student Services each semester. Police officers also make presentations to a number of sections of Transition to Kean, a course required of all first-time, full-time students.

■ The 2017-2018 Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report

In addition, a number of presentations are made annually to residence hall occupants. The Student Government Associations participates in an annual "Security Awareness Week," and the Department of Public Safety and Police participates by distributing crime prevention literature, taking part in informational programs, serving on panels and arranging specialized law enforcement demonstrations.

At the Kean Ocean campus, local law enforcement and Ocean Security personnel provide crime prevention information to students,

At the Wenzhou- Kean campus, local law enforcement and Wenzhou- Kean Security personnel provide crime prevention information to students.

Kean University offers the New Media Learning online training program for all employees. The New Media Learning program provides training on preventing sexual harassment and employment discrimination to all new employees within a reasonable period of time after the date of hire. Refresher policy training is provided to all employees, including supervisors and managers, within a reasonable period of time.

CRIME STATISTICS

The Kean Department of Public Safety and Police and Ocean County Security Department have been a contributor to the state and federal Uniform Crime Reporting System since 1975. Portions of the Uniform Crime Report for the last three calendar years may be reviewed within the Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report.

Wenzhou- Kean Security, in conjunction with Kean University's Department of Public Safety and Police, has been a contributor to the state and federal Uniform Crime Reporting System. The information may be reviewed within the Annual Fire and Safety Report.

MEGAN'S LAW AND SEX OFFENDER NOTIFICATION

On October 31, 1994, Megan's Law was passed with the intention of providing information to the public about certain sex offenders within their community. The offenders are evaluated, registered and placed into tiers. The tier designation determines the level of community notification.

The Union County Prosecutor's Office notifies the Kean University Police Department of tier III Megan's Law violators. Implementation of the law at the University is a joint effort of the President's Office and Campus Police. Upon notification the following items will be distributed to each Vice President:

Flyers (Only managerial and supervisory personnel are permitted to retain during the notification period).

- Notification Letter
- Citizen's Guide to Megan's Law
- Kean University Megan's Law Manual
- Manager's Notification Guide Sheet
- Departmental Notification Lists

Each staff member on the notification list reviews the flyer and notification letter and initials his/her signature on the notification list. All signed notification lists and accompanying materials are collected and forwarded to Campus Police.

Members of the Kean Union and Kean Ocean University communities seeking information on New Jersey sex offenders who are living, working, volunteering and/or enrolled at Kean University should consult the NJ State Police web site at www.state.nj.us/njsp/info/reg_sexoffend.html for the state sex offender registry.

CAMPUS ALERT SYSTEM

Kean University utilizes CampusAlert™, a notification system for Campus Crisis Management and First Responder Communication provided by MIR3. CampusAlert™ is a secure notification platform that integrates with Kean University's existing communication infrastructure for sharing critical information. The CampusAlert™ system allows for the most flexible means of communicating with our students, faculty and staff. Whether your preference is a text message, email or a phone call, the system supports any of these options or all simultaneously. CampusAlert™ messages may also be received after the initial user registration by downloading an app to Apple or Android based smartphones.

The CampusAlert™ System is maintained by the Office of Computer and Information Services (OCIS), and operated by the University Police.

Kean University will utilize this system to notify our community of the following announcements and/or emergencies:

- Emergency Campus Events – Alerts to students and staff of security-related incidents, utility shutdowns, weather related closures and events and other critical advisories as events unfold.
- Information Technology – Provide maximum warning for service disruption and recovery.
- First Responder Mobilization – Alerts to campus security, police, fire and emergency services automatically.

In order to take advantage of the benefits this service provides; all students, faculty and staff must register by following the instructions below.

NOTE: All students residing in the residence halls or alternative housing are required to register for CampusAlert™.

CAMPUSALERT™ SETUP INSTRUCTIONS

To register:

1. Go to www.mir3.com/kean
2. Click on "Create Account".

3. Type in your Kean University email address.
4. A temporary password will be emailed to you.
5. Follow the instructions in the email to complete your registration.

NOTE: If your registration is not complete, your account will be purged from the system and you will not receive alerts. Providing your cell phone or landline number will generate messages to these numbers as well as your Kean University email account, charges for calls/messages may apply according to your individual service plan.

STUDENTS: Please update the "Registered Through Date" when setting up your account. Failure to do so will result in your account being prematurely purged from the system and/or continued messaging to you after you have graduated or otherwise separated from Kean University.

Kean University stresses that maintaining current contact information is critical to the effectiveness of the system and urges students, faculty and staff to update their contact information on a regular basis. All information supplied to this system is secure and will remain private.

TO UPDATE AN EXISTING REGISTRATION:

1. Once you have registered you can update your contact info by following the update instructions: Go to www.mir3.com/kean
2. Enter your Kean University e-mail address (or other e-mail address that was used to register).
3. Enter (or reset) your password.
4. Update your contact information.
5. Logout.

The University is committed to providing our students, staff, and faculty with services that enhance a safe and secure University community. As always, please feel free to contact the help desk at x76000 for further assistance.

ADDITIONAL ASSISTANCE WITH CAMPUSALERT™

Kean University is committed to providing our students, staff, and faculty with services that enhance the safety and security of our community. Please feel free to contact the OCIS Help Desk by phone at (908)737-6000 for assistance with registering, maintaining or removing an account with the

ELERTS

The Department of Public Safety/Police is happy to announce the implementation of the ELERTS See Say™ mobile application for the Kean University community. This application will allow us to enhance our ability to interface with the campus community, and provide for a broad range of services staffing levels would not otherwise allow for through the “virtual escort” function. All members of the Kean community are invited to utilize these new services after fully reading and understanding the information provided on this page. ELERTS is intended for the use of Kean University Faculty, Staff & Students only. Campus guests may request a Safety Escort by calling the Police Desk at (908)737-4800.

ABOUT ELERTS

ELERTS See Say™ is a mobile application designed to provide a fast, easy way to report security concerns via iPhones, iPads and Android smartphones. The app provides the ability to call the University Police at 908-737-4800 with the touch of a button, or to report a non-emergency concern by text (with or without an attached photograph). ELERTS also provides members of the Kean University community with the ability to activate a GPS-based “Virtual Escort” service through the “EscortMe” function within the application over either a cellular or Wi-Fi connection. A Virtual Escort will be monitored in real time by the Department of Public Safety/Police 24-hour Communications Center, which will dispatch the University Police in the event a distress signal is activated.

The Communications Center will have the ability to send and receive text based messages through the ELERTS app in the event follow up is needed on a report or escort, or the Department has specific or public information they wish to share with the registered users of this app. Messages sent through the app are delivered by “push”, and may result in a CampusAlert™ system.

KEAN OCEAN VIKING ALERT

The Kean Ocean campus communicates information regarding crisis and emergent safety concerns via Viking Alert. The Viking Alert system can be accessed at: www.ocean.edu/content/public/study-on-campus/campus-life/security.html pop up message, audible alert, “tray” icon, etc. and/or data charges depending on your specific model of smartphone, device settings, and service plan.

ELERTS REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

Download the app to your Android smartphone or iOS smartphone/tablet by following associated links on this page.

1. Agree to the Terms of Use.
2. Provide your first and last name, @kean.edu email address and your cell phone number. NOTE: Registration with an @kean.edu email address is required. Registrations which do not include a @kean.edu email address will be deleted/purged from the system within 24 hours, and none of the features of the app will function until the registration is properly completed with a valid Kean University email address.
3. Browse the organization list and select Kean University, then click the “Done” button until you reach the ELERTS launch screen.
4. The app is now ready to use.

ELERTS RULES FOR KEAN UNIVERSITY

1. True emergency situations should always be reported by phone to our Communications Center at x74800 (908-737-4800 from off campus or cellular phones) or via 9-1-1 whenever possible. NOTE: The specific location of an issue or incident should be included in the narrative for all text based reports. GPS locations may not always be accurate or specific, and are dependant upon numerous factors controlled by cellular carriers including but not limited to signal strength and network capabilities.
2. In emergency situations on campus, the first priority of the University Police is to broadcast information through the CampusAlert™ system. Time permitting, emergency broadcast messages will be duplicated through both social media accounts and the ELERTS SeeSay™ app. Registration for CampusAlert™ is therefore strongly urged by anyone who intends to download and utilize this app.
3. The Communications Center may follow up on a text based report by sending one or more response messages and/or calling the listed phone number if more information is needed.
4. Improper use of the Virtual Escort function, or messages deemed to be abusive by the Department of Public

■ The 2017-2018 Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report

Safety/Police, may result in the deletion of an ELERTS registration and/or a referral to the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct / Human Resources for administrative sanctions.

5. False reports through this service may result in the filing of criminal charges, referral to the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct, or both.
6. While the Department of Public Safety/Police will make every effort to respond to text reports received through this system, response times may vary due to high call volume or operational conditions. If there is any level of urgency to what is being reported, all users of the app are urged to call the Communications Center directly at x74800 or utilize 9-1-1 for emergencies only.
7. The University Police will not respond to reports off campus property, including Virtual Escort duress signals. Use of ELERTS SeeSay™ for Kean University is intended for students, faculty and staff members while on campus only. When off campus, please seek out the responsible law enforcement or first responder agency accordingly.
8. The University Police will make every effort to locate a person who has activated a Virtual Escort duress signal provided the GPS information provided by the sending mobile device is specific enough to do so. The Communications Center will attempt to call the listed mobile number if officers are having difficulty locating the source of a duress signal and/or to confirm that there is an emergency.

9. In the event a Virtual Escort duress signal is sent by accident, you are responsible to call the Communications Center as soon as possible to report this. You may be asked to remain on the line and/or meet with a police officer to ensure your safety. Failure to comply with the instructions of the dispatcher in this situation will be considered an improper use of the system as described above, and may result in sanctions and/or deletion of your ELERTS account.
10. The ELERTS application is only open to active students and employees of Kean University.

Any member of the community who has questions about this app may contact our Department by e-mail at kupolice@kean.edu for assistance.

CRIME PREVENTION TIPS

Kean is an academic community committed to maintaining the safety and well-being of its community members. The campus covers more than 150 acres of land in two municipalities: Union and Hillside, as well as the branch campuses in Toms River, New Jersey and Wenzhou, Zhejiang Province, China. As in all communities, crime is a potential threat to any member of the University community. We want to assist in helping you protect yourself and your property. To reduce vulnerability to crime, you should consistently practice preventive measures.

Be aware that you are a potential victim of crime.

1. Avoid the use of alcohol and other drugs
 - People under the influence are more likely to be the victim of a serious crime or accident.
2. Immediately notify the University police if any person(s) or activity arouses your suspicion
 - Avoid isolation.
 - After dark, walk with others.
 - Avoid isolated areas (both indoors and outdoors).
 - Use well-lighted paths.
 - Have alternate means of transportation available.
 - Do not hitchhike or pick up hitchhikers.
3. Keep doors and windows locked
 - Do not prop open entrance doors.
4. Do not leave property unprotected
 - In your motor vehicle and residence room, store valuables out of sight.
 - Do not leave property unattended in the library, dining halls, academic buildings, offices, etc.
 - Record the make, model and serial number of all valuables and engrave them with your driver's license number. This will increase the chances that any items recovered can be returned to you. Personal inventory forms are available at the Department of Public Safety and Police.

MISSING STUDENT NOTIFICATION POLICY

Pursuant to Section 488 of the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008, Kean University students have the option to register a confidential contact person to be notified in the event that the student is determined to be missing.

POLICY

Kean students are provided with the option, on a voluntary basis, to register missing person contact information in KeanWISE upon enrollment, regardless of housing status. A student's missing person contact information will be kept separately from emergency contact information, even if the student has registered the same person. By providing missing student contact information, the student grants permission to the respective on-campus law enforcement agency to contact the identified individual for the purpose of a missing persons investigation.

The following chart provides contact information for the on-campus law enforcement agency to be contacted in the event that a Kean University student is believed to be missing at each respective location.

Union Campus Emergency: 9-1-1	Kean Ocean Emergency: 9-1-1	Wenzhou-Kean Emergency: 1-1-0
Kean University Department of Public Safety and Police: (908) 737-4800	Ocean County College Campus Security and Public Safety Department: (732) 255- 0400, Press 6	Wenzhou-Kean Security: 0577-55870100 or 0577-55870033
KUPD On Campus Extension: 74800	OCC Public Safety On-Campus Extension: 2200	Not Applicable

Any time a student is believed to be missing, the on-campus law enforcement agency must be contacted immediately, as provided in the chart above. Upon notification, the respective on-campus law enforcement agency, designated Student Affairs personnel, and/or Residential Student Services personnel work together to locate missing students, notify appropriate local law enforcement, and check on the welfare of such students.

Each academic year Kean students are afforded the opportunity to provide, on a voluntary basis, missing person contact information. The missing person contact information will be kept separately from emergency contact information, even if the student has registered the same person. Missing person contact information will be used by law enforcement for the sole purpose of a missing persons investigation. The individual provided in the missing persons information will be contacted within 24 hours of the determination that a student is missing. A student may be considered a missing person by Kean University if the student is determined to be missing for a 24 hour period and the student's absence is contrary to his/her normal pattern of behavior or is the result of any unusual circumstance. Every missing student report will be immediately investigated once a student has been determined to be missing for 24 hours, though instances of bizarre disappearances, suspected kidnapping, or potential crimes will be acted upon immediately when reported. Anyone who believes a student to be missing must immediately report their concern to the respective on-campus law enforcement agency provided in the chart above. Most missing person reports in the college environment result from a student changing his/her routine without informing his/her roommates and/or friends of the change.

PROCEDURE

If a student is designated as missing, the respective on-campus law enforcement agency will notify the individual listed in the missing person contact information within 24 hours. At the Wenzhou-Kean campus, Wenzhou-Kean Security or a designated Kean University administrator in consultation with local law enforcement will notify the individual listed in the missing person contact information within 24 hours. For students under the age of 18, a call will be made to both the custodial parents or guardians and the individual listed in the missing person contact information.

In the event a Kean University administrator receives a report that a student may be missing, he/she will collect and document the following information at the time of the report to provide to the appropriate on-campus law enforcement agency:

1. The name and relationship of the person making the report.
2. The date, time and location the missing student was last seen.
3. The general routine or habits of the suspected missing student (e.g. – visiting friends who live off-campus, working a job away from campus) including any recent changes in behavior or demeanor.
4. The missing student's cell phone number (if known by the reporter).
5. Whether local law enforcement has been notified.
4. Secure a current student ID or other photo of the student from a friend.
5. Send the student an email.
6. Check all possible locations mentioned by the parties above including, but not limited to, library, residence hall lounges, classroom and recreational facilities, etc.
7. Contact or call any other on-campus or off-campus friends or contacts that are made known. This could include checking a student's social networking sites such as Myspace, Facebook and Twitter.
8. Ascertain the student's car make, model and license plate number.
9. Obtain electronic logs in order to determine the last time the student accessed the Kean University network and/or determine when the student last entered or exited campus buildings.
10. If appropriate, contact local law enforcement in the student's hometown for assistance in locating and ensuring the safety of the student. At the Wenzhou-Kean campus, local law enforcement may be contacted for assistance in locating and ensuring the safety of the student.

Upon notification from any entity that a student may be missing, the University, in collaboration with the appropriate on-campus law enforcement agency, may use any or all of the following resources to assist in locating the student.

1. Call and text the student's cell phone.
2. Go to the student's residence hall room.
3. Talk to the student's RA, roommate, and floor mates to see if anyone can confirm the missing student's whereabouts and/or confirm the date, time, and location the student was last seen.

Policy updated September 2016.

THE OFFICE OF FIRE SAFETY

The primary mission of the Office of Fire Safety is to protect the health, safety and welfare of the Union campus community by providing fire and life safety educational and awareness programs. The Office is also responsible to continually review all campus facilities and buildings to create a "built in" fire safe environment in which faculty, staff and students are prepared/trained and able to react, evaluate and decide on the correct action should a fire or life safety emergency occur.

The Office of Fire Safety coordinates and acts as the liaison with the Department of Community Affairs – Division of Fire Safety (DFS) to facilitate and assist DFS inspectors in enforcing applicable provisions of the New Jersey International Fire Code and related regulations and standards. The goal of this Office is to achieve a fire safe environment, while assisting the Division of Fire Safety Inspectors to conduct inspections of buildings and structures including those classified as high rise and life hazard use for compliance with the New Jersey Uniform Fire Safety Code (UFC).

The Office of Fire Safety for the Union campus can be reached at (908) 737- 4813.

The primary mission of Wenzhou- Kean Security and the Office of Residential Life is to protect the health, safety and welfare of the campus community by providing fire and safety information. The University is also responsible to continually review all campus facilities and buildings to create safety features and a fire safe environment in which faculty, staff and students are prepared/trained and able to react, evaluate and decide on the correct action should a fire or life safety emergency occur.

GENERAL FIRE/EMERGENCY

BEFORE A FIRE EMERGENCY: PLANNING

1. Keep your most important personal belongings readily accessible, especially keys to your home and vehicle, pocketbook, wallet, medications and appropriate clothing for outside assembly. You may not be able to return to the building for an extended period!
2. Take time to get to know your building. Know the location of at least two of the nearest available exits from your area.
3. Do not use elevators in case of emergency they may not work!
4. Know the location of the nearest available fire alarm pull stations in the building where you are located and how to activate them. Fire alarm pull stations have self-inscribed instructions.
5. Fire extinguishers; based on this emergency action plan; only certain designated Kean employees are certified/trained to use a fire extinguisher. All other occupants of the building must evacuate!
Note: Building occupants are not required to fight fires
6. Be aware of persons in your area who would have difficulty evacuating due to physical limitations during an evacuation.
7. Be aware of any rooms or offices where an alarm may not be heard, including, but not limited to some bathrooms and photographic darkrooms.

8. Participate in fire drills and take them seriously.
9. Accountability: all classroom professors/instructors as well as administrative assistants for each and every department on campus shall be responsible for and utilize a university provided (copies available for download and printing at (http://www.kean.edu/admin/uploads/pdf/Emergency_Evacuation_Roster.pdf)—emergency evacuation attendance roster listing all employees and classroom occupants for each day. The emergency evacuation attendance roster shall only be collected during an actual emergency.

ON DISCOVERING: REPORTING A FIRE

1. Preferred method to notify occupants of a fire: If you observe fire or smoke activate the building's fire alarm pull station. Fire alarm pull stations have self-inscribed instructions.
2. Time Permitting, recover your most important personal belongings that are readily accessible, especially keys to your home and vehicle, pocketbook, wallet, medications and appropriate clothing for outside assembly. You may not be able to return to the building!
3. If smoke is present, crawl low to the floor to avoid toxic smoke and gases that collect at the ceiling.
4. Go to the nearest available exit and leave the building. Use the nearest available stairways; never use elevators!

- A complete supervised fire sprinkler system is provided throughout all residence halls
- A complete supervised fire alarm detection system is provided throughout all residence halls
- All furniture within the residence halls is required to have a fire resistance rating
- Fire evacuation drills for Main Campus Residence Halls: Two (2) fire evacuation drills per semester are mandated by the State of New Jersey:
 - The first fire evacuation drill must occur within the first 10 days of the beginning of the semester
 - The second fire evacuation drill for the semester must occur before dawn or after dusk

The Emergency Action Plan is an integral part of the above policy it explains our campus wide emergency evacuation procedures for all students, faculty and staff. Kean University's Fire Safety Policy and Emergency Action Plan can be found on the Kean University web site at: http://www.kean.edu/admin/uploads/fire_evacuationupdate_2012.pdf

The general Fire Safety Policy lists items that for safety reasons are prohibited on our campus. This policy along with the general fire safety prevention and education programs, are crucial to fire safety comprehension.

- Elevators may not work in an emergency.
5. Preferred method to report a fire to emergency response personnel: Call University police (ext. 911 or 908-737-4800) and provide your location and a description of the fire after you have left the building. Notification: All fires should be reported to our campus police at 908-737-4800.
 6. Preferred method to report a fire to emergency response personnel at the Kean Ocean campus: Call 9-1-1 and provide your location and a description of the fire after you have left the building.
 7. At the Wenzhou-Kean campus, call 1-1-0 for immediate assistance in the event of a fire.
 8. Extinguisher Use—If the fire is incipient—(size of a wastebasket) and you have taken the University provided annual fire extinguisher training, use—your safety first—discretion to select the proper type of fire extinguisher. Always keep an exit at your back. Attempt to extinguish the fire only after evacuation has started and the University Police have been called. Building occupants are not required to fight fires. Your safe evacuation should come first and foremost. As such all occupants are required to evacuate!

ON HEARING THE FIRE ALARM: EVACUATING THE BUILDING

1. All occupants of the building must immediately evacuate the building by proceeding to the nearest available safe exit and proceed to your designated assembly area.
2. Time Permitting: recover your most important personal belongings that are readily accessible, especially keys to your home and vehicle, pocketbook, wallet, medications and appropriate clothing for outside assembly. You may not be able to return to the building!

3. When you leave your room, close the door to help prevent the fire from spreading.
4. If smoke is present, crawl low to the floor to avoid toxic smoke and gases that collect at the ceiling.
5. Alert all persons in your area as you are exiting the building.

IF YOU ARE NOT ABLE TO LEAVE: SHELTER IN PLACE

1. Feel the doorknob, with the back of your hand, before opening any door. If it is hot do not open the door. If it is not hot, brace yourself behind the door and open it slightly. If heat or heavy smoke is present, close the door and stay in your room. Keep low to the floor as products of combustion will accumulate at the ceiling.
2. If you cannot leave the room, seal the cracks around the door with wet towels or other materials. Call University Police: 908-737-4800 (extension 911 from a campus phone) and let them know your location and that you are unable to exit. If you are at the Wenzhou-Kean campus, call 1-1-0.
3. If possible, open the window a few inches for fresh air and hang a white sheet or cloth out the window to alert the fire department of your location.
4. Close all other doors and windows in the vicinity of the fire.
5. Stay close to the window, holding a wet towel to your face; do not open the windows except to alert rescue personnel by hanging a white sheet or cloth out the window.

EXITING: EVACUATING THE BUILDING

1. Leave the building using the nearest available safe exit.
2. Do not use the elevator! It may not work in a fire emergency!
3. If all exits are blocked, return to a safe location, close the door and call 911 to report your location. If you are at the Wenzhou-Kean campus, call 1-1-0 or Wenzhou-Kean Security at 0577-55870110.
4. When using the stairwell to evacuate, stay to the right, remaining close to the wall to allow the Fire Department personnel sufficient access to get to the fire floor or location of the emergency.
5. After leaving, move away from the building. Do not stand in the roadway! Stay a minimum of 150 feet from the building and meet at the designated assembly area for your location.
6. Click on the link below to review the Evacuation Assembly Area Map for the designated assembly area for the Union campus. Campus police will advise if relocation is needed. http://www.kean.edu/admin/uploads/images/CampusPolice/Evacuation_Map.jpg
7. Re-entry: Do not re-enter the building until instructed by either the University Police or fire department officials with authority from the Incident Commander. Often the emergency response personnel silence the alarm prior to completion. A silenced alarm does not mean re-enter. Occupants will be notified to re-enter upon the fire and or police department mobile public address system.

FIRE EVACUATIONS: OCCUPANTS WITH DISABILITIES

The Human Resources Office and The Office of Counseling/Disabilities notify individuals of the option of being placed on a list of immobile faculty, staff, and students. Self-identification is voluntary and confidential. At the Union campus, the Fire Safety Director maintains a list of immobile residential students.

The campus police dispatcher receives an updated list each semester of all the occupants with disabilities and the designated areas of refuge. Personnel included on the list are met in person by the Fire Safety Director and given individual guidelines to follow along with a list of all buildings and areas of refuge within each building.

Prior to an emergency evacuation of any kind, a partner should be assigned or chosen to accompany and remain with the disabled occupant.; attempting to carry an immobilized person is discouraged.

If a fire alarm is activated, the following procedures should be followed at all times:

- The disabled occupant should call 911 to notify University Police of their location. If a phone is not readily available, the disabled occupant should ask a messenger to communicate their location to 911. At the Wenzhou-Kean campus, such information should be communicated to 1-1-0.
- Visually impaired but mobile persons should first be moved out of the rush of traffic and then promptly assisted to the nearest exit. Hearing impaired but mobile persons, who may be unaware of the need to evacuate, should be calmly advised and guided to the nearest available exit.

- Temporarily immobilized persons, including people wearing casts and/or using canes or crutches, should be assisted, depending on their ability to navigate stairs and maneuver through doorways. Persons should proceed into the stairwell and wait on the landing until additional help can be summoned.
- Permanently immobilized persons who have either limited or no use of their legs and must rely on crutches, wheelchairs or walkers for transport should proceed into the nearest available safe stairwell and wait on the landing until additional help can be summoned. The University Police and/or the local fire department will arrive to help complete the evacuation.

RESIDENTIAL SAFETY

POLICY ON PORTABLE ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES, SMOKING AND OPEN FLAMES

- The possession of candles, incense, hookahs, bongos and open flame devices are not permitted in any building.
- Neon signs and string lights (e.g. holiday lights) are prohibited. Personal lamps, including halogen lamps, are not allowed.
- Unauthorized modification of space and the furnishings contained within, including the installation of any air conditioners, paintings, and any personal furnishings is prohibited. Furniture such as chairs, couches, mattresses, waterbeds etc., is prohibited, other than furniture provided by the University.
- Electrical heat-producing appliances (stoves, George Foreman grills, toaster ovens, hot plates, and portable heating units) are prohibited, including all appliances that are not UL listed and appliances that are recalled by manufacturers or government agencies.
- Open coil appliances for heating water and beverages are prohibited. Electric heaters are only allowed if provided by the University.
- Smoking, including e-cigarettes, is not permitted within any building on campus.
- Possession of highly flammable materials including gasoline, their containers (whether containing fuel or empty), Propane cylinders, Kerosene lamps, oil lamps, alcohol lamps, lighter fluid and other highly flammable substances are prohibited.
- Power strips without an internal circuit breaker and Underwriters Lab [UL] approval are prohibited. Power strips may not be used in series to gain greater length. Spliced, taped, or frayed cords shall not be used.
- Electrical cords should not be in the way of traffic (under carpets, in pathways, through doorways, taped down etc.). Extension cords and non-breaker multi-plug adapters are prohibited.
- Plug-in air fresheners are prohibited.
- Do not hang or attach anything to—or on—any lamp, light fixture, sprinkler head or any other fire detection and/or suppression device.
- Anything that damages, misuses, or otherwise interferes with the ready and proper operation of any fire detection or fire suppression equipment and related signs is forbidden. This includes, but is not limited to: sprinklers, heat and smoke detectors, extinguishers, fire alarm control panels, pull stations, annunciator, emergency lighting, exit signs, and emergency floor plan evacuation signs.

- Prohibited items will be confiscated at the discretion of the University Fire Safety Office.

CONFISCATION POLICY

Residents in possession of prohibited items including but not limited to candles, toaster ovens, illegal extension cords, etc. may face disciplinary action. Residential Student Services staff, Campus Police Officers, the University's Fire Marshal or the State Fire Inspector can confiscate or discard any prohibited items considered a danger to a student or the community. Residents may collect items that have not been discarded within one week through their respective community centers. Items reclaimed must be removed from campus upon retrieval immediately. Any item not retrieved within one week will be discarded.

RESIDENT HALL EVACUATION

Residence hall professional and security staff are ultimately responsible for the fire evacuation procedure in their respective buildings. It is the residence hall professional and security staff's responsibility to make sure that each Resident Assistant, Desk Assistant, and resident is familiar with Kean University's General Fire Safety policy and Emergency Action Plan for his/her respective building(s). During their initial floor meeting each semester, Resident Assistants will provide fire safety information to the students who reside in their area of responsibility.

If a resident has a guest in their residence hall, that resident is responsible for escorting his/her guests out of the building, in the event of an emergency evacuation. Upon fire alarm activation, residence hall professional and security staff are to evacuate the building along with all the occupants and report to their designated evacuation assembly area. Once at the designated assembly area, the residence hall professional and security staff are to account for their residents. Any unaccounted for occupants are to be immediately reported to the residence hall professional and security staff and University Police. Under no circumstance should anyone remain in the building during fire alarm activation, unless expressly instructed to do so by emergency response personnel.

RESIDENCE HALL: OCCUPANTS WITH DISABILITY

Occupants with either a permanent or temporary disability should be reported to the University's Fire Marshal who maintains a confidential list within our emergency dispatch center. Awareness of occupants with a disability is the key to assisting during an emergency. Prior to an emergency evacuation of any kind, a partner should be assigned or chosen to accompany and remain with the disabled occupant.

Most enclosed staircase landings within each building are listed as an area of refuge. In the event that an individual is unable to exit into the staircase landing, whether because of a physical impairment or due to a fire condition in the hallway, that person is to remain in his or her room and or office and notify University Police at (908-737-4800) Important; See shelter in place guidelines.

It is required that Wenzhou-Kean Security know of faculty, staff and student's immobility, even if the immobility is temporary.

FIRE SAFETY EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Each semester the University's Fire Marshal provides training and education to Residential Student Services and Campus Safety personnel at the Union and Wenzhou-Kean campuses. The training includes four (4) main components. (1) Fire prevention. (2) Occupant awareness – (building awareness and evacuation procedures). (3) Fire detection – (smoke detectors vs. nuisance alarms) and (4) Fire suppression – (sprinklers do's and don'ts) within the residence halls.

FIRE SAFETY EDUCATION AND TRAINING: CAMPUS-WIDE

At the beginning of each fall semester our campus community is provided literature on campus fire safety, including emergency response protocol and procedures. This information is provided to all faculty, staff, and students. In addition to this information the University provides practical and realistic building evacuation drills for each building on-campus. These evacuation drills are designed to train our faculty and staff and to evaluate their efficiency and effectiveness in carrying out emergency evacuation procedures.

At the Union campus, Kean University Police assist with this orderly evacuation training of each building on campus provided by Kean University's Office of Fire Safety. Please refer to: <http://www.kean.edu/admin/uploads/pdf/CampusPolice/KeanQuickReferenceGuide.pdf>.

PLANS FOR FUTURE IMPROVEMENTS IN FIRE SAFETY

The fire safety office is continuously reviewing our campus facilities/buildings and educational/awareness programs to provide a "built-in" fire safe environment in which the faculty, staff and students are prepared/ trained and able to react, evaluate, and decide on the correct action should an emergency occur.

FIRE AND CRIME LOGS

At the Union campus, the Department of Public Safety/Police maintains a daily log concerning crimes reported to the Police Department. The categories contained in the crime log are: crime classification; date, time and general location of the crime; and disposition of the complaint. The above information will appear for each crime reported unless the disclosure of such information is prohibited by law; would jeopardize the confidentiality of the victim; would jeopardize an ongoing criminal investigation; would cause a suspect to flee or evade detection; would jeopardize the safety of an individual; or would result in the destruction of evidence. The Department of Public Safety/Police also maintains a fire log for any fire that occurs in any on campus housing facility at the Union campus. Both the crime and fire log are available for public inspection at the Police Department's Records Bureau during normal business hours and are updated within two business days of the occurrence of the incidents.

The information contained in the crime log is additionally provided to the University's newspaper, The Tower and featured in the Police Blotter, and distributed daily via the University's electronic mail system.

A public crime log is maintained by Ocean County Security Department at the Kean Ocean campus. The crime log is updated within two business days of the occurrence of an incident. The log is available during normal business hours at the Ocean County Security Department.

A public fire and crime log is maintained by Wenzhou-Kean Security. The log is updated within two business days of the occurrence of an incident. A copy of the log can be found at Wenzhou Municipal Police Substation.

TIMELY WARNING

The Department of Public Safety/Police will issue Timely Warnings / Crime Alerts to the campus community in the event of a reported crime that, in the judgement of the Director of Public Safety or a designee, poses a potential ongoing or continuing threat to students and faculty/staff. A Timely Warning may be issued as a result of an event occurring on-campus or surrounding public property.

At the Wenzhou-Kean campus, Wenzhou-Kean Security or the Student Affairs Department will issue Timely Warnings and Crime Alerts to the campus community in the event of a reported crime that poses a potential ongoing or continuing threat to students and faculty/staff. The Vice President responsible for Wenzhou-Kean Security will issue timely warnings.

Timely Warnings will include different amounts of information, depending on the circumstances of each incident. The crimes for which Timely Warnings may be issued include, but are not limited to; arson, homicide, burglary, robbery, sex offenses, aggravated assault and motor vehicle theft. Most Timely Warnings will include crime prevention information to help the University community take preventive measures. Timely Warnings will be issued as soon as pertinent information is available.

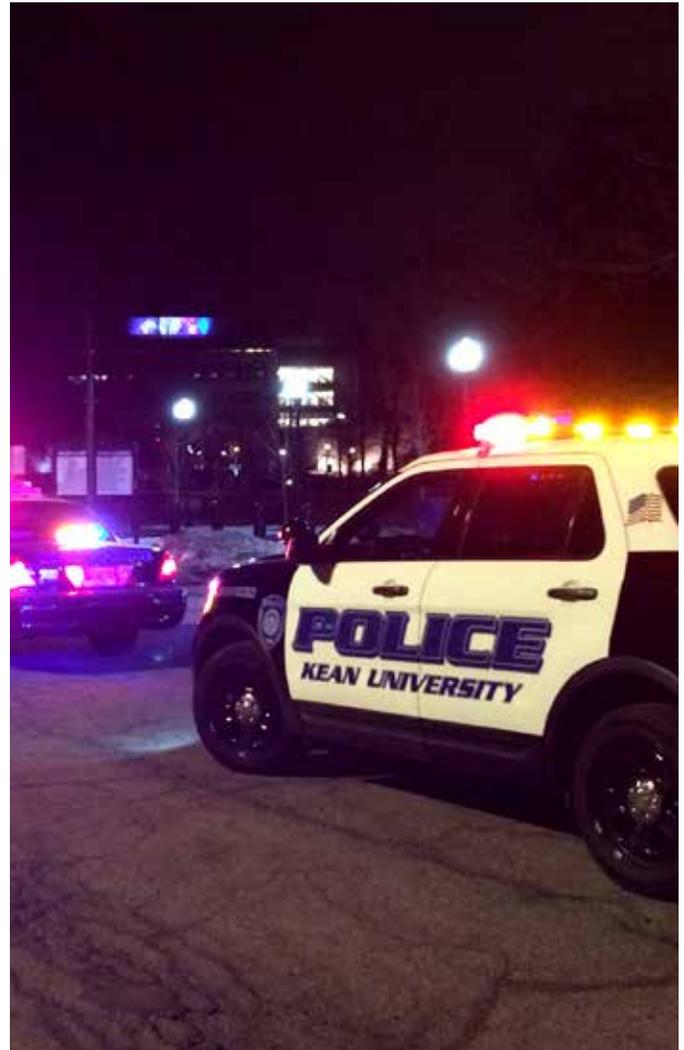

One or more of the following mechanisms will be utilized for Timely Warnings:

- Police Blotter: University's weekly newspaper, The Tower.
- Crime Prevention Printed Alerts: Posted in residence halls, at student organizations and in academic building common areas. Printed Alerts may also be targeted to specific areas or unit administrators depending upon the specific crime or incident.
- Crime Prevention E-mail Alerts: Immediately entered into the University's electronic mail system and broadcast by the Office of University Relations to anyone who has a @kean.edu address. Designated administrators in the Department of Public Safety/Police have the ability to initiate a direct E-mail broadcast in the absence of University Relations personnel.
- The Campus Alert System: See <http://www.kean.edu/campusalert> for system registration, features and instructions.
- Social Media: Facebook, Twitter & Instagram sites for both Kean Union and Kean Ocean; WeChat at Wenzhou-Kean.
- The Cougar's Byte: University's internal student newsletter, The Cougar's Byte.

The mechanisms identified above alert the University Community to what is occurring on and around our campus. The information disseminated will assist the University community in identifying prevention techniques that can be utilized to avoid victimization. Updates to Timely Warnings, when needed, will be provided by E-mail or Campus Alert.

EMERGENCY ALERTS

In addition to Timely Warnings, should there be a serious incident that poses an immediate threat or serious disruption to members of the Kean community, the University has various systems in place for communicating information quickly. Some or all of these methods of communication may be activated in the event of an immediate threat to the campus community. These methods of communication include network emails, emergency text messages and other notification methods available via the Campus Alert System, and emergency messages that scroll across computer screens when logged onto the University's website. The University will post updates during a critical incident on the University's website at www.kean.edu and may provide updates through any or all of the means listed in the previous section for Timely Warnings. Once an alert has been issued, individuals can call the University's main number of (908) 737-KEAN (5326) to access recorded information.

The decision to issue a Timely Warning or Emergency Alert is made in coordination and consultation between the Chief of Staff, Vice President for University Relations, and the Director of Public Safety. In the event of a serious emergency, notification processes will be implemented at the sole direction of the Director of Public Safety or the ranking police officer available in their absence.

At Wenzhou-Kean, emergency alerts are communicated by email and text messages. The decision to issue a timely warning is made by the Vice Chancellor responsible for security and the Director of Campus Security.

UNDERAGE DRINKING/DRIVING

In the State of New Jersey, if you are under 21 and drive with a blood alcohol concentration (BAC) of 0.01 percent or more, you will be subject to the following penalties:

- Loss or postponement of driving privileges for 30 to 90 days;
- 15 to 30 days of community service;
- Participation in a program of alcohol education and highway safety.

To reach a BAC of 0.01 percent, you only need one alcoholic drink. If you are under 21 and drive while under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs, or with a BAC of 0.01 percent or more, you may be subject to all the penalties for driving under the influence.

REPORTING CRIME STATISTICS

To comply with “The Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act of 1990”, as amended by “The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Statistics Act of 1998” and the “Higher Education Amendments of 1998 and 2008”, the University—on an annual basis—will publish the following reported crimes which occur on-campus, in or on non-campus buildings, or surrounding public property: murder, sex offenses (forcible and non-forcible), robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, motor vehicle theft, manslaughter and arson.

Additionally, the number of arrests and campus conduct action for the following offenses will be reported: liquor law violations, drug related violations, and weapons possessions. The statistics reported, in this document, have been obtained from the following sources:

- Kean University Department of Public Safety/Police
- Kean University Office of Residential Student Services
- Kean University Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs
- Kean University Campus Authority Crime Report Form
- Union Township Police Department
- Hillside Township Police Department
- City of Elizabeth Police Department

REPORTING CRIMES AND EMERGENCIES

UNION CAMPUS

The Union campus maintains its own police department, providing patrol and response 24-hours-a-day, seven days per week. Members of the University community are encouraged to report all crimes actual, attempted, or suspected—as well as any other emergency situations. Code Blue emergency telephones have been strategically placed at 14 outdoor and 5 indoor locations throughout the Union campus; use them for non-emergency and emergency situations. For non-emergencies, use the keypad to dial five-digit on-campus telephone numbers. For emergencies push the red button. The police non-emergency number is 74800. Free on-campus telephones are located in the lobbies and corridors of most campus buildings.

JEANNE CLERY ACT CRIME STATISTICS

The Kean Department of Public Safety and Police has been a contributor to the state and federal Uniform Crime Reporting System since 1975. Portions of the Uniform Crime Report for the last three calendar years may be reviewed in The Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report, formerly known as The Guide.

ANONYMOUS REPORTING

Members of the Kean University community may report criminal or suspicious activity anonymously either by calling the Police Communications Center at 908-737-4800, or by emailing kupolice@kean.edu with as specific a report as possible. University Police Officers may also be asked to file a report by anyone without revealing their identity. Anonymous reporting should not be used during an emergency situation.

OCEAN CAMPUS

Emergency Call Boxes are located in Ocean County College campus buildings and in Ocean County College parking lots #1 and #2. In the parking lots call box locations are indicated by a bright blue light above each call box.

Anonymous reports will be investigated as fully as the amount of information provided for allows, however it may not be possible to bring charges with the absence of an identified victim or witness to a crime. Anonymous reports are counted and disclosed in the proper category within the annual security report for the University.

SMOKE-FREE AIR ACT AND KEAN UNIVERSITY NO SMOKING POLICY

Kean University is "Smoke Free"; this means that in following with the NJ State regulations of the smoke free air act, Kean updated it's policy and prohibits smoking in any and all public buildings on campus, private offices, maintenance areas, including all state vehicles and no smoking in or around the grounds of the Child Care Facility in Campus School North. In addition, any individuals who must smoke are required to stay a minimum of three (3) feet from any building entrance.

The following is the state's regulation:

As of April 15, 2006, all indoor workplaces and public places became smoke free. This law, enacted by the Senate and General Assembly of New Jersey, protects employees and the public from second- hand smoke. Signage is required at every public entrance and must be properly maintained where smoking is prohibited. These signs will be placed at all main entrance doors within the next few weeks. Signs also must state that violators may be fined. The following fines can be levied if someone is caught or is turned in for breaking this law:

- A fine of not less than $250 for the first offense
- $500 for the second offense
- $1,000 for each subsequent offense

Enforcement at Kean University will be the responsibility of all University personnel. Anyone found smoking inside any public buildings on campus, private offices, maintenance areas, or state vehicles will be subject to progressive disciplinary action by the University. Complaints can be reported to the Environmental Health and Safety Officer, Human Resources, 2nd floor, Administration Building.

DRUG AND ALCOHOL POLICY

I. DRUG AND ALCOHOL POLICY STATEMENT

A. POLICY OVERVIEW

Kean University is an educational institution that strives to create and maintain an environment that is free from substance abuse and the negative consequences that result from illicit use and abuse. The following expectations and drug and alcohol policies apply to all Kean University campuses. The University has made a commitment to educate its community about the physical, psychological and legal consequences of substance abuse, as well as provide treatment or referral services to those in need of assistance.

B. KEAN UNIVERSITY ALCOHOL POLICY STATEMENT

Kean University's Board of Trustees considers the consumption of alcoholic beverages within its confines a privilege subject to the limitations imposed by law and University policy as befitting the decorum and dignity of an academic community. Kean University acknowledges its commitment to encourage students to pursue a quality education by providing an environment that is conducive to the total health, education and well-being of the person. To this end, the University permits the moderate and responsible consumption of alcoholic beverages on campus within stated limits. The sale, service and consumption of alcoholic beverages must comply with the limitations established by University policies, local ordinances, New Jersey state laws, applicable federal laws, and local ordinances and laws at the Wenzhou Kean campus.

C. KEAN UNIVERSITY ILLICIT-DRUG POLICY

Kean University abides by the laws of the federal, state and local governments that prohibit the possession or distribution of illicit narcotics, drugs or other controlled dangerous substances. Kean University has certified to both the federal and state of New Jersey governments that it is committed to maintaining a drug-free workplace as stipulated by the Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 and New Jersey Gov. Thomas Kean's Executive Order 204 of March 18, 1989. Kean University enforces the drug laws as legislated and approved by the New Jersey Comprehensive Drug Reform Act of 1986 (Code of Criminal Justice, 2c: 35-1). Kean University is compliant with the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989 and its biennial reporting requirement. Copies of the Kean University report are available on request from the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs.

II. STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

A. ALCOHOL REGULATIONS

1. The Vice President for Student Affairs has been charged with overall responsibility to administer and enforce the campus alcohol policies.
2. All members of the University community, students, faculty, staff, administrators, alumni and their guests, are subject to limitations and procedural requirements established therein.
3. A person who has not attained the legal drinking age of 21 will not acquire, possess or consume any alcoholic beverage on the campus, nor will such underage person enter any facility with the intent to acquire, possess or consume any alcoholic beverage.
4. A person of legal age will not give any alcoholic beverage to a person under the legal drinking age, nor will he or she assist or allow such person to acquire or consume any alcoholic beverage.
5. Disorderly conduct resulting from the use of alcohol is unacceptable and will be considered a serious violation of the Campus Code of Conduct.
6. Students and staff are not permitted to bring alcoholic beverages to campus athletic and social events.
7. Alcohol may be served on campus only in designated areas, provided the event receives special authorization from the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs.
8. Alcoholic beverages are not permitted in any student or University staff office.

9. The consumption, sale and possession of alcoholic beverages must be confined to the areas specified in this policy.
10. Anyone carrying open containers of alcoholic beverages and/or consuming alcohol outside of these specified locations will be in violation of University policy, township ordinance and state law and are subject to legal and/or conduct action.
11. Any disruptive and/or inappropriate behavior resulting from the use of alcoholic beverages will be considered a serious violation of University policy.

B. ILLICIT-DRUG REGULATIONS

The possession or distribution of narcotics, dangerous drugs or controlled dangerous substances that are prohibited by the laws of the federal, state or local government are also clearly prohibited by Kean University and are subject to legal action.

C. OTHER SANCTIONS

The above sanctions do not supplant or supersede statutory or administrative law at the state, county or municipal level. Strict compliance with such laws will be the responsibility of all organizations and individuals. Violators of the law may be subject to penalties imposed by a court or other empowered board, agency or commission, in addition to any action taken by the University.

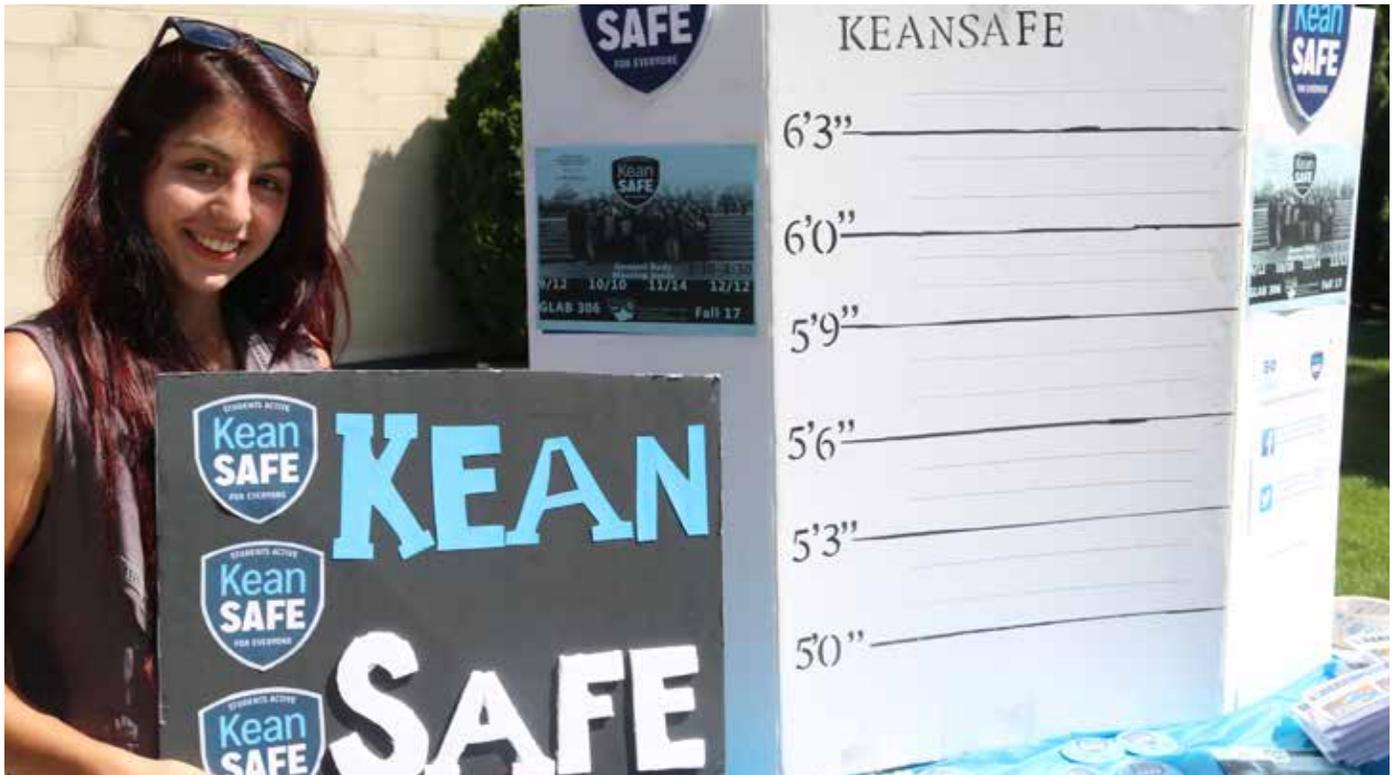

III. KEAN UNIVERSITY SANCTIONS FOR VIOLATION OF STANDARDS OF CONDUCT

A. VIOLATION OF THE ALCOHOL POLICY

1. Any student found responsible of violating this policy will be responsible of violating the Campus Student Code of Conduct and subject to sanctions commensurate with the offense, i.e., fine, warning, probation, parental notification, suspension or dismissal, as well as revocation of the privilege to consume alcohol on campus and/or to attend University-sponsored events at which alcohol will be served or consumed.
2. A system of fines/conduct actions has been established by the University:
 - a. First Violation – $75 fine and mandatory attendance at an alcohol education program; Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct to be consulted
 - b. Second Violation – $125 fine, mandatory attendance at an alcohol education program, and Parental Notification
 - c. Third Violation
 1. Non-resident Student – $200
 2. Parental Notification
 3. Resident Student – Residence Contract Termination

All of the above are cumulative for one year, September 1 through August 30. Alcohol violations in the residence halls are appealed to the Office of Residential Student Services. Alcohol violations from non-resident students are handled by the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct.

B. VIOLATION OF ILLICIT-DRUG POLICY

1. The Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct will review each case for conduct action, which may include suspension or expulsion from the University. Only significant extenuating circumstances and/or required enrollment and active participation in a drug rehabilitation program will be considered as a condition of continued enrollment.
2. Students involved in the distribution or sale in any way of any amount of illicit drugs will be suspended from the University as a minimum sanction. Students involved in the use or possession of illicit drugs will be arrested.
3. The University reserves the right to evict from the residence halls a resident student involved in the use, possession or sale of illicit drugs at any time during the year.

IV. LEGAL SANCTIONS FOR DRUG AND ALCOHOL-RELATED OFFENSES

There are numerous local, state and federal laws regarding the inappropriate use of drugs and alcohol. The following is a limited sample of offenses and sanctions. Additional information on local, state and federal laws governing the illegal use of drugs and alcohol may be obtained from the Kean University Police. Substances considered illicit by the Chinese government or the United States are not permitted. At the Wenzhou-Kean campus, laws of both the People's Republic of China and the United States apply.

The law requires mandatory compliance with these standards of conduct. Therefore, this statement serves notice that conduct sanctions (consistent with local, state and federal law), up to and including suspension/dismissal, termination of employment, referral for prosecution and/or referral to an appropriate rehabilitation/treatment program, will be imposed on students who violate them.

Police officers in New Jersey, including Kean University police officers, under the terms of the Drug Enforcement Action Plan enacted by the state attorney general, have no discretion in regard to the enforcement of the drug laws. Unless a failure to arrest is for the purpose of protecting an ongoing undercover investigation, every police officer is obliged to effect an arrest when probable cause exists to believe that a violation of the drug laws has occurred.

V. THE DANGERS OF MIXING ALCOHOL AND DRUGS

Because alcohol and many other drugs affect the same areas of the brain, taking them simultaneously or even fairly close together can produce a combined effect much greater than anticipated. Of the 100 most frequently prescribed drugs, more than half contain at least one ingredient known to react adversely with alcohol. If you want to drink when you are taking medication, three actions may save your life:

1. Read the warning on nonprescription drug labels or those on your prescription containers.
2. Ask your doctor about possible alcohol-drug interactions.
3. Check with your pharmacist if you have any questions about your medicines, especially those you can buy without a doctor's prescription.

VI. ALCOHOL AND DRUG SERVICES

Kean University is committed to maintaining an environment that is free from substance abuse. That commitment involves both preventive measures through educational means as well as treatment for existing problems through on-campus counseling and off-campus referrals.

PREVENTIVE MEASURES

1. Inclusion of alcohol education in the transition to Kean classes.
2. Availability of free, anonymous, online self-assessment for alcohol and marijuana.
3. Workshops and seminars related to alcohol and drug information.
4. Alcohol, Tobacco, and Other Drug Task Force (AToD).
5. Training of professional staff and student staff.
6. Training of resident students and staff.

ON-CAMPUS SERVICES

Students are encouraged to seek help for problems with alcohol and substance abuse. The Kean Counseling Center provides the following services:

1. Alcohol and other drug screening
2. Short-term individual counseling
3. Psycho educational groups
4. Educational programs and information
5. Referral services

STUDENTS CONVICTED OF POSSESSION OR SALE OF DRUGS

HEA SECTION 484(R) 34 CFR 668.40

A federal or state drug conviction can disqualify a student for Federal Student Aid (FSA) funds. The student self-certifies in applying for aid that he is eligible (FAFSA question 23c).

Convictions count against a student for aid eligibility purposes if:

- They were for an offense that occurred during a period of enrollment for which the student was receiving federal student aid;
- Or unless the student was denied federal benefits for drug trafficking by a federal or state judge.

Conversely, a conviction that was reversed, set aside, or removed from the student's record does not count, nor does one received when he was a juvenile, unless he was tried as an adult.

The chart below illustrates the period of ineligibility for FSA funds, depending on whether the conviction was for sale or possession and whether the student had previous offenses. (A conviction for sale of drugs includes convictions for conspiring to sell drugs.)

	POSSESSION	SALE
1st Offense	1 year from date of Conviction	2 years from date of conviction
2nd Offense	2 years from date of conviction	Indefinite period
3+ Offenses	Indefinite

If the student was convicted of both possessing and selling illegal drugs, and the periods of ineligibility are different, the student will be ineligible for the longer period. The school will provide each student who becomes ineligible for FSA funds due to a drug conviction a written notice of his loss of eligibility and the methods whereby he can become eligible again.

REGAINING ELIGIBILITY

A student regains eligibility the day after the period of ineligibility ends or when he successfully completes a qualified drug rehabilitation program that includes passing two unannounced drug tests given by such a program. Further drug convictions will make him ineligible again.

Students denied eligibility for an indefinite period can regain it, either after successfully completing a rehabilitation program (as described below, which includes passing two unannounced drug tests from such a program), or if a conviction is reversed, set aside, or removed from the student's record so that fewer than two convictions for sale or three convictions for possession remain on the record. In such cases, the nature and dates of the remaining convictions will determine when the student regains eligibility. It is the student's responsibility to certify that he has successfully completed the rehabilitation program.

When a student regains eligibility during the award year, he may be awarded Pell Grant, TEACH, and Campus-Based aid for the current payment period and Direct Loans for the period of enrollment.

Standards for a qualified drug rehabilitation program:

- A qualified drug rehabilitation program must include at least two unannounced drug tests and satisfy at least one of the following requirements:
- Be qualified to receive funds directly or indirectly from a federal, state, or local government program.
- Be qualified to receive payment directly or indirectly from a federally or state licensed insurance company.
- Be administered or recognized by a federal, state, or local government agency or court.
- Be administered or recognized by a federally or state-licensed hospital, health clinic, or medical doctor.

A student, who will need to enter such a program, must first be sure that the program meets these requirements.

ALCOHOL AND DRUG USE PREVENTION AND AWARENESS PROGRAMS

Kean University recognizes that an essential feature to student wellness is having a comprehensive alcohol and drug model adopted (AOD). The essential elements of this include an environmental management approach which recognizes that student behavior is impacted at multiple levels. This can include, but is not limited to, personal, peer, institutional, and policy.

The Coordinator of Alcohol and Drug Assistance Services is responsible for the development and implementation of AOD psycho-educational “mandated” group sessions/counseling within the Counseling Center, screenings, individual counseling sessions, and referral service. This position is part of the Kean Counseling Center and falls under the Division of Student Affairs. Additionally, the Coordinator of Alcohol and Drug Assistance Services is the Chair of Alcohol, Tobacco and Other Drugs Task Force (AToD) and the Director of Community Standards and Student Conduct oversees the Peer Educator Program.

SUBSTANCE ABUSE PREVENTION

Kean University remains committed to educating its community about the potential consequences of substance use. To that end, the University raises awareness relating to the personal impact of substance use as well as University policies and law. The overarching goal of ATOD prevention efforts is to create an environment conducive to academic success and wellness.

STUDENT EDUCATION AND TRAINING

Think About It: Think About It is an online psycho-educational course created by Everfi that educates students regarding alcohol, drugs and sexual violence with the goal of improving campus climate in these critical areas. This course is assigned to all first year and transfer students as part of the general education Transition to Kean (GE*1000) class requirements.

Wellness Workshops: The Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct, along with Alcohol and Drug Services, presented wellness workshops to incoming freshman and transfer students as part of their general education Transition to Kean (GE*1000) requirements. These workshops highlighted important health and safety information, as well as the University’s alcohol and drug policies. These workshops also provided a forum for students to ask questions they may have regarding substance use and its consequences. During the fall 2016 semester 18 workshops were presented. During the spring 2017 semester 5 additional workshops were presented.

Personalized Student Assessments: This assessment is by way of an online program entitled e-chug/e- toke and is free, anonymous and individualized to the participating student. Personal assessment is available to students at all Kean University locations.

Peer Educator Workshops: Peer educators from the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct created and presented programming events available campus- wide. Many of these programs focused on the impact of substance use.

Examples include:

- ABC’s of Alcohol
- The Party (October 18, 2015, April 14, 2016)
- Ladies Night (November 23, 2015)
- Marijuana 101

FACULTY AND PROFESSIONAL STAFF EDUCATION AND TRAINING

The Alcohol and Other Drugs Task Force (ATOD) provides annual education and training to professional and support staff in an effort to inform the campus community of the University’s alcohol and drug policies as well as available resources.

These trainings include:

- Transition to Kean (T2K) Instructor Training (Fall 2016; Spring 2017)
- Training to Peer Educators (BACCHUS- August 2016)
- Ladies Night Program and Education (October 3, 2016; Sororities Only)
- Athletic Trainers (Role Athletic Trainers Play in the Behavioral Health of Student Athletes March 17, 2017; March 20, 2017; March 22, 2017)

CAMPUS-WIDE PROGRAMMATIC EVENTS

As part of Kean University's commitment to supporting the health and well-being of its community members, the Alcohol, Tobacco and Other Drugs Task Force (ATOD) analyses campus climate and behavioral trends to identify emerging concerns relating to alcohol and drug use. ATOD maintains focuses on proactive, campus- wide policy and intervention efforts.

Areas of focus include:

- Faculty and professional staff education and training.
- Developing new policy; reviewing, enhancing and revising existing policy; and maintaining consistency in enforcement of policy.
- Implementing and coordinating educational programs (Peer Educators).
- Increase the awareness of campus resources through targeted marketing and programmatic events.

During the 2016- 2017 academic year, AToD completed the following initiatives:

- Revised KU Athletic Department Alcohol, Tobacco and Other Drug Policy
- Draft Medical Marijuana Procedures submitted
- Draft Medical Amnesty Procedures submitted

AToD also provided tabling events to raise awareness and provide information to the Kean community. These tabling events include:

- Kean Day (September 9, 2016)
- General Information Table (September 20, 2016)
- Homecoming Safety (September 29, 2016)
- YWCA Empty Place at the Table Event with YWCA (October 27, 2016)
- Open House Tabling (November 6, 2016)
- Community Values Week (November 14- 17, 2016)
- Great American Smokeout with Health Services-lung function tests performed (November 23, 2015)
- ATOD General Information Tabling (December 1, 2016)
- Impaired Driving Simulation (December 6, 2016)
- National Drug and Alcohol Facts Week (January 24, 2017)
- ATOD Tabling at Student INvolvement and Employment Fair (February 6, 2017)
- ATOD General Information Tabling (February 21, 2017)
- Safe Spring Break (March 1, 2017)
- National Alcohol Screening Day (April 6, 2017)
- Peer Educator ATOD Tabling Event (April 20, 2017)
- Spring Fair Tabling (April 29, 2017)
- Marijuana 101 Table (April 20, 2016)
- Arrive Alive tour (May 5, 2016)

SUBSTANCE ABUSE INTERVENTION

The Alcohol and Other Drug Task Force (ATOD) works with students to address on- going concerns relating to substance use through targeted intervention strategies. The goal of ATOD intervention is in an effort to promote the academic success and personal well-being of each individual student. These intervention strategies include:

Individual screenings: Individualized screening consists of a comprehensive consultation and personalized treatment recommendation plan provided to students free of charge.

Short term individual counseling: Students may receive short term treatment with a trained clinician free of charge. Referrals to local community resources are provided for more intensive, long term care.

Early Intervention Psycho Educational Programs: Kean University offers a variety of programs to help students examine their alcohol and drug use, its effects, and consequences in their personal lives. These programs include:

- Choices I: Choices I is a specialized program for students who are found in violation of Residence Student Services or University alcohol policy. The program involves an individual substance screening and participation in two (2) psycho-educational groups.
- Choices II: Choices II is a specialized program for students who are found to be in violation of Residence Student Services or University alcohol policy for a second time. The requirements are an individual substance screening and participation in three (3) psycho-educational groups.
- Alternatives: Alternatives is a specialized program for students who are found in violation of the Residence Student Services or University other drug policy. The requirements of the program are an individual substance screening and participation in a five (5) week psycho-educational groups.

OVERVIEW

Kean University cares deeply about the safety, well-being and dignity of its community members. To that effect, sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment, sexual violence, sexual exploitation, intimate partner violence, and/or stalking will not be tolerated at Kean University. Further, Kean University remains committed to ending sexual misconduct in its community. This commitment is embodied in institutional policies that prohibit sexual misconduct as well as our adherence to federal and state laws such as Title IX, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended in 1991), the Clery Act, the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination (N.J.S.A. 10:5-1 et seq.), the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) and the State of New Jersey's Campus Sexual Assault Victim's Bill of Rights. All members of the Kean community, guests and visitors are protected by Kean University's policies and federal and state legislation regardless of sexual orientation or gender identity.

Kean University recognizes its responsibility to raise awareness about sexual misconduct and discrimination, including sexual harassment, sexual violence, sexual exploitation, intimate partner violence and/or stalking. For that reason, the University provides annual training, education, and programmatic events that strengthen its resolve to end sexual misconduct and foster respect for each and every member of the Kean community. The University has zero tolerance for gender based and sexual misconduct and will follow its institutional policies and procedures to address any incidents involving its community members. Should a community member experience sexual misconduct, resources are available to help, support, and empower that individual. In its effort to end sexual misconduct on campus, Kean University has adopted and adheres to the State of New Jersey's Campus Sexual Assault Victim's Bill of Rights. The Campus Sexual Assault Victim's Bill of Rights is set forth below.

CAMPUS SEXUAL ASSAULT VICTIM'S BILL OF RIGHTS

A college or university in a free society must be devoted to the pursuit of truth and knowledge through reason and open communication among its members. Academic communities acknowledge the necessity of being intellectually stimulating where the diversity of ideas is valued. Its rules must be conceived for the purpose of furthering and protecting the rights of all members of the University community in achieving these ends. The boundaries of personal freedom are limited by applicable state and federal laws and institutional rules and regulations governing interpersonal behavior. In creating a community free from violence, sexual assault and non-consensual sexual contact, respect for the individual and human dignity are paramount. The state of New Jersey recognizes that the impact of violence on its victims and the surrounding community can be severe and long-lasting. Thus, it has established this Bill of Rights to articulate requirements for policies, procedures and services designed to ensure that the needs of victims are met and that the colleges and universities in New Jersey create and maintain communities that support human dignity.

BILL OF RIGHTS

The following rights will be accorded to victims of sexual assault that occur:

- On the campus of any public or independent institution of higher education in the state of New Jersey, and
- Where the victim or alleged perpetrator is a student at that institution, and/or
- When the victim is a student involved in an off-campus sexual assault.

HUMAN DIGNITY RIGHTS

1. To be free from any suggestion that victims must report the crimes to be assured of any other right guaranteed under this policy.
2. To have any allegations of sexual assault treated seriously, the right to be treated with dignity.
3. To be free from any suggestion that victims are responsible for the commission of crimes against them.
4. To be free of any pressure from campus personnel to:
 - Report crimes if the victim does not wish to do so;
 - Report crimes as lesser offenses than the victim perceives the crime to be;
 - Refrain from reporting crimes;
 - Refrain from reporting crimes to avoid unwanted personal publicity.
 - Rights to resources on and off campus
5. To be notified of existing campus and community-based medical, counseling, mental health, and student services for victims of sexual assault whether or not the crime is formally reported to campus or civil authorities.

6. To have access to campus counseling under the same terms and conditions as apply to other students in their institution seeking such counseling.
 - To be informed of and assisted in exercising any rights to confidential or anonymous testing for sexually transmitted diseases, human immunodeficiency virus and/or pregnancy.
 - Any rights that may be provided by law to compel and disclose the results of testing of sexual assault suspects for communicable diseases.

CAMPUS JUDICIAL RIGHTS

- To be afforded the same access to legal assistance as the responding party.
- To be afforded the same opportunity to have others present during any campus conduct proceeding as is allowed the responding party.
- To be notified of the outcome of the sexual assault conduct proceeding against the responding party.

LEGAL RIGHTS

- To have any allegation of sexual assault investigated and adjudicated by the appropriate criminal and civil authorities of the jurisdiction in which the sexual assault is reported.
- To receive full and prompt cooperation and assistance of campus personnel in notifying the proper authorities.
- To receive full, prompt and victim-sensitive cooperation of campus personnel with regard to obtaining, securing and maintaining evidence, including a medical examination when it is necessary to preserve evidence of the assault.

CAMPUS INTERVENTION RIGHTS

1. To require campus personnel to take reasonable and necessary actions to prevent further unwanted contact of victims by their alleged assailants.

2. To be notified of the options for and provided assistance in changing academic and living situations if such changes are reasonably available.
3. Statutory Mandates:
 - Each campus must guarantee that this Bill of Rights is implemented. It is the obligation of the individual campus governing board to examine resources dedicated to services required and to make appropriate requests to increase or reallocate resources where necessary to ensure implementation.
 - Each campus will make a reasonable effort to ensure that every student at that institution receives a copy of this document.
 - Nothing in this act, or in any Campus Assault Victim's Bill of Rights developed in accordance with the provisions of this act, will be construed to preclude or in any way restrict any public or independent institution of higher education in the state from reporting any suspected crime or offense to the appropriate law enforcement authorities.

STATUTORY MANDATES

Each campus must guarantee that this Bill of Rights is implemented. It is the obligation of the individual campus governing board to examine resources dedicated to services and to make appropriate requests to increase or reallocate resources where necessary to ensure implementation.

Each campus will make a reasonable effort to ensure that every student receives a copy of this document.

Nothing in this act, or in any Campus Assault Victim's Bill of Rights developed in accordance with the provisions of this act, will be construed to preclude or in any way restrict any public or independent institution of higher education in the state from reporting any suspected crime or offense to the appropriate law enforcement authorities.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT SUPPORT AND RESOURCES

Kean University remains dedicated to ensuring the safety and well-being of its community. As a result, the University works to ensure that its community members receive support and resources relating to sexual misconduct and the resolution of allegations of sexual misconduct. The information in this section provides information about University, local, state and federal resources and support relating to sexual misconduct.

If you are in an emergency situation or are in danger, call 911 for immediate help.

The following information can help you take the first steps in the healing process:

SELF-CARE IN THE AFTERMATH OF SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Each person reacts to sexual misconduct differently. There is no one right way to respond. Self-care is important for everyone, and looks different for everyone. The following self-care tips can help you cope with any short- and long-term effects of sexual misconduct.

Ensure that you are safe. If you are concerned that you are in immediate danger, call 911. At the Wenzhou-Kean campus, call 1-1-0. If you are at the Union campus, you may also contact Kean University Department of Public Safety and Police at (908) 737- 4800 for assistance. At Kean Ocean, you may contact the Ocean County College Campus Security and Public Safety Department at (732) 255-0400, Press 6. At the Wenzhou-Kean campus, contact Wenzhou-Kean Security at 0577-55870110.

Access Support and Connections in Ways That Feel Right to You. You have the right to decide whether and how to access support that will be helpful to you. Be patient with yourself if you feel overwhelmed and need to take a step back. There are people at Kean University who care and are ready to help when you are ready. Consider speaking with Kean University's Student Support Services Advocate in a confidential, non- judgmental environment. Contact the Student Support Services Advocate through Health Services at (908) 737- 4880 or email hsnurses@kean.edu. Don't be afraid to ask for help.

Address Time Sensitive Concerns. If there are time-sensitive medical concerns related to your experience, Health Services can provide sensitive, respectful medical care by clinicians. They can also connect you with providers in the community for other services. If there are time-sensitive mental health concerns related to your experience, reach out to Health Services at the Union campus at (908) 737- 4880. At Kean Ocean, contact Community Medical Center at 732-557-8000. If you are at the Wenzhou-Kean campus, contact Wenzhou-Kean Health Services at 0577-055870120.

REMEMBER: It is important to preserve physical evidence that may include tissue and fluid samples, evidence of violence, sheets, towels, clothing, etc. You should avoid washing, bathing, urinating, etc. until after being examined at Kean University Health Services or the hospital, if possible. Because evidence of a sexual assault can deteriorate quickly, you should seek a medical exam as soon as possible. Evidence collection should be done within 120 hours of an assault, but fluids, hair samples and DNA can be collected for a long time thereafter. Even if you have washed, evidence can often still be obtained. After 120 hours, it may still be helpful to have medical attention, even if you are not trying to obtain evidence of an assault. Sexual assault nurse examiners are trained in the collection of forensic evidence, and can check for injuries and exposure to sexually transmitted diseases. If you are still wearing any clothes worn during the assault, wear them to the hospital, but bring a change of clothes as the hospital will keep the clothes you are wearing as evidence. If you have changed clothes, bring the ones you were wearing during the assault to the hospital in a clean paper (not plastic) bag or a wrapped in a clean sheet. Leave sheets/towels at the scene of the assault. Police will collect them. Police typically take custody of any evidence collected at the hospital. You can choose whether or not to speak with police and/or file a criminal complaint.

Additional information about Forensic Evidence Collection Examinations can be obtained by asking a Health Services Clinician or accessing www.surviverape.org

Treat Your Body Kindly. It is normal to experience disruption to your daily self-care practices after experiencing gender based or sexual misconduct. If you are unable to eat, sleep, or be physically active in the way that your body needs to feel healthy and well, consider speaking with a trained Health Services clinician at the Union campus at (908) 737-4880. At Kean Ocean, contact Community Medical Center 732-557-8000. If you are at the Wenzhou-Kean campus, contact Wenzhou-Kean Health Services at 0577-055870120.

Be Kind to Yourself. If you have experienced sexual misconduct, you may struggle with guilt or shame, or blame yourself for the event. Think of how you would respond to someone else feeling that way, and treat yourself as kindly as you would treat anyone else. Remind yourself that only the perpetrator of sexual misconduct is responsible for his or her actions. Even if you made choices that placed you in a vulnerable position, that in no way makes it acceptable for someone to take advantage of that vulnerability.

Allow Yourself to Do Things You Enjoy. If you feel comfortable engaging in activities or hobbies that bring you enjoyment or satisfaction, do it. Give yourself permission to have fun and hang out with friends when you are ready.

Seek Out Supporters Who Empower You. Friends, family, partners, and other trusted persons may struggle with their own response to your experience. Surround yourself with support persons who support you as you pursue recovery, respect your choices, and make you feel safe. Your supporters may include a counselor, a support group, or an online community of survivors. If you feel as that there is no one who will support you, you are not alone. Contact the Student Support Services Advocate through Health Services at (908) 737- 4880 or email hsnurses@kean.edu. The Student Support Services Advocate will help you to find sources of support at Kean University and beyond. Your conversation will remain confidential unless you choose otherwise.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT PREVENTION TIPS

RISK REDUCTION FOR INTIMATE PARTNER VIOLENCE, STALKING, SEXUAL HARASSMENT AND SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

While blaming the reporting party is never appropriate and Kean University recognizes that only those who commit sexual misconduct are responsible for their actions, Kean University provides the suggestions that follow to help members of the campus community reduce their risk of being victimized and their risk of committing acts of sexual misconduct.

REDUCING THE RISK

- Make any limits and/or boundaries known as early as possible.
- Tell a sexual aggressor “no,” as clearly and firmly as possible.
- Remove yourself, if possible, from an aggressor’s physical presence.
- Reach out for help, either from someone who is physically nearby or by calling someone. Bystanders may be waiting for a signal for help.
- Take affirmative responsibility for alcohol and/or drug consumption, understanding that alcohol and drugs can increase your vulnerability to sexual victimization.
- Look out for friends, and ask them to look out for you. Respect them, and ask them to respect you, but be willing to challenge each other about high- risk choices.

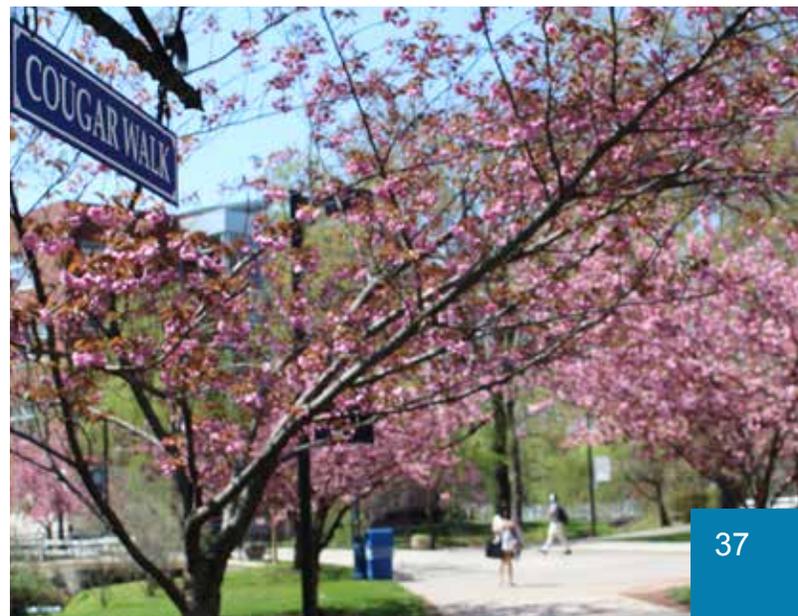

MAINTAINING RESPECT FOR OTHERS

If you find yourself in the position of being the initiator of sexual behavior, give sexual respect to your potential partner. These suggestions may help to reduce the risk for being accused of sexual misconduct:

- Clearly communicate intentions to your sexual partner and give him/her a chance to clearly relate intentions to you. Understand and respect personal boundaries.
- DON'T MAKE ASSUMPTIONS about consent, about someone’s sexual availability, about whether they are attracted to you, about how far you can go, or about whether they are physically and/or mentally able to consent. If there are any questions or ambiguity then you DO NOT have consent.
- Mixed messages from your partner are a clear indication that you should stop, defuse any sexual tension and communicate better. You may be misreading them. They may not have figured out how far they want to go with you yet. You must respect the timeline for sexual behaviors with which they are comfortable.
- Don’t take advantage of someone’s drunkenness or drugged state, even if they did it to themselves.
- Realize that your potential partner could be intimidated by you, or fearful. You may have a power advantage simply because of your gender or size. Don’t abuse that power.
- Understand that consent to some form of sexual behavior does not automatically imply consent to any other forms of sexual behavior. Silence and passivity cannot be interpreted as an indication of consent. Read your potential partner carefully; pay attention to verbal and non-verbal communication and body language.

KEAN UNIVERSITY RESPONSE, RESOLUTION AND REDRESS

Kean University provides information about available assistance and options to resolve and redress an incident of gender based discrimination or sexual misconduct. This information is available to community members who may have experienced gender based discrimination or sexual misconduct and to community members who allegedly have participated in an incident of gender based discrimination or sexual misconduct. This information is available regardless of whether or not Kean University Department of Public Safety and Police or local law enforcement is involved in responding to the alleged incident. Kean University community members have access to this information in writing, including details on how to request changes to academic, living, transportation and protective measures. Kean University will make every effort to provide such accommodations and protective measures upon request to the extent that they are reasonably available. Further, the provision of accommodations and protective measures will remain as confidential as possible, to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality does not impair the University's ability to provide and enforce such measures.

Kean University students will find written information regarding available resources, assistance and accommodations at <http://www.kean.edu/policies/sexual-assault-misconduct-violence>. This information includes contact information for Kean University professional staff who can help arrange accommodations and support for students who may have experienced sexual misconduct or for students who are alleged to have participated in an incident involving sexual misconduct or gender based discrimination.

Written notification about assistance, options and available resources can be found in Kean University's Resource Guide for Student on Sexual Misconduct: Campus Policies, Procedures and Support Services. Copies of the Resource Guide can be found in the Health Services Office, Counseling Center, the Office of Affirmative Action, the Office of Academic Affairs, The Office of Human Resources, the Center for Leadership and Service, the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct, Athletics Department, and the Office of Residential Student Services.

Students may also request a written copy of the Resource Guide by contacting the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs located in Kean Hall, Room 124 or by calling (908) 737- 7080.

In the event that a community member chooses to report an incident of sexual misconduct, a copy of the Resource Guide will be provided. In the event that a report is made to the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct, an additional resource letter will be sent to students who may have experienced sexual misconduct informing them of available resources, accommodations and sources of support at Kean University and the surrounding community.

Employees of Kean University are encouraged to speak with the Title IX Coordinator about available resources and options. The Title IX Coordinator is located in Townsend Hall, Room 133 and can be reached at (908) 737-3330.

Kean University takes its response and redress of gender based harassment and sexual misconduct seriously. Specific procedures have been implemented that ensure the fair, equitable and timely resolution of allegations of gender based harassment and sexual misconduct. The resources found below provide guidance and assistance regarding the University's policies, procedures and redress of gender based harassment and sexual misconduct. If you have a question about how the University will address an allegations of gender based harassment and sexual misconduct, the following resources will answer your questions.

WHAT IS A STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES ADVOCATE? CAN A STUDENT SUPPORT SERVICES ADVOCATE HELP ME?

The Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs has staff who provide free, confidential advocacy services to students who may have experienced or allegedly been involved in an incident of sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, domestic violence, or other gender- based or sex- based harassment or violence. Kean University's Student Support Services Advocate is exempt from the duty to report personally identifiable information relating to incidents of sexual misconduct to University administrators or to law enforcement, and will only facilitate the reporting of such information with the student's consent. The Student Support Services Advocate will provide policy guidance and facilitate services and resources, including counseling and academic and housing accommodations. The Advocate will explain administrative policies and procedures as well as the role of law enforcement. Students who wish to speak to an Advocate should contact Health Services at 908- 737-4880 or email hsnurses@kean.edu.

If you are unsure of what to do or who to talk to, please contact the Student Support Services Advocate for assistance. A Student Support Services Advocate will offer guidance, assistance and support to both a student who may have experienced sexual misconduct or a student who is allegedly involved in perpetrating an incident of sexual misconduct or gender-based discrimination.

A NOTE ABOUT CONFIDENTIALITY

To make informed choices, all parties should be aware of confidentiality and privacy issues, as well as institutional mandatory reporting requirements.

Confidential reporting: If reporting students wish that details of an incident be kept confidential, they should speak with campus mental health counselors, health service providers, or the Student Support Services Advocate. Their services are free of charge. Clergy members, chaplains or off-campus rape crisis center staff also maintain confidential information. Local resources such as crisis centers are also confidential and have no duty to report your information to the University.

Mandated reporting: All employees not designated as confidential above, are mandated reporters for all the details they are aware of about an incident. Unless an employee is identified as a confidential resource, they must report the incident to the Kean University Title IX Coordinator. Giving a mandated reporter notice of an incident constitutes official notice to the institution. Such incidents will be investigated and resolved in a prompt and equitable manner under the University's resolution procedures..

Certain campus officials have a duty to report sexual misconduct for federal statistical purposes (Clery Act). All personally identifiable information remains confidential, but statistical information must be passed along to Kean University's Department of Public Safety and Police regarding the type of incident and its general location (on or off campus, in the surrounding area, but no addresses are given) for publication in the Annual Security Report. The Annual Security Report helps to provide the Kean community with a clear picture of the extent and nature of campus crime.

You may request confidentiality and/ or that the Title IX Coordinator remedies and resources without initiating a formal resolution process. The Title IX Coordinator will weigh the request for confidentiality against the institutional need to address and remedy discrimination under Title IX. Generally, Kean University will be able to respect the request unless it believes there is a threat to the community based on the use of weapons, violence, pattern, predation or threatening conduct by the person being accused.

In cases where the request for confidentiality is granted, the University will offer all available resources, supports and remedies. A student is not obligated to pursue formal resolution in order to access the resources that are available. If the University decides it is obligated to pursue formal resolution based on the notice given, a student is not obligated to participate in the resolution process. However, the ability of the University to enforce its policies may be limited as a result of a decision not to participate.

Duties with respect to minors (those under age [18]) may require reporting to state agencies and/or local law enforcement. As a result, confidentiality cannot be guaranteed.

FEDERAL TIMELY WARNING REPORTING OBLIGATIONS

Reporting parties of sexual misconduct should also be aware mandated reporters and University administrators must issue immediate timely warnings for reported incidents that are confirmed to pose a substantial threat of bodily harm or danger to members of Kean community. The University will make every effort to ensure that a reporting party's name and other identifying information is not disclosed, while still providing enough information for community members to make safety decisions in light of the danger.

Kean University reserves the right to take whatever measures it deems necessary in response to an allegation of gender based or sexual misconduct in order to protect students' rights and personal safety. Such measures include, but are not limited to, modification of living arrangements, interim suspension from the campus pending a hearing, and reporting the matter to the local police. Not all forms of sexual misconduct will be deemed to be equally serious offenses, and the University reserves the right to impose different sanctions, ranging from verbal warning to expulsion—depending on the severity of the offense. The University will consider the concerns and rights of both the reporting party and the responding party to an incident of sexual misconduct.

OVERVIEW OF POLICY EXPECTATIONS WITH RESPECT TO SEXUAL MISCONDUCT

Members of the University community, guests and visitors have the right to be free from gender based harassment and sexual misconduct. All members of the campus community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that does not infringe upon the rights of others. The University believes in a zero tolerance policy for sexual and gender-based misconduct. When an allegation of misconduct is brought to an appropriate administration's attention, and a responding party is found to have violated this policy, serious sanctions will be used to reasonably ensure that such actions are never repeated. This policy has been developed to reaffirm these principles and to provide recourse for those individuals whose rights have been violated. This policy is intended to define community expectations and to establish a mechanism for determining when those expectations have been violated.

The expectations of our community regarding sexual misconduct can be summarized as follows:

- In order for individuals to engage in sexual activity of any type with each other, there must be clear, knowing and voluntary consent prior to and during sexual activity;
- Consent is sexual permission; Consent can be given by word or action, but non-verbal consent is not as clear as talking about what you want sexually and what you don't; Consent to some form of sexual activity cannot be automatically taken as consent to any other form of sexual activity;
- Silence—without actions demonstrating permission—cannot be assumed to show consent.
- Additionally, there is a difference between seduction and coercion. Coercing someone into sexual activity violates this policy in the same way as physically forcing someone into sex. Coercion happens when someone is pressured unreasonably for sex.
- Because alcohol or other drug use can place the capacity to consent in question, sober sex is less likely to raise such questions. When alcohol or other drugs are being used, a person will be considered unable to give valid consent if they cannot fully understand the details of a sexual interaction (who, what, when, where, why, or how) because they lack the capacity to reasonably understand the situation. Individuals who consent to sex must be able to understand what they are doing.

IMMUNITY FOR REPORTING PARTIES

Kean University encourages community members who may have experienced gender based or sexual misconduct to report the incident. Sometimes reporting parties are hesitant to report to University officials because they fear that they themselves may be accused of policy violations, such as underage drinking at the time of the incident. To encourage reporting, Kean University pursues a policy of offering reporting parties amnesty from policy violations related to the incident.

OVERVIEW OF POLICY EXPECTATIONS WITH RESPECT TO CONSENSUAL RELATIONSHIPS

There are inherent risks in any romantic or sexual relationship between individuals in unequal positions (such as teacher and student, supervisor and employee). These relationships may be less consensual than perceived by the individual whose position confers power. The relationship also may be viewed in different ways by each of the parties, particularly in retrospect. Furthermore, circumstances may change, and conduct that was previously welcomed may become unwelcome. Even when both parties have consented at the outset to a romantic or sexual involvement, this past consent may not remove grounds for a later charge of a violation of applicable sections of the faculty/staff handbooks or the Code of Student Conduct.

The University does not wish to interfere with private choices regarding personal relationships when these relationships do not interfere with the goals and policies of the University. For the personal protection of members of this community, relationships in which power differentials are inherent (faculty-student, staff-student, administrator-student) are generally discouraged. Consensual romantic or sexual relationships in which one party maintains a direct supervisory or evaluative role over the other party are unethical. Therefore, persons with direct supervisory or evaluative responsibilities who are involved in such relationships must bring those relationships to the timely attention of their supervisor, and will likely result in the necessity to remove the employee from the supervisory or evaluative responsibilities, or shift the student out of being supervised or evaluated by someone with whom they have established a consensual relationship. This includes RAs and students over whom they have direct responsibility. While no relationships are prohibited by this policy, failure to self-report such relationships to a supervisor as required can result in disciplinary action for an employee.

CONSENT

Kean University defines consent as:

- Clear
- Knowing AND
- Voluntary.

Consent is active, not passive. Silence, in and of itself, cannot be interpreted as consent.

Consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create mutually understandable clear permission regarding willingness to engage in—and the conditions of—sexual activity.

Consent to any one form of sexual activity cannot automatically imply consent to any other forms of sexual activity.

Previous relationships or prior consent cannot imply consent to future sexual acts.

In order to give effective consent, one must be of legal age.

POLICY DEFINITIONS AND STANDARDS

The following are the definitions of conduct prohibited by the Kean University sexual misconduct policy.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT

Sexual Harassment is:

- unwelcome, and
- sexual, sex-based and/or gender-based verbal, written, online and/or physical conduct.

HOSTILE ENVIRONMENT

A hostile environment is created when sexual harassment is:

- sufficiently severe, or
- persistent or pervasive, and
- objectively offensive that it: - unreasonably interferes with, denies or limits someone's ability to participate in or benefit from the university's educational [and/or employment], social and/or residential program.

Examples include: an attempt to coerce an unwilling person into a sexual relationship; to repeatedly subject a person to egregious, unwelcome sexual attention; to punish a refusal to comply with a sexual based request; to condition a benefit on submitting to sexual advances; sexual violence; intimate partner violence, stalking; gender-based bullying.

Sanctions for sexual harassment range from warning through expulsion/termination.

RETALIATION

Retaliation is:

- Any materially adverse action,
- Taken against a person participating in a protected activity,
- Because of their participation in that protected activity - subject to limitations imposed by the 1st Amendment and/ or Academic Freedom.

Sanctions for retaliation range from warning through expulsion/ termination.

NON-CONSENSUAL SEXUAL CONTACT

Non-Consensual Sexual Contact is:

- any intentional sexual touching,
- however slight,
- with any object,
- by a person upon another person,
- that is without consent and/or by force.

Sexual Contact includes:

Intentional contact with the breasts, buttock, groin, or genitals, or touching another with any of these body parts, or making another touch you or themselves with or on any of these body parts; any intentional bodily contact in a sexual manner, though not involving contact with/of/by breasts, buttocks, groin, genitals, mouth etc.

Sanctions for Non-Consensual Sexual Contact range from warning through expulsion/termination.

NON-CONSENSUAL SEXUAL INTERCOURSE

Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse is:

- any sexual intercourse,
- however slight,
- with any object,
- by a person upon another person,
- that is without consent and/or by force.

Intercourse includes:

Vaginal penetration by a penis, object, tongue or finger, anal penetration by a penis, object, tongue, or finger, and oral copulation (mouth to genital contact or genital to mouth contact), no matter how slight the penetration or contact.

Sanctions for Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse typically result in suspension or expulsion/termination.

SEXUAL EXPLOITATION

Sexual exploitation is:

- An action that occurs when one person takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for his/her own advantage or benefit, or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the one being exploited, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of the other sexual misconduct offenses

Examples of sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to:

- Invasion of sexual privacy;
- Prostituting another student;

- Non-consensual video or audio-taping of sexual activity;
- Going beyond the boundaries of consent (such as letting your friends hide in the closet to watch you having consensual sex);
- Engaging in voyeurism;
- Knowingly transmitting an STI or HIV to another student;
- Exposing one's genitals in non-consensual circumstances; inducing another to expose their genitals;
- Sexually-based stalking and/or bullying may also be forms of sexual exploitation.

Sanctions for Sexual Exploitation range from warning through expulsion/termination.

INTIMATE PARTNER VIOLENCE

Intimate Partner Violence is:

- Violence or emotional and/or psychological abuse between those in an intimate relationship to each other.

Sanctions for Intimate Partner Violence range from warning through expulsion/ termination.

STALKING

Stalking is:

- Repetitive and menacing
- Pursuit, following, harassing and/or interfering with the peace and/or safety of another.

Sanctions for Stalking typically result in suspension or expulsion/termination

CONSENT

Kean University defines consent as:

- Clear
- Knowing AND
- Voluntary.

Consent is active, not passive. Silence, in and of itself, cannot be interpreted as consent.

Consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create mutually understandable clear permission regarding willingness to engage in—and the conditions of—sexual activity.

Consent to any one form of sexual activity cannot automatically imply consent to any other forms of sexual activity.

Previous relationships or prior consent cannot imply consent to future sexual acts.

In order to give effective consent, one must be of legal age.

ADDITIONAL APPLICABLE DEFINITIONS

Force: the use of physical violence and/or imposing on someone physically to gain sexual access. Force also includes threats, intimidation (implied threats) and coercion that overcome resistance or produce consent (“Have sex with me or I’ll hit you. Okay, don’t hit me; I’ll do what you want.”).

Coercion is unreasonable pressure for sexual activity. Coercive behavior differs from seductive behavior based on the type of pressure someone uses to get consent from another. When someone makes clear to you that they do not want sex, that they want to stop, or that they do not want to go past a certain point of sexual interaction, continued pressure beyond that point can be coercive.

There is no requirement that a party resists the sexual advance or request, but resistance is a clear demonstration of non-consent. The presence of force is not demonstrated by the absence of resistance. Sexual activity that is forced is by definition non-consensual, but non-consensual sexual activity is not by definition forced.

In order to give effective consent, one must be of legal age.

Sexual activity with someone one should know to be—or based on the circumstances should reasonably have known to be—mentally or physically incapacitated (by alcohol or other drug use, unconsciousness or blackout), constitutes a violation of this policy.

Incapacitation is a state where someone cannot make rational, reasonable decisions because they lack the capacity to give knowing consent (e.g., to understand the “who, what, when, where, why or how” of their sexual interaction).

This policy also covers a person whose incapacity results from mental disability, sleep, involuntary physical restraint, or from the taking of rape drugs. Possession, use and/or distribution of any of these substances, including Rohypnol, Ketomine, GHB, Burundanga, etc. is prohibited, and administering one of these drugs to another student is a violation of this policy. More information on these drugs can be found at <http://www.911rape.org/>.

Note: Use of alcohol or other drugs will never function as a defense for any behavior that violates this policy. The sexual orientation and/or gender identity of individuals engaging in sexual activity is not relevant to allegations under this policy. This policy applies regardless of the sexual orientation or gender identity of the individuals involved. For reference to the pertinent state statutes on sex offenses, please see the New Jersey State Police web site at www.state.nj.us/njsp.

Sexual Harassment: Unwelcome, gender-based verbal or physical conduct is sufficiently severe, pervasive and objectively offensive that it unreasonably interferes with, limits or deprives someone of the ability to participate in or benefit from the University's educational program. The unwelcome behavior may be based on power differentials (quid pro quo), the creation of a hostile environment or retaliation. Examples include: an attempt to coerce an unwilling person into a sexual relationship; to repeatedly subject a person to egregious, unwanted sexual attention; to punish a refusal to comply; to condition a benefit on submitting to sexual advances; sexual violence; intimate partner violence, stalking; gender-based bullying.

Discrimination: Any distinction, preference, advantage for or detriment to an individual compared to others—that is based upon an individual's actual or perceived gender, race, color, age, creed, national or ethnic origin, physical or mental disability, veteran status, pregnancy status, religion or sexual orientation—that is sufficiently serious that it interferes with or limits a student's ability to participate in or benefit from the University's educational program or activities.

Discriminatory Harassment: Detrimental action based on an individual's actual or perceived gender, race, color, age, creed, national or ethnic origin, physical or mental disability, veteran status, pregnancy status, religion, sexual orientation or other protected status that is so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it interferes with or limits a student's ability to participate in, or benefit from, the University's educational program or activities.

Retaliatory Harassment: Intentional action taken by an accused individual or allied third party, absent legitimate non-discriminatory purposes, that harms an individual as reprisal for filing or participating in a sexual misconduct grievance proceeding.

OTHER MISCONDUCT OFFENSES (WILL FALL UNDER TITLE IX WHEN GENDER-BASED)

- Threatening or causing physical harm, extreme verbal abuse, or other conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person;
- Discrimination, defined as actions that deprive other members of the community of educational or employment access, benefits or opportunities on the basis of gender;

- Intimidation, defined as implied threats or acts that cause an unreasonable fear of harm in another;
- Hazing, defined as acts likely to cause physical or psychological harm or social ostracism to any person within the University community, when related to the admission, initiation, pledging, joining, or any other group-affiliation activity (as defined further in the Hazing Policy);
- Bullying, defined as repeated and/or severe aggressive behavior likely to intimidate or intentionally hurt, control or diminish another person, physically or mentally (that is not speech or conduct otherwise protected by the 1st Amendment). Violence between those in an intimate relationship to each other.

OVERVIEW OF GENDER BASED HARASSMENT AND SEXUAL MISCONDUCT GRIEVANCE PROCESSES

JURISDICTION

Depending on the allegations, violations of the policy will be resolved through the Kean University gender based harassment and sexual misconduct student grievance process or by the employee grievance process. Complaints of sexual misconduct or gender based discrimination by Kean University employees should be brought to the attention of the Affirmative Action Officer immediately. Complaints of sexual misconduct by students should be reported to the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs or the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct immediately. At the Wenzhou- Kean campus, students should report the sexual misconduct to Mr. Philip Connelly, Deputy Title IX Coordinator. Delayed reporting may impede a satisfactory resolution or hamper a proper investigation.

Kean University employees who may have experienced gender based discrimination, harassment or sexual misconduct are encouraged to report concerns to the Title IX Coordinator. University employees may also report concerns to the Office of Human Resources, located in the Administration Building, 2nd Floor or call (908) 737- 3300.

Reporting Party	Responding Party	Jurisdiction
Staff/Administrator/Faculty	Staff/Administrator/Faculty	Office Of Affirmative Action
Student	Staff/Administrator/Faculty	Office of Affirmative Action
Staff/Administrator/Faculty	Student	Office of Affirmative Action/ Office of Community Standards And Student Conduct
Student	Student	Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct

The chart above designates the University resolution process used to address allegations of gender based harassment, sexual misconduct, interpersonal violence and stalking. The appropriate resolution process corresponds to the reporting and responding parties and the office which has primary jurisdiction over the complaint.

Kean University prohibits gender based harassment and sexual misconduct and reaffirms its commitment to maintaining campus environments that respect the dignity and worth of all members. The following policies define prohibited conduct as well as sets forth the grievance processes used in the event that a member of the Kean community experiences gender based harassment or sexual harassment. Different members of the Kean community will follow different grievance processes. Applicable definitions and processes are set forth below.

THE GENDER BASED HARASSMENT AND SEXUAL MISCONDUCT STUDENT GRIEVANCE PROCESS: RIGHTS OF THE REPORTING PARTY AND RESPONDENT

Kean University strives to provide a fair and equitable resolution process to resolve and redress allegations of gender based harassment and sexual misconduct involving students. The following section provides information regarding the rights and resources available to students involved in the gender based sexual harassment and sexual misconduct grievance resolution process.

OVERVIEW OF STUDENT RIGHTS

REPORTING

- Reporting Parties have the right to notify law enforcement of incidents and to receive assistance from campus personnel in doing so.
- Reporting Parties may decline to report to law enforcement if they so wish.
- Reporting students have the right to have their allegations investigated and resolved internally by the Kean University.

FAIRNESS

- All members of the campus community have the right to have reported sexual misconduct addressed according to the published Kean University procedures.
- All parties have equal opportunities to have a support person of their choosing [or offered by the institution] present throughout all resolution proceedings [including intake, interviews, hearings, etc.]. This support person can be an advisor, advocate, attorney, family member, friend, faculty member, etc.
- All parties have the right to written notice of the outcome of sexual misconduct resolution proceedings.
- Reporting Parties and witnesses will receive amnesty for minor infractions (e.g., alcohol and drug violations) that are secondary to incidents of sexual misconduct.
- Reporting Parties, their supporters and witnesses have a right to be free from all retaliation.

SUPPORT

- Students have a right to be notified of their ability to access campus counseling and health services.
- Both reporting and responding party students and employees have a right to be notified of on- and off-campus supportive resources.
- All parties will receive the information and assistance needed to effectively participate in all proceedings.
- Reporting Parties have the right to seek orders of protection, no contact orders, restraining orders, or similar lawful orders issued by criminal, civil, or tribal courts and may seek the help of University Police in requesting and/or enforcing such orders.

STATEMENT OF THE RIGHTS OF THE REPORTING PARTY

- The right to investigation and appropriate resolution of all credible allegations of sexual misconduct made in good faith to University administrators;

- The right to be treated with respect by University officials;
- The right of both parties to have the same opportunity to have others present (in support or advisory roles) during all resolution proceedings;
- The right not to be discouraged by University officials from reporting sexual misconduct to both on-campus and off-campus authorities;
- The right to be informed of the outcome and sanction of any conduct hearing involving sexual misconduct, usually within 24-hours of the end of the conduct hearing;
- The right to be informed by University officials of options to notify proper law enforcement authorities, including on-campus and local police, and the option to be assisted by campus authorities in notifying such authorities, if the student so chooses. This also includes the right not to report, if this is the reporting party's desire;
- The right to be notified of available counseling, mental health, or student services for reporting parties of sexual misconduct, both on-campus and in the community;
- The right to notification of and options for, and available assistance in, changing academic and living situations after an alleged sexual misconduct incident, if so requested by the reporting party and if such changes are reasonably available (no formal allegations, or investigation, campus or criminal, need occur before this option is available).

Accommodations may include:

- Change of an on-campus student's housing to a different on-campus location;
- Assistance from University support staff in completing the relocation;
- Arranging to terminate a housing contract and pro-rating a refund;
- Exam (paper, assignment) rescheduling;
- Taking an incomplete in a class;
- Transferring class sections;
- Temporary withdrawal;
- Alternative course completion options.
- The right not to have irrelevant prior sexual history admitted as evidence in a campus resolution process;
- The right not to have any allegation of sexual misconduct mediated (as opposed to formally resolved);
- The right to make an impact statement at the campus conduct proceeding and to have that statement considered by the hearing officer in determining its sanction;
- The right to a campus wide no contact order against the responding party who has engaged in or threatens to engage in stalking, threatening, harassing or other improper behavior that presents a danger to the welfare of the complaining student or others;
- The right to have allegations of sexual misconduct responded to quickly and with sensitivity by campus law enforcement.
- The right to appeal the finding and sanction of the conduct officer, in accordance with the standards for appeal established by the institution;
- The right to review all documentary evidence available regarding the allegation, subject to the privacy limitations imposed by state and federal law, at least 48-hours prior to the determination of findings;

- The right to be informed of the names of all witnesses who will be called in the investigation;
- The right to preservation of privacy, to the extent possible and allowed by law;
- The right to a hearing closed to the public;
- The right to petition that any conduct officer be removed on the basis of demonstrated bias;
- The right to bring a student support services advocate or advisor to all phases of the investigation and campus conduct proceeding;
- The right to give testimony in a campus hearing by means other than being in the same room with the respondent;
- The right to ask the investigator to identify and question relevant witnesses, including expert witnesses and to suggest questions for those witnesses;
- The right to be fully informed of campus conduct rules and procedures as well as the nature and extent of all alleged violations;
- The right to have the University compel the presence of student, faculty, and staff witnesses, and the opportunity (if desired) to ask questions, directly or indirectly, of witnesses (including the respondent), and the right to challenge documentary evidence.
- The right to be present for all testimony given and evidence presented before the conduct officer;
- The right to have allegations heard by conduct and appeals officers who have received annual sexual misconduct training;
- The right to have University policies and procedures followed without material deviation;
- The right to be informed in advance of any public release of information regarding the allegations;
- The right not to have released to the public any personally identifiable information about the reporting party, without consent.

STATEMENT OF THE RESPONDENT'S RIGHTS

The rights of respondents should also be prominently indicated, such as:

- The right to investigation and appropriate resolution of all credible allegations of sexual misconduct made in good faith to University administrators;
- The right to be treated with respect by University officials;
- The right to be informed of and have access to campus resources for medical, counseling, and advisory services;
- The right to be fully informed of the nature, rules and procedures of the campus conduct process and to timely written notice of all alleged violations, including the nature of the violation and possible sanctions;
- The right to challenge any interim actions or suspensions by the University, by requesting a meeting to show cause why those restrictions are incorrect, unduly burdensome and/or unnecessary.
- The right to a hearing on the allegations, including timely notice of the hearing date, and adequate time for preparation;
- The right not to have irrelevant prior sexual history admitted as evidence in a campus resolution process;
- The right to make an impact statement at the campus conduct proceeding and to have that statement considered by the hearing officer in determining its sanction;

- The right to appeal the finding and sanction of the hearing officer, in accordance with the standards for appeal established by the institution;
- The right to review all documentary evidence available regarding the allegations, subject to the privacy limitations imposed by state and federal law, at least 48-hours prior to the finding;
- The right to be informed of the names of all witnesses who will be called to give testimony, within 48-hours of the hearing, except in cases where a witness' identity will not be revealed to the accused student for compelling safety reasons (this does not include the name of the alleged victim/reporting party, which will always be revealed);
- The right to a hearing closed to the public;
- The right to petition that any administrator involved in the resolution process be removed on the basis of bias;
- The right to have the University compel the presence of student, faculty, and staff witnesses, and the opportunity to ask questions, directly or indirectly, of witnesses, and the right to challenge documentary evidence.
- The right to have allegations heard by conduct and appeals officers who have received annual sexual misconduct training;
- The right to have University policies and procedures followed without material deviation;
- The right to have an advisor or advocate to accompany and assist in the campus resolution process. This advisor can be anyone, including an attorney (provided at the responding party's own cost), but the advisor may not take part directly in the hearing itself, though they may communicate with the responding party as necessary;

- The right to a fundamentally fair hearing, as defined in these procedures;
- The right to a campus conduct outcome based solely on evidence presented during the conduct process. Such evidence shall be credible, relevant, based in fact, and without prejudice;
- The right to written notice of the outcome and sanction of the resolution process;
- The right to be informed in advance, when possible, of any public release of information regarding the allegations.

SPECIAL GRIEVANCE PROCESS PROVISIONS

Attempted Violations: In most circumstances, University will treat attempts to commit any of the violations listed in the Student Code of Conduct as if those attempts had been completed.

University as Complainant: As necessary, University reserves the right to initiate a complaint, to serve as complainant, and to initiate conduct proceedings without a formal complaint of misconduct.

False Reports: The University will not tolerate intentional false reporting of incidents. It is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct to make an intentionally false report of any policy violation, and it may also violate state criminal statutes and civil defamation laws.

Immunity for Reporting Parties and Witnesses: The University community encourages the reporting of the Code of Conduct violations and crimes by reporting parties and witnesses. The University community encourages the reporting of the Code of Conduct violations, especially sexual misconduct. Sometimes, reporting parties or witnesses are hesitant to report to University officials or participate in grievance processes because they fear that they themselves may be charged with policy violations, such as underage drinking at the time of the incident. It is in the best interest of this community that as many reporting parties as possible choose to report to University officials, and that witnesses come forward to share what they know.

To encourage reporting, University pursues a policy of offering reporting parties of sexual misconduct and witnesses immunity from being charged for policy violations related to the sexual misconduct incident.

Bystander Engagement: The welfare of students in our community is of paramount importance. At times, students on and off-campus may need assistance. The University encourages students to offer help and assistance to others in need. Sometimes, students are hesitant to offer assistance to others, for fear that they may get themselves in trouble (for example, a student who has been drinking underage might hesitate to help take a sexual misconduct victim to the Campus Police). The University pursues a policy of limited immunity for students who offer help to others in need. While policy violations cannot be overlooked, the University will provide educational options, rather than punishment, to those who offer their assistance to others in need.

Parental Notification: The University reserves the right to notify parents/guardians of dependent students regarding any health or safety risk, change in student status or conduct situation, particularly alcohol and other drug violations. The University may also notify parents/guardians of non-dependent students who are under age 21 of alcohol and/or drug policy violations. Where a student is not-dependent, the University will contact parents/guardians to inform them of situations in which there is a significant and articulable health and/or safety risk. The University also reserves the right to designate which University officials have a need to know about individual conduct complaints pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

Notification of Outcomes: The outcome of a campus hearing is part of the educational record of the responding party, and is protected from release under a federal law, FERPA. However, the University observes the legal exceptions as follows:

- Reporting parties in non-consensual sexual contact/intercourse, sexual exploitation, sexual harassment, stalking, and relationship violence incidents have an absolute right to be informed of the outcome, essential findings, and sanctions of the hearing—in writing—without condition or limitation.
- The University may publicly release the name, nature of the violation, and the sanction for any student who is found in violation of a University policy that is a “crime of violence,” including: arson, burglary, robbery, criminal homicide, sex offenses, assault, destruction/damage/vandalism of property and kidnapping/abduction. The University will release this information to the reporting party in any of these offenses regardless of the outcome.

Alternative Testimony Options: For sexual misconduct complaints, and other complaints of a sensitive nature, when the reporting party is serving as the reporting party or as a witness, alternative testimony options will be given, such as placing a privacy screen in the hearing room, or allowing the reporting party to testify outside the physical presence of the responding party, such as by Skype. While these options are intended to help make the reporting party more comfortable, they are not intended to work to the disadvantage of the responding party.

Past Sexual History/Character: The past sexual history or sexual character of a party will not be admissible by the other party in the investigation or hearing unless such information is determined to be highly relevant by the Hearing Officer. All such information sought to be admitted will be presumed irrelevant, and any request to overcome this presumption by the parties must be included in the complaint/response or a subsequent written request, and must be reviewed in advance of the hearing by the Director of Community Standards and Student Conduct. While previous conduct violations by the responding party are not generally admissible as information about the present alleged violation, the Director of Community Standards and Student Conduct may supply previous complaint information to the investigator or may consider it him/herself if s/he is hearing the complaint, only if:

- The responding party was previously found to be responsible; The previous incident was substantially similar to the present allegation;
- Information indicates a pattern of behavior and substantial conformity with that pattern by the responding party.

GENDER BASED HARASSMENT AND SEXUAL MISCONDUCT STUDENT GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

In the event of an allegation of gender based harassment or sexual misconduct involving a student, the following procedures are used to resolve and redress the incident:

The Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct is designated by the Title IX Coordinator to formally investigate allegations of sexual misconduct, intimate partner violence and stalking involving students. Notice of a formal complaint can be made in person or orally to a Title IX Deputy, but the University strongly encourages submission of allegations by way of incident report. Incident reports can be submitted at <https://cm.maxient.com/reportingform.php?KeanUniv>. The incident report should clearly and concisely describe the alleged incident(s), when and where it occurred, and the desired remedy sought. Any supporting documentation and evidence should be referenced within the incident report. Additionally, the reporting party should submit any supporting materials as quickly as is practicable.

Upon receipt of an incident report, the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct will confer with the Title IX Coordinator on appropriate interim action(s), including accommodations for the reporting party and respondent. Every effort will be made to connect both the reporting and responding parties to available campus resources and support during the resolution process. Additionally, the Vice President for Student Affairs, or designee, is authorized to place the respondent on interim suspension for reasons related to physical or emotional safety and well-being, to protect the integrity of the investigation and/or for reasons relating to the safety and well-being of students, faculty, staff, or University property. In some cases, the respondent may be permitted to attend classes but be suspended from all other campus activities. This determination will be made by the Vice President for Student Affairs based upon his/her knowledge of the potential threat posed by the respondent's presence on campus. In the event that an interim temporary suspension is issued, the respondent will have the right to appeal to the Vice President of Student Affairs or designee. The appeal must be submitted to the Vice President of Student Affairs or designee in writing within three business days of the issuance of the temporary suspension.

PRELIMINARY INQUIRY

After issuing appropriate accommodations, an initial determination is made as to whether to move the allegations forward to a formal investigation. This decision is made by the Title IX Coordinator, taking into account the nature of the allegations and the reporting party's wishes. If the decision is made to move forward, the Title IX Coordinator refers the allegations to the Director of the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct. The Title IX Coordinator or the Director of the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct will then open a formal case and assign investigator(s). The investigator(s) will receive annual training on how to investigate sexual misconduct, Intimate partner violence and stalking allegations as well as on Kean University's sexual misconduct policies and procedures.

INVESTIGATION

Upon receipt of the allegations, the investigator(s) will develop a strategic investigation plan to make a thorough, reliable and impartial inquiry into the allegations. The investigator(s) will prepare the notice of alleged policy violation(s) on the basis of the initial investigation and meet with the reporting and responding parties to obtain written statements. The investigator(s) will then establish a witness list, evidence list, intended timeframe and order of interviews for all involved parties, including witnesses. All correspondence, written statements, documentation, and evidence regarding the investigation will be compiled by the investigator(s) in a Document File that is part of the formal case. Kean University will protect the confidentiality of participants throughout the resolution process, consistent with the provisions of federal law. Title IX-related resolutions are not subject to publicly-available record keeping (e.g., FOIA) provisions. Any release of information about a resolution will be accomplished without the inclusion of identifying information about the parties, to the extent permissible by law.

The investigator(s) will make every effort to complete the investigation promptly, and without unreasonable deviation from the intended timeline. The investigator(s) will write an investigative report detailing the findings of responsibility, if any, as well as the rationale behind the findings. The investigator(s) will present the investigative report and findings to the responding party, who may accept the findings, accept the findings in part and reject them in part, or may reject all findings. The investigator(s) will then present the investigative report and findings and update the reporting party in a separate meeting who may accept the findings, accept the findings in part and reject them in part, or may reject all findings. After conferring with the reporting party and respondent, the investigator(s) will present the investigative report and recommendations to the Director of the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct. If the Director of the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct determines that the allegations do not warrant further action, the matter will be closed. Such determinations are appropriate where the allegations do not violate the Code of Student Conduct, and/or when there is insufficient evidence to support a reasonable belief that the Code may have been violated. If further action is warranted, the Director of the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct will (a) conduct a student conduct conference and issue appropriate sanctions as warranted or (b) determine that a student conduct hearing is necessary under its respective procedures to determine whether the responding party committed the alleged policy violations and issue appropriate sanctions.

STUDENT CONDUCT HEARING PROCESS

1. Notification of a Student Conduct Hearing will be provided by the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct to the reporting party and the responding party by email to the student's official @kean.edu account. All such notice is presumptively delivered whether the student reads the mail/email or not, as all students are required to regularly check their email accounts. The notice will include:
2. The name of the reporting party;
3. The nature of the alleged violations, including the specific code sections alleged to have been violated, applicable conduct procedures and the sanctions that may result;
4. The time and place of the hearing. All Student Conduct Hearings will be scheduled during regular business hours (9 a.m. – 5 p.m.);
5. The right to have witnesses. The University may arrange for witnesses to be present or assign to the reporting party and the responding party the responsibility to contact his/her witnesses and arrange for their participation. All student witnesses are asked to complete and sign a FERPA consent form no less than 48 hours prior to the hearing. Both the reporting party and the responding party must provide a list of witness names and a statement of their witness's anticipated testimony; all witnesses must be confirmed by the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct no later than 48 hours prior to the hearing.

6. The right to have an advisor. The advisor may not be a witness at the hearing or otherwise participate in the hearing;
7. The right to present relevant information;
8. The names of others who will be present at the hearing (if known), including the names of the hearing officer; and a copy of the procedure for challenging the hearing officers on the basis of partiality. If the alleged policy violations involve sexual misconduct, intimate partner violence or stalking, the hearing officer assigned must also receive annual training relating to the hearing process, investigation and resolution of Title IX cases.
9. Notice that a Document File and Investigative Report with statements from the reporting party, responding party and witnesses and any other documentary information will be available to the responding party, the reporting party, and their advisors for review at least three (3) days prior to the Student Conduct Hearing. An appointment is required to review the Document File and Investigative Report. Copies may be made available upon specific request.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT HEARING OFFICERS

Student Conduct Hearings for violations of the Code will be conducted by a trained member(s) of the University faculty, staff, or consultant designated by the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct. Student Conduct Hearing Officers in cases involving sexual misconduct, intimate partner violence and stalking will receive annual specialized training specific to these policy violations and the resolution process.

HEARING PARTICIPANTS

The hearing will be closed to all members of the campus and outside community except those directly involved with the incident. The reporting and responding party each have the right to be assisted by an advisor of their choice who is not a witness to the incident. An advisor or legal counsel may be present to advise only and may not participate. Advisors who interfere with the proceedings can be excused by the hearing officer. An audio recording of the hearing is made and kept by the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct.

Only persons involved in the hearing process will be permitted in the vicinity of the hearing.

It is expected that participants and advisors will respect the dignity and privacy of Kean community members and keep private that which transpires during the hearing, in accordance with federal law.

Student witnesses, when called by the University on behalf of the reporting party, the responding party, or the University, are required to participate in the hearing process.

The hearing process will be conducted in the following manner:

1. All participants and advisors will be introduced to the hearing officer.

2. All participants and advisors will be introduced to the audio technician.
3. The hearing officer will recite all Code sections alleged to have been violated.
4. The responding party will state whether he/she is responsible, not responsible, or responsible with an explanation for the alleged misconduct. Responsible with an explanation means the student admits to the actions but believes there were circumstances that should be taken into consideration by the hearing officer in the determining responsibility and/or assigning remedies.
5. Statements regarding their respective positions may be given by the reporting party and the responding party. The Hearing Officer may place reasonable time limitations on the statements.
6. The University reserves the right to assign a representative of the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct to present the Investigative Report.
7. Relevant records, documents, and written statements may be accepted and considered by the hearing officer. The hearing officer will receive a copy of the Investigative Report for review and consideration.
8. The reporting and responding party may be present throughout the entirety of the proceeding except for the deliberation phase. The reporting party, the responding party and the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct representative will be able to present witnesses who will be subject to questioning. Witnesses will be asked to remain until the end of the hearing in the event they must be called back for clarification of their testimony. In the event that a witness is unavailable, a signed statement from the witness may be admitted. Any such statements will be shared with the parties prior to the hearing, and the responding party will be given full opportunity to respond to the written statement at the hearing.
9. Witnesses will appear separately and will leave the hearing room after their testimony is completed. Witnesses are not permitted to leave the vicinity of the hearing room until permission has been granted by the hearing officer, and witnesses are instructed not to communicate with other witnesses outside the hearing during the proceedings.
10. All parties may question each other and the witnesses, and the hearing officer may direct questions as appropriate to any participant, or require that all questions go through the hearing officer. Other accommodations may be utilized to ensure that the hearing is a safe space for participants. The reporting and responding party may present concluding remarks. The Hearing Officer may place reasonable time limitations on the statements.
11. At the conclusion of the hearing, the hearing officer will advise the reporting and responding party that the determination will be given, in writing, to the appropriate parties.
12. The responding party's prior student conduct record will be a factor in determining the appropriate sanction(s).
13. The reporting party will not be notified of the outcome of the hearing EXCEPT in cases of violence, sexual misconduct, or offense that fall under Title IX, once the decision of the hearing officer has been issued.
14. For each separate offense, the hearing officer will determine whether the responding party is responsible or not responsible. The decision will be based upon an evaluation of the information presented and a determination as to whether the Code was more likely than not to have been violated (a preponderance of the evidence standard). For each violation, the hearing officer will impose an appropriate remedy and/or sanction.

15. The rules of evidence applicable to the courts do not apply to Code proceedings of this University community. Fair process applicable to this process is as defined in these procedures.
16. The Director of Community Standards and Student Conduct or designee may implement changes to these proceedings as needed that do not jeopardize the material fairness owed to the parties.

proceedings as needed that do not jeopardize the material fairness owed to the parties.

REMEDIES AND SANCTIONS

- A. The following remedies and sanctions may be imposed when responding parties have been found responsible for violation of the Code. In addition, other remedies and sanctions may be fashioned at the discretion of the hearing officer:
 1. Written Warning to the offender that the conduct must stop and any continuation may be a basis for more severe action.
 2. Letter of Reprimand.
 3. Probation – Notice that further violation of the Code may result in expulsion. Also, the decision may place some additional restrictions on membership in student organizations and/or participation in activities or may establish special restitution and service requirements.
 4. Suspension:
 - a. Specific Period – Revocation of the privilege of attending the University and using its facilities for a specific period not to exceed two academic years.
 - b. Indefinite Period – Revocation of the privilege of attending the University and using the facilities pending the satisfying of specific conditions. The Vice President for Student Affairs will determine whether the conditions have been satisfied.
 5. Residence Hall Suspension - Revocation or restriction of privileges for the use of, access to, and/or residence in University Residence Halls
 6. Facilities Restriction -- Revocation or restriction of privileges for the use of some but not all University facilities
 7. Expulsion – Permanent termination of student status and rights to be present on University property and attend/participate in University-sponsored events
 8. Referral to civil or criminal authorities
- Any of the following may accompany a remedy and sanction:
9. Restitution requiring individuals to restore or replace within a specified time, property which has been damaged, defaced, lost, or stolen.
 10. Service assignment requiring an individual to perform services for the community or the University

11. Referral to appropriate psychological or psychiatric service for evaluation, mandated assessment, or other special help.
 12. Fines for drug and alcohol violations as outlined in the Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report at www.kean.edu/annual-campus-security-and-fire-safety-report.
 13. A Campus-Wide Notice of No Trespass will accompany a sanction of suspension or expulsion from the University.
 14. A Residence Life Notice of No Trespass will accompany any restriction imposed or related to residential living or visitation of the residence halls.
 15. Campus-Wide No Contact Order: The Vice President of Student Affairs may impose a Campus Wide No-Contact Order between parties when the fear of retaliation and/or harassment may be present. Specific instructions will accompany the Campus-Wide No-Contact Order outlining to all parties the expected behavior including face to face contact, correspondence, e-mail, instant message or telephone. Friends and relatives are also not permitted to have any contact on behalf of either party.
- B. Underage students found in violation of the University's Alcohol Policy and/or sanctioned for the possession or distribution of illegal drugs will be subject to the University parental notification policy. (See FERPA Policies and Procedures in the Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report). In addition, Kean University reserves the right, in accordance with FERPA, to make public notification of the final results of certain student conduct actions (See FERPA Policy in the Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report). Such notification may include the name of the student offender and the type of violation, but will not disclose the names of any other students who were involved as reporting parties or witnesses without their consent.

APPEAL PROCEDURES

- A. Where a student is found responsible for a violation of the Code that may lead to a sanction less serious than suspension or expulsion, the student can appeal in writing to the Review Committee for Appeals within five (5) business days from the date of the hearing officer's determination. A person will have the right to request a review based on any of the following grounds:
1. A sanction that falls outside the sanction range commonly assigned for the offense
 2. A material deviation from written procedures that jeopardized the fairness of the process
 3. A demonstrable bias by the hearing officer
 4. New information, unavailable at the time of the hearing, that could be outcome determinative
- B. In the case of suspension or expulsion, the student can appeal in writing to the Vice President for Student Affairs within five (5) business days of the receipt of the hearing officer's determination.
- C. In the case of suspension or expulsion, the student will not be permitted to be on campus or attend classes pending the outcome of the appeal unless implementation of the sanction is delayed by the Vice President for Student Affairs due to extraordinary circumstances.
- D. The Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct will share the appeal with the other party (e.g., if the respondent appeals, the appeal is shared with the reporting party who may also wish to file a response), and then the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct will draft a response memorandum (also shared with all parties). All appeals and responses are then forwarded to the Vice-President for Student Affairs for initial review to determine if the appeal meets the limited grounds and is timely. The original finding and sanction will stand if the appeal is not timely or substantively eligible, and the decision is final. If the appeal has standing, the documentation is forwarded for consideration. The party requesting appeal must show error as the original finding and sanction are presumed to have been decided reasonably and appropriately. The ONLY grounds for appeal are as follows:
1. If the appeals officer determines that new evidence should be considered, it will return the complaint to the original Hearing Officer to reconsider in light of the new evidence, only. The reconsideration of the Hearing Officer is not appealable.
 2. If the appeals officer determines that a material procedural [or substantive] error occurred, it may return the complaint to the original Hearing Officer with instructions to reconvene to cure the error. In rare cases, where the procedural [or substantive] error cannot be cured by the original Hearing Officer (as in cases of bias), the appeals officer may order a new hearing on the complaint with a new hearing officer. The results of a reconvened hearing cannot be appealed. The results of a new hearing can be appealed, once, on the four applicable grounds for appeals.

3. If the appeals officer determines that the sanctions imposed are disproportionate to the severity of the violation, the appeals officer will return the complaint to the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct, which may then increase, decrease, or otherwise modify the sanctions; this decision is final.

The procedures governing the hearing of appeals include the following:

1. All parties should be informed of the status of the requests for the appeal, the status of the appeal consideration, and the results of the appeal decision;
2. Every opportunity to return the appeal to the original hearing officer for reconsideration (remand) should be pursued;
3. Appeals are not intended to be full rehearing of the complaint (de novo). In most cases, appeals are confined to a review of the written documentation or record of the original hearing, and pertinent documentation regarding the grounds for appeal;
4. This is not an opportunity for appeals officers to substitute their judgment for that of the original hearing officer merely because they disagree with its finding and/or sanctions. Appeal decisions are to be deferential to the original Hearing Officer—making changes to the finding only where there is clear error and to the sanction only if there is a compelling justification to do so;
5. Sanctions imposed are implemented immediately unless the Director of Community Standards and Student Conduct stays their implementation in extraordinary circumstances, pending the outcome of the appeal.

6. The Appeals Officer will render a written decision on the appeal to all parties within seven (7) business days* from hearing of the appeal. The Appeals Officer's decision to deny appeal requests is final.

SEXUAL MISCONDUCT STUDENT SANCTION STATEMENT

Any student found responsible for violating the Code as it relates to sexual misconduct (where no intercourse has occurred) will likely receive a sanction ranging from probation to expulsion, depending on the severity of the incident, and taking into account any previous campus conduct code violations.

Any student found responsible for violating the Code where intercourse has occurred will likely face a recommended sanction of suspension or expulsion.

Any student found responsible for violating the policy on sexual exploitation or sexual harassment will likely receive recommended sanction ranging from warning to expulsion, depending on the severity of the incident, and taking into account any previous campus conduct code violations.

The hearing officer reserves the right to broaden or lessen any range of recommended sanctions in the case of serious mitigating circumstances or egregiously offensive behavior. Neither the initial hearing officers nor conduct officers will deviate from the range of recommended sanctions unless compelling justification exists to do so.

GENDER BASED DISCRIMINATION, HARASSMENT, AND SEXUAL MISCONDUCT PROCESS FOR EMPLOYEES

The University does not permit discrimination or harassment in our programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, age, religion, or any other characteristic protected by institutional policy or state, local, or federal law. Kean University community members who believe they have been subjected to discrimination or harassment in violation of this policy should follow the procedure outlined in this Code to report these concerns.

This process involves an immediate review of the complaint. If necessary, the University will initiate a prompt, thorough and impartial investigation.

Kean community members who wish to report a concern or complaint relating to discrimination or harassment may do so by reporting the concern to the University Title IX Coordinator:

Dr. Charlie Williams, Director
Affirmative Action Programs
Townsend Hall, Room 133
(908) 737-3330

Individuals with complaints of this nature have the right to file a formal complaint with the United States Department Education,

Office for Civil Rights. The on-line complaint process for the Office of Civil Rights is available at www.ed.gov/ocr.

FORMAL GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES FOR EMPLOYEES

Notice of a formal complaint can be made in person or orally to an appropriate official, but the University strongly encourages submission of grievances—in writing, by email attachment as a MS Word or PDF document—to Dr. Charlie Williams, Director, Affirmative Action Programs.

The grievance should clearly and concisely describe the alleged incident(s), when and where it occurred, and the desired remedy sought. The grievance should be signed by the initiator or, in the case of an email submission, sent as an email attachment, in letter format and should contain the name and all contact information for the grievant. Any supporting documentation and evidence should be referenced within the body of the formal grievance. Additionally, the initiator of a formal grievance should submit any supporting materials in writing as quickly as is practicable.

The grievant's supporting documentation should clearly demonstrate all informal efforts, if any, to resolve the issue(s) with the person involved and the person's supervisor. This includes names, dates and times of attempted or actual contact along with a description of the discussion and the manner of communication made in the course of each effort. If contacting the person involved and/or the supervisor is impracticable, the grievant should state the reasons why. Additional information regarding the employee grievance process, including the discrimination complaint processing form, can be found at <http://www.kean.edu/offices/affirmative-action>.

KEAN UNIVERSITY VAWA PREVENTION AND AWARENESS PROGRAMMING

Kean University does not tolerate gender based harassment or sexual misconduct- in any form- on its campus. As part of its commitment to eradicating gender based harassment and sexual misconduct on campus, Kean University provides annual education, training and programming to all students, faculty and staff, with a specific emphasis on Kean specific resources and prevention and response strategies. Training and programmatic efforts target specifically identified concerns within the Kean community and the nation at large.

STUDENT EDUCATION AND TRAINING

THINK ABOUT IT: Think About It, created by Everfi, is a confidential, non-judgmental substance and sexual abuse education program that prepares students to prevent and confront issues of relationship violence and sexual misconduct. This on-line module examines Kean University policies prohibiting sexual misconduct, identifies available resources within the Kean community and the state of New Jersey, and explores the meaning of consent. All Student Affairs student employees were required to complete the Think About It module prior to the start of the fall semester. Further, all first year students received the Think About It module in September 2016 and February 2017 as part of their GE 1000 (Transition to Kean) requirements.

Student Affairs Student Employee Sexual Misconduct Orientation Training: In addition to requiring completion of the Think About It online module, the Student Affairs Division provided student employees training in sexual misconduct awareness and response prior to the start of the academic year in August 2016 as part of the divisional orientation. The training focused on Kean specific policies and procedures, with a particular emphasis on confidentiality, the duty to report, and available campus and community resources.

TRANSITION TO KEAN (T2K) Wellness Workshops: As part of the GE 1000 Transition to Kean (T2K) course requirement, Wellness Workshops were offered to all incoming freshmen students during the 2016- 2017 academic year. The Wellness Workshops were the coordinated effort of Kean Counseling, the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct and the Kean Department of Public Safety and Police to inform students of the resources, policies and procedures regarding student safety and well-being, including those in relation to sexual misconduct. Data collected through post workshop surveys indicated that students felt that the workshops presented useful safety and resource information. As a result, the accessibility of the Wellness Workshops will continue the next academic year. It is anticipated that the workshops will expand to reach a greater audience of Kean students, including transfer students, by way of increased presentation opportunities and archived presentation video.

STEP UP Bystander Intervention Training: STEP UP is a pro social behavior and bystander intervention program that educates students to be proactive in helping others. Teaching students about the determinants of pro-social behavior makes them more likely to help in the future. The Step UP program was presented to all Student Affairs student employees in August 2016. Additionally, the STEP UP program was provided to Greek students during their orientation in September 2016. STEP UP will continue to expand to reach student leaders during the next academic year. More information on the STEP UP program can be found at <http://stepupprogram.org/>.

Orientation Programming on Sexual Assault: The National Center for Higher Education Risk Management (NCHERM) provided all first-year residential students with a two hour sexual misconduct awareness program in August 29, 2016. The program highlighted risk reduction strategies, Kean specific policies and resources, and national trends.

Residence Hall Programming: Residential Student Services provided a variety of programming that focused on sexual misconduct awareness and response, such as There's No Excuse for Domestic Violence, throughout the 2016- 2017 academic year. Residence hall programs were followed by a survey to assess student satisfaction and learning.

FACULTY AND PROFESSIONAL STAFF EDUCATION AND TRAINING

BRIDGES: On February 10, 2017, full-time faculty and staff received online training about sexual assault legislative mandates, prevention, and response, with a particular emphasis on the role of faculty and staff as mandated reporters. Additionally, the Bridges module, created by Everfi Corporate Compliance, highlighted Kean specific policy and resource information.

Adjunct Faculty Title IX and Clery Act Training: Part of the affirmative action training available to all adjunct faculty on August 29, 2016 included a presentation highlighting Kean University policies and procedures relating to Title IX and the Clery Act, focusing on identification of resources within the campus community and reporting obligations.

New Faculty Resource Folders: Folders highlighting Kean University policies and resources relating to Title IX were provided to all new faculty as part of the orientation process on August 29, 2016. This folder provides an easily accessible tool to help new faculty navigate the Kean University community through the inclusion of key contact information for University officials who can answer concerns relating to sexual misconduct, relationship violence, and/or student wellness.

A Resource Guide on Sexual Misconduct: Approximately 4,000 copies of A Resource Guide for Students on Sexual Misconduct: Campus Policies, Procedures and Victim Services were distributed throughout the Kean campus community on January 18, 2017. This publication provides Kean specific policy and resource information in student-friendly language.

Sexual Assault Victim Advocate Training: Student Affairs professional staff members attended the Association for Title IX Administrator's (ATIXA's) Sexual Assault Victim Advocate training on October 25-25, 2016. This training directly influenced the creation of the Student Support Services Advocate position at Kean University to help both reporting and responding parties navigate institutional policies and processes relating to sexual misconduct, relationship violence and stalking.

Title IX Investigator Training: Saunie Shuster of the National Center for Higher Education Risk Management (NCHERM) visited Kean campus to provide on-site consultation and hearing officer training to Title IX deputies. The training focused on Kean policies and procedures, investigation techniques specific to sexual misconduct incidents, and decision letter writing.

On-Site Sexual Assault Hearing Officer Training: On April 26, 2016, the National Center for Higher Education Risk Management (NCHERM) delivered in-person training for hearing officers specific to the policies and procedures of Kean University's Code of Student Conduct. Additional expert training on the investigation, response and remediation of sexual misconduct on campus was provided to sexual misconduct hearing officers in a separate on-site session.

Mandatory NCHERM Professional Development Sexual Misconduct Seminars: On January 11, 2017, Brett Sokolov of the National Center for Higher Education Risk Management (NCHERM) provided two on-site professional development sessions for professional staff outlining legislative mandates and the role of professional staff in meeting said mandates in relation to sexual misconduct at Kean University. More than 650 full-time staff members attended one of the mandatory training sessions.

CSA On-Line Training Module: On January 18, 2017, an on-line module was provided to designated Campus Security Authorities (CSAs) to explain their role and responsibilities at Kean University under the Clery Act. Confidentiality and the legal duty to report were emphasized.

CAMPUS-WIDE PROGRAMMATIC EVENTS

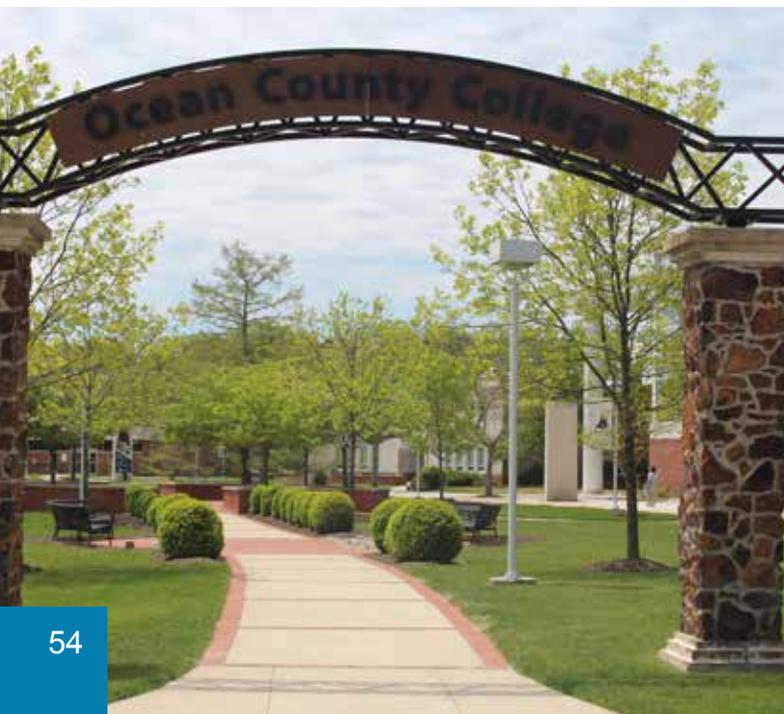

It's On Us: As part of the national It's On Us campaign launched by the White House, the Center for Leadership and Service at Kean University worked with students to create and showcase videos highlighting the community's commitment to raising awareness and ending sexual misconduct in October 2016. These videos are accessible at <http://www.kean.edu/policies/sexual-assault-misconduct-violence>.

Pledge to End Domestic Violence: As part of Kean University's homecoming events on October 16, 2016, students participated in the Pledge to End Domestic Violence. By signing this pledge, students promised to work together with the Kean community to end domestic violence and support survivors.

Empty Place at the Table: On October 27, 2016, Kean University, in collaboration with the Union YMCA, hosted an Empty Place at the Table, as a visceral illustration of the real life consequences of domestic violence in our community.

Sexual Misconduct Tabling Events: The Miron Student Center, a central campus location, housed tabling events and activities designed to raise awareness regarding sexual misconduct, relationship violence, and stalking during the It's On Us Week of Action, October 24-28, 2016.

The above list is not comprehensive; Additional programs and events targeted at ending sexual misconduct, stalking and intimate partner violence were held during the 2016-2017 academic year.*

SECTION 3: UNIVERSITY POLICIES

UNIVERSITY STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT PROCEEDINGS

I. STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Kean University is committed to providing a campus environment that is conducive to academic inquiry in the university tradition. Kean is a metropolitan, comprehensive, teaching university that exists to foster inquiry and public discourse. It is also a community. At Kean, student members of the community are expected to abide by certain standards of conduct that form the basis of the Student Code of Conduct [Code] and ensure that their guests and visitors do likewise. These standards are embodied within a set of core values that include integrity, fairness, respect, community, and responsibility. When students fail to adhere to the community standards, appropriate proceedings may be initiated under the Code to address the failure and its consequences.

DEFINITION OF A STUDENT

For the purposes of enforcing the Code, students are defined as persons who have accepted an offer of admission and who have a continuing relationship with the University, including taking courses at the University, both full-time and part-time, pursuing undergraduate, graduate, professional studies, or continuing education. The Code remains in effect at all Kean University campuses including Union, Kean Ocean and Wenzhou-Kean, as well as at off-campus sites or on the Internet. In addition, a University-recognized student organization is defined as any group of Kean students meeting the criteria for group registration or recognition established by the Vice President for Student Affairs.

The Vice President for Student Affairs is responsible for overseeing processes related to the implementation of the Code.

II. THE STUDENT CONDUCT PROCESS UPHOLDS COMMUNITY VALUES

The student conduct process at Kean is intended to protect the interests of all members of the campus community and appropriately address conduct not in accord with the Code. Remedies and sanctions are intended to contribute to the development of student decision-making and to help them bring student behavior into accord with community values. When a student does not conform his/her behavior to community expectations, the student may be subject to appropriate remedies and sanctions including, but not limited to, restriction or loss of the privilege of participating in this community. The student conduct process is different from criminal and civil court proceedings. Procedures and rights in student conduct proceedings are conducted with fairness to all, but do not necessarily include the same process afforded by the courts.

III. JURISDICTION OVER STUDENT CONDUCT

Students at Kean University are annually provided notification that explains how they may access the Code on the University Web site (www.kean.edu/policies or www.kean.edu/offices/community-standards-student-conduct). The printed document is also available in the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs (Kean Hall, Room 124), the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct (Miron Student Center, Room 317) and at Wenzhou Kean, D203 in the General Education Hall.. Students are charged with the responsibility to read and to abide by the provisions of the Code and the authority of the student conduct process. The Code and the student conduct process apply to the conduct of individual students and University-recognized student organizations. Because the Code is based on shared values, it sets a range of expectations for the Kean student no matter where or when their conduct may take place. Therefore, the Code applies to conduct that takes place on the campus, at University-sponsored events, and off-campus, when the administration determines that the off campus conduct affects a substantial University interest. A substantial University interest is defined to include:

- Constitutes a violation of local, state or federal law, including violations of any law or regulation of Wenzhou and/or the People's Republic of China. Included are repeat violations of any local, state or federal law committed in the municipality where the University is located.
- Indicates that the student may present a danger or threat to the health or safety of him/herself or others.
- Significantly impinges upon the rights, property or achievements of self or others or significantly breaches the peace and/or causes social disorder.
- Is detrimental to the educational interests of the University.

The Code may be applied to conduct that takes place during the time a person is enrolled as a student, including during intra-semester breaks and between semesters. Further, the Code applies to guests of community members whose hosts may be held accountable for the misconduct of their guests and to visitors to the Kean campus. Sanctions for violations by visitors and guests may include but not be limited to a warning, Campus-Wide and Residence Life No Trespass and referral to the Department of Public Safety and Police. Visitors to and guests of the University are also protected by the Code, and may initiate grievances for violations of the Code committed by members of the University community against them. The University may address misconduct that occurs prior to, but is not reported until after, the graduation of the offending student, as long as the misconduct is reported within six months of its occurrence. Otherwise, there is no time limit on reporting of violations of the Code, as long as the offending student is still enrolled at the University. Those who are aware of misconduct are encouraged to report it as quickly as possible to the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct.

IV. VIOLATIONS OF THE LAW

Violations of federal, state, and local laws are offenses under the Code even where those violations are not explicitly prohibited by this Code, including violations of any law or regulation of Wenzhou and/or the People's Republic of China. Where such offenses occur off campus, the University may institute conduct proceedings that affect a substantial university interest, at the discretion of the director of Community Standards and Student Conduct. The University may institute conduct proceedings against a student charged with violation of federal, state, or local laws without regard to the existence or possibility of civil or criminal legal proceedings. It is the policy of the University typically to pursue the conduct process in a timely manner through its conduct proceedings, rather than to delay campus proceedings for external criminal and/or civil proceedings arising from the same misconduct.

V. SPECIAL PROVISIONS

ATTEMPTED VIOLATIONS

In most circumstances, Kean University will treat attempts to commit any of the violations listed in the Student Code of Conduct as if those attempts had been completed.

COLLEGE AS COMPLAINANT

As necessary, Kean University reserves the right to initiate a complaint, to serve as complainant, and to initiate conduct proceedings without a formal complaint of misconduct.

FALSE REPORTS

Kean University will not tolerate intentional false reporting of incidents. It is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct to make an intentionally false report of any policy violation, and it may also violate state criminal statutes and civil defamation laws.

GROUP VIOLATIONS

When members of groups, individuals acting collusively, or members of an organization act in concert in violation of any policy, they may be held accountable as a group, and a hearing may proceed against the group as jointly accused students. In any such action, however, determinations will be made with respect to the involvement of each accused individual.

IMMUNITY FOR REPORTING PARTY

Kean University encourages the reporting of conduct code violations and crimes by reporting parties. Sometimes reporting parties are hesitant to report to University officials because they fear that they themselves may be accused of policy violations, such as underage drinking at the time of the incident. It is in the best interests of this community that as many reporting parties as possible choose to report to University officials. To encourage reporting, Kean University pursues a policy of offering reporting parties of crimes and severe conduct offenses amnesty from policy violations related to the incident.

MEDICAL AMNESTY/GOOD SAMARITAN

1. Philosophy

Kean University remains committed to ensuring the health, safety and well-being of its community. As such, the University recognizes that there may be health or safety emergencies related to alcohol consumption or the use of other substances in which fear of student conduct or disciplinary action may serve as a deterrent to students who want to seek help for themselves or others. Kean University wants to make certain that students do not hesitate to seek help when faced with life threatening or critical substance related emergencies. In these circumstances, the University's response will focus on education and prevention rather than on disciplinary action. Additional associated student conduct violations that threaten the health, safety and well-being of the community may be addressed on a case by case basis as determined appropriate by the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct or designee.

2. Procedures

- a. Students who seek emergency medical assistance for themselves or for whom medical assistance was sought related to consumption of alcohol and/or drug overdose will not be charged with violations of the Kean University Code of Conduct associated with that action (specifically: Section VI., Letter E. 5 & 6 and/or RSS policy numbers 11 & 12), provided they comply with the following conditions:
 1. The student subsequently completes a screening at the Counseling Center and follows through with recommendations, which may include a more comprehensive evaluation from an outside agency or Choice program.
 2. This follow-up must be completed within the time frame determined by the University.
 3. Failure to complete this screening/evaluation/treatment may result in student conduct charges being filed with the Office of Community Standards Student Conduct.
- b. In order for Medical Amnesty/Good Samaritan to apply to students who seek emergency medical assistance for someone else, the students must communicate the substance related emergency directly to emergency medical services, 9-1-1, or to a University authority such as a Resident Assistant. The student must also remain with the individual until the emergency personnel arrive and cooperate with all emergency personnel requests for information and assistance. If the conditions for Medical Amnesty/Good Samaritan are met, the students will not be charged with violations of the Kean University Code of Conduct related to consumption of alcohol, alcohol intoxication, and/or drug use (specifically: Section VI., Letter E. 5 & 6 and/or RSS policy numbers 11 & 12 respectively), provided that the student subsequently participates in a meeting with and complies with all recommended stipulations established by the Director of Community Standards and Student Conduct.
- c. Student organizations who wish to employ Medical Amnesty/Good Samaritan will be determined on a case-by-case basis.
- d. Medical Amnesty/Good Samaritan applies only to those students or organizations who seek emergency medical assistance in connection with alcohol or drug overdose and does not apply to individuals experiencing an alcohol medical emergency who are found by University employees. (i.e. University Police, faculty, administrative staff, residence hall directors, resident assistants, community assistants, security staff, etc...)

- e. Medical Amnesty/Good Samaritan is not intended to shield or protect those students or organizations that repeatedly violate the Code of Conduct. In cases where repeated violations of the Kean University Code of Conduct occur, the University reserves the right to take disciplinary action on a case by case basis regardless of the manner in which the incident is reported. Additionally the University reserves the right to adjudicate any case in which the violations are determined by the University in its sole discretion to be egregious.
- f. The Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct reserves the right to contact any student to discuss an incident whether or not Medical Amnesty/Good Samaritan is in effect.
- g. Information concerning students who utilize Medical Amnesty/Good Samaritan is confidential, but will be recorded for case management purposes.
- h. Medical Amnesty/Good Samaritan does not preclude students from being held responsible for other violations of the Code of Conduct.
- i. Under Kean University's Parental Notification Policy, parents may be notified about incidents involving medical amnesty as determined to be appropriate by the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct or designee.

Revised August 2017

(Note: These procedures only provide amnesty from violations of the Kean University Student Code of Conduct. It does not grant forgiveness for criminal, civil, or legal consequences for violations of Federal, State, or Local law. However, the "911 Lifeline Legislation" approved on October 1, 2009, P.L.2009, c.133 does allow for underage individuals to receive amnesty in accordance with the provisions of the law. Individuals must stay on scene and assist responders with information concerning the at-risk individual to comply with the law. Further, Good Samaritan Emergency Response Act, approved on May 2, 2013 (A578/S851), allows for the same regarding drug overdoses.)

Adopted on 6/21/2016

PARENTAL NOTIFICATION

Kean University reserves the right to notify parents/guardians of dependent students regarding any conduct situation, particularly alcohol and other drug violations. The college may also notify parents/guardians of non-dependent students who are under age 21 of alcohol and/or drug policy violations. Where a student is not-dependent, Kean University will contact parents/guardians to inform them of situations in which there is a health and/or safety risk. Kean University also reserves the right to designate which University officials have a need to know about individual conduct complaints pursuant to the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA).

NOTIFICATION OF OUTCOMES

The outcome of a campus hearing is part of the educational record of the accused student, and is protected from release under the federal FERPA law. However, Kean University observes the legal exceptions as follows:

Reporting parties in sexual misconduct, sexual harassment, and any other incidents falling under Title IX have an absolute right to be informed of the outcome and sanctions of the hearing, and the rationale for the decision, in writing, without condition or limitation.

The University may release publicly the name, nature of the violation and the sanction for any student who is found in violation of a University policy that is a "crime of violence," including: arson, burglary, robbery, criminal homicide, sex offenses, assault, destruction/damage/vandalism of property and kidnapping/abduction. The University also will release this information to the reporting party in any of these offenses regardless of the outcome.

DEFENSES

It has become common for students accused of policy violations to try to defend their actions with excuses, such as prescription drug interactions, self-defense, disabilities, etc. The University's policy on defenses is clear. Defending your actions is admitting to a policy violation. "Yes, we fought, but he started it." This still means you had a fight, and that violates the rules. You may have taken someone's property under the influence of an anti-depressant, but you still took someone else's property. While your defense will not excuse your actions, Kean University will take into consideration the legitimacy of your defense in addressing the proper sanction. If you were not the aggressor in a fight, you will still be sanctioned, but your sanction may be less than the sanction of the person who started the fight.

MISCONDUCT ONLINE

Students are cautioned that behavior conducted online such as harassment delivered by email can subject them to a University conduct action. Students must also be aware that blogs, webpages, Google+, Twitter, Facebook entries, and similar online postings are in the public sphere and are not private. These postings can subject a student to allegations of conduct violations if evidence of policy violations is posted online. The University does not regularly seek this information, but will take action if and when such information is brought to the attention of University officials.

VI. OFFENSES UNDER THE CODE

A. INTEGRITY

Kean University students exemplify honesty, integrity, and a respect for truth in all of their dealings. Behavior that demonstrates a lapse of integrity includes, but is not limited to:

1. Acts of dishonesty
 - a. Furnishing false information to any Kean University official, faculty member or office
 - b. Forgery, alteration, or misuse of any Kean University document, record, or instrument of identification
 - c. Tampering with the election of any Kean University registered student organization
 - d. Causing, condoning, or encouraging the completion of any Kean University record, document or form dishonestly
 - e. Initiating a false report or warning of fire, explosion, bomb threat, or other emergency
 - f. Deception – to defraud, lie, or scam to receive something of value or to mischaracterize so as to give a false belief or conclusion about something in a way that is harmful to another
 - g. Knowingly presenting a worthless check or forging a money order in payment to Kean University or to a member of the Kean University community acting in an official capacity, or failure to make satisfactory arrangement for the settling of accounts with Kean University;
2. Violations of positions of trust or authority (i.e., student employee, student leader, student athlete, student volunteer) within the community;
3. Misuse or unauthorized use of Kean University and/or organizational names and images; all Kean University sponsored activities must be sanctioned through appropriate administrative process; all Kean University representation must be approved by the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs or the appropriate designee;

Consent

- Informed, active and voluntary permission for specific sexual activity.
- Silence or lack of protest cannot be interpreted as consent
- Consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create mutually understandable permission regarding the conditions of sexual activity

4. Intentional and unauthorized taking of the property of the University or personal property of a member of the University community including, without limitation:
 - a. Knowingly possessing stolen property
 - b. Selling or attempting to sell textbooks unless the seller is the owner of the textbook or has the permission of the owner to do so
 - c. Taking, attempting to take, or keeping items belonging to the library or items placed in the library for display

B. FAIRNESS

Kean University students honor fairness and strive for fairness in all their dealings and interactions. Behavior that relates this value includes but is not limited to:

1. Obstruction of freedom of movement by community members or visitors
2. Abuse, interference, or failing to comply in Kean University processes including Conduct and Academic Integrity hearings;
3. Abuse of the campus conduct system, including:
 - a. Failure to attend meetings scheduled for conduct code administration purposes;
 - b. Falsification, distortion, or misrepresentation of information;
 - c. Failure to provide, destroying, omitting, or hiding information during an investigation of an alleged policy violation;
 - d. Attempting to discourage an individual's participation in, or use of, the campus conduct system;
 - e. Harassment (verbal or physical) and/or intimidation of a member of a campus conduct body prior to, during, and/or after a campus conduct proceeding;
 - f. Failure to comply with the sanction(s) imposed by the campus conduct system;
 - g. Failure to respect the dignity and privacy of fellow Kean community members by disclosing confidential information obtained during participation in a student conduct proceeding;
 - h. Influencing or attempting to influence (i.e., texting, calling, email, skypeing) another person to commit an abuse of the campus conduct system.

C. COMMUNITY

Kean University students honor and value their community. Behavior that violates this value includes, but is not limited to:

1. Misuse of access privileges to University premises or unauthorized entry to or use of buildings, including trespass
 - a. Unauthorized or attempted entry into any building, office, construction site, or other Kean University facility
 - b. Unauthorized possession, use, or duplication of keys or other methods of controlled access such as

- ID or access cards or key codes
2. Damage to or littering Kean University grounds and/or properties owned or leased by registered student organizations
 - a. Driving motor vehicles on lawn or grounds without permission
 - b. Failure to clean up sidewalk chalk following an authorized student event
 - c. Failure to maintain an organization's facilities and/or surrounding property
 - d. Vandalism, the causing of intentional damage to the property of another or to Kean University
 - e. Damaging items rented, leased, or placed on the campus at the request of Kean University
3. Substantial disruption to or unreasonable interference with University operations, teaching, research, administration, other Kean University activities, including its public service functions on or off campus, or of other authorized non-Kean University activities when the conduct occurs on Kean University or leased premises.
 - a. Unruly classroom behavior that impedes instructional pedagogy
 - b. Obstruction of the free flow of pedestrian or vehicular traffic on Kean University premises or at Kean University sponsored or supervised functions.
 - c. Participating, leading, or inciting an on-campus or off-campus demonstration, riot, or activity that substantially and/or unreasonably disrupts or interferes with the normal operations of Kean University and/or infringes on the rights of other members of the Kean University community;
 - d. Failure to follow University special event policies and procedures for University events held on or off-campus.
4. Inappropriate use of resources as stated in Policy on Information Technology, including misuse of Kean University computing facilities, equipment, network, passwords, accounts or information. Students who connect their personal computers to the campus network will be held responsible for any violation of this policy that originates from that computer. Examples of misuse include:
 - a. Use of computing facilities to send harassing or abusive messages;
 - b. Use of computing facilities to interfere with the work of other community members;
 - c. Unauthorized access to a file or personal or group account;
 - d. Use of computing facilities to interfere with normal operation of the Kean University computer system;
 - e. Anonymous or forged network news articles or E-mail messages;
 - f. Disk usage over the allotted limit without prior approval;
 - g. Unauthorized transfer of a file;
 - h. Unauthorized use of another individual's identification, username, and password.

- i. Making copies of copyrighted computer software when no written authority to copy the software has been granted;
5. Possession of firearms, explosives, other weapons (including, but not limited to BB/pellet guns, slingshots, and sharp edged instruments, such as hatchets when used as weapons), or dangerous chemicals while on campus, unless properly authorized;
6. Having animals on campus except service animals and those that may be required for class unless otherwise approved through the Office of Disability Services.

D. RESPECT

Kean University students show respect for each other, for property and for the community. Behavior that violates this value includes, but is not limited to:

1. Threatening, intimidation, or severe verbal or physical abuse.
2. Assault or other conduct which threatens or endangers the health or safety of any person; and/or any conduct which is marked by utter thoughtlessness or disregard for oneself or others and provides a substantial risk to persons or property;
3. Bullying, defined as gestures or written, verbal, electronic, or physical acts that a reasonable person should know will cause physical and/or emotional harm of fear of harm to one or more individuals, often involving an imbalance of physical, psychological, and/or social power, occurring usually, but not necessarily, repeatedly and over time, and which is not speech or conduct protected by the First Amendment;
4. Intimidation (implied threats) or coercion (pressuring another unreasonably until an act is not truly voluntary);
5. Discriminatory harassment, including speech, actions, or conduct which have the effect of depriving a member of the community of educational or employment access, enjoyment, benefits, or opportunities. Merely offensive or annoying behavior may feel like harassment, but to rise to the level of a Code violation, harassment must have the potential to cause a deprivation of the civil rights of a member of a protected class; Protected classes at Kean University include gender, race, color, religion, age, national origin, ethnicity, disability, veteran's status, sexual orientation, and pregnancy status.
6. Hazing, defined as behavior that endangers the mental or physical health of a student as a condition for initial or continued affiliation with any group regardless of either the lack of intent to endanger the student or the student's own willingness to participate. The express or implied consent of the reporting party will not be a defense. Apathy or acquiescence in the presence of hazing are not neutral acts; they are violations of this rule;
7. Domestic Violence such as actual threat or threatened physical harm or the infliction of fear of imminent physical harm upon a family member, significant other, household member, or resident sharing a room; violence between those in an intimate relationship to each other;

8. Stalking, defined as repetitive and/or menacing pursuit, following, harassment and/or interference with the peace and/or safety of another.
9. Sexual misconduct, including:
 - a. sexual harassment – sex or gender-based verbal or physical conduct that unreasonably interferes with or deprives someone of educational access, benefits, or opportunities
 - b. non-consensual sexual contact
Any intentional sexual touching
However slight,
With any object
By a person upon another person
That is without consent and/or by force*
 - c. non-consensual sexual intercourse
Any sexual intercourse (anal, oral, or vaginal)
However slight
With any object
By a person upon another person
That is without consent and/or by force*

Consent Defined

Consent is informed, active and voluntary permission for specific sexual activity. Silence, in and of itself, cannot be interpreted as consent. Consent can be given by words or actions, as long as those words or actions create mutually understandable permission regarding the conditions of sexual activity.

Consent to any one form of sexual activity cannot automatically imply consent to any other forms of sexual activity.

Previous relationships or prior consent cannot imply consent to future sexual acts.

- d. Sexual exploitation – occurs when a student takes non-consensual or abusive sexual advantage of another for his/her own advantage or benefit, or to benefit or advantage anyone other than the one being exploited, and that behavior does not otherwise constitute one of other sexual misconduct offenses. Examples of sexual exploitation include, but are not limited to:
 - i. Prostituting another student
 - ii. Non-consensual video or audio-taping of sexual activity
 - iii. Going beyond the boundaries of consent (such as letting your friends hide in the closet to watch you having consensual sex)
 - iv. Engaging in voyeurism
 - v. Knowingly transmitting an STI or HIV to another student
10. Lewd or obscene conduct
 - a. Public urination
 - b. Sexual acts performed in public
 - c. Surreptitiously taking pictures and /or videos of another person in a gym, locker room, or restroom, residence halls, etc.
 - d. Streaking
 - e. Possession or distribution of child pornography
 - f. Possession or distribution of any obscene materials, as defined by the standards of the Kean University community.
11. Failure to comply with directions of University officials or law-enforcement officers during the performance of their duties and/or failure to identify oneself to these persons when requested to do so
12. Failure or refusal to produce a University identification card upon demand by a security officer or other official of the University acting on his/her official capacity or an officer of the law
13. Smoking in any University building or areas designated as non smoking within three feet of an entrance/exit location.
14. Inappropriate conduct
 3. Action or inaction by a student which fails to discourage a known and obvious violation of Kean University policy or law; assisting in violation of Kean University policies or public laws.
 4. The knowing failure of any organized group to exercise preventive measures relative to violations of this Student Code of Conduct by members;
 5. Use, possession, manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, distribution, or being in the presence of alcoholic beverages except as expressly permitted by law and the University's Alcohol Policy. This includes possession/consumption by those under the age of 21, providing alcohol to those under the age of 21, driving under the influence, and public intoxication by persons of any age. For the purposes of the Code, distribution is determined by the quantity of alcohol and /or means of distribution. Please see the full policy on alcohol use in the Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report.
 6. Use, possession, manufacture, sale, purchase, transportation, distribution, or being in the presence of a narcotic, or other controlled dangerous substances, as well as drug paraphernalia. Abuse, misuse, or distribution of prescriptions medications, drugs or over-the-counter medications, except as expressly permitted by law. For the purposes of the Code, distribution is determined by the quantity of drugs, means, and materials for distribution. Please see the full policy on illicit drugs in the Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report.
 7. Gambling, except as permitted by New Jersey law and/or regulation of Wenzhou and/or the People's Republic of China;
 8. Operating a business. State property or facilities may not be used for personal profit, sale, and/or solicitation. Use of any facilities is prohibited unless participating in a University sanctioned event. This includes, but is not limited to, the commercialization of rooms, the use of any space for gambling, or to solicit students or patrons for private businesses.

E. RESPONSIBILITY

Kean University students are given and accept a high level of responsibility as role models. Behavior that violates this value includes, but is not limited to:

1. Intentionally or carelessly causing a fire which damages Kean University or personal property or which causes injury to any member of the community;
2. Failure to follow fire safety procedures
 - a. Failure to evacuate a building when the fire alarm sounds
 - b. Misusing, damaging, or tampering with fire safety equipment
 - c. Intentionally or recklessly obstructing a fire exit in any Kean University building

9. Violation of any Kean University policy, rule, or regulation published in hard copy or available electronically on the Kean University website.
10. Any allegation of violation of federal, state, or local laws.

VII. STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT PROCESS AND PROCEDURES

GENERAL PROCESS

A complaint against a student for violations of the Code may be made in writing or in person by anyone who feels the Code has been violated. A complaint should be made as soon as possible following the incident. A Complaint Form is available in the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct and on-line at www.kean.edu/offices/community-standards-student-conduct. The reporting party should include as much detail of the alleged violation as possible and to the degree possible include specific references to that part of the Code that pertains to the complaint.

A written complaint should include the reporting party's name, address and telephone number and as much information as is known about the person accused. If there are any witnesses, their names and addresses should also be provided if known; as much detail as possible should be provided. In exceptional circumstances, provisions may be made to protect the identity of reporters and/or witnesses upon request.

INITIAL INVESTIGATION

Upon receipt of a complaint or University police report, the conduct administrator of the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct will inquire as to the circumstances surrounding the event in question to determine whether there are sufficient grounds to believe that a violation of the Code occurred.

1. The conduct administrator will schedule conferences and obtain a written statement from the reporting party, responding party, witnesses and/or other persons directly involved in the incident.
2. Based upon the sufficiency of the complaint or report filed, the conduct administrator or designee may investigate the circumstances surrounding the incident in question and determine whether it warrants a Student Conduct Conference, a Student Conduct Hearing, or referral to the appropriate student conduct process within the University. If the director determines the complaint does not warrant further action, the matter will be closed. Such determinations are appropriate where the complained conduct does not violate the Code, and/or when there is insufficient evidence to support a reasonable belief that the Code has been violated.
3. Interim Suspension
Pending the completion of the conduct administrator's investigation and subsequent hearing process, the Vice President for Student Affairs, or designee, is authorized to place an accused student on interim suspension for reasons related to his or her physical or emotional safety and well-being, to protect the integrity of the investigation and/or for reasons relating to the safety and well-being of students, faculty, staff, or University property. In some cases, the accused student may be permitted to attend classes but be suspended from all other campus activities. This determination will be made by the Vice President based upon his/her knowledge of the potential threat posed by the accused student's presence on campus. Whenever such action is taken, a Student Conduct Hearing will be convened within ten (10) business days unless an extension is agreed upon. The Student Conduct Hearing process is outlined below. At the time of an interim suspension, a Temporary Campus-Wide Notice of No Trespass or Temporary Residence Life Notice of No Trespass may be issued. These documents identify campus locations and events as off limits to the accused student until further notice.

Subject to the availability of the accused student, the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee will conduct a Student Conduct Conference prior to imposing an interim suspension. If the student is not available, an interim suspension may be imposed until such time as the accused student becomes available. At the Student Conduct Conference, the accused student will be given the opportunity to demonstrate to the Vice President for Student Affairs or designee a compelling reason (e.g. mistaken identity) why he/she should not be interim suspended pending a Student Conduct Hearing.

4. No-Contact Order

The Vice President for Student Affairs may impose a limited or campus-wide No-Contact Order on an accused student when the fear of retaliation and/or harassment may be present. Specific instructions will accompany the No-Contact Order outlining the expected behavior including face-to-face contact, correspondence, e-mail, instant message or telephone. Friends and relatives may also be prohibited from contact on behalf of the accused student.

NOTIFICATION

1. If the conduct administrator of the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct or designee determines there is reasonable cause to believe that a violation of the Code has occurred, the accused student will be notified in writing through Kean University email, within ten (10) business days of receipt of the complaint. The notification time may be longer if necessary to complete the investigation.
2. This written notice will include:
 - a. The complaint identifying sections of the Code at issue;
 - b. A link to the website location of the Code and procedures applicable to the complaint;
 - c. A request that the accused student provide a written explanation of the incident (if no prior statement was obtained);
 - d. The date, time, and location of a Student Conduct Conference.
3. If the responding party fails to meet with the conduct administrator after being properly notified, the case will be decided on the basis of information gathered by the conduct administrator.

STUDENT CONDUCT CONFERENCE

1. The conduct administrator of the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct or designee will conduct a Student Conduct Conference with the responding party.
2. At the Student Conduct Conference the responding party will:
 - a. Be informed of the information provided to date by the reporting party and other persons;
 - b. Be given an opportunity to raise questions and discuss the information;
 - c. Be given the opportunity to admit the allegations and accept responsibility for the violation(s);
 - d. Be given the opportunity to deny the allegations;
 - e. Be informed of the process and possible remedies and sanctions that may result.
3. As a result of the Student Conduct Conference, the conduct administrator of the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct or designee may:
 - a. Dismiss the complaint;
 - b. Refer the complaint to the Kean Counseling Center for appropriate follow up which may include mediation with the reporting party (not applied to sexual assaults or other acts of violence);
 - c. Refer the complaint to the appropriate administrative process within the University;
 - d. Resolve the complaint informally or impose a remedy and/or sanction that does not result in suspension or expulsion;

If the accused student does not agree with the decision made at the Student Conduct Conference, the student has the right to appeal the decision to the next level administrator within (5) five business days of receipt of the decision letter. The appeal process will be given in writing at the time of the decision letter.

- e. Determine that a Student Conduct Hearing is appropriate.

STUDENT CONDUCT HEARING

1. Notification of a Student Conduct Hearing will be provided by the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct to the reporting party and the responding party by email to the student's official @kean.edu account. All such notice is presumptively delivered whether the student reads their mail/email or not, as all students are required to regularly check their email accounts. The notice will include:
 2. The name of the reporting party;
 3. The nature of the alleged violations, including the specific code sections alleged to have been violated, applicable conduct procedures and the sanctions that may result;
 4. The time and place of the hearing. All Student Conduct Hearings will be scheduled during regular business hours (9 a.m. – 5 p.m.);
 5. The right to have witnesses. The University may arrange for witnesses to be present or assign to the reporting party and the responding party the responsibility to contact his/her witnesses and arrange for their participation. All student witnesses are asked to complete and sign a FERPA consent form. No less than 48 hours prior to the hearing, Both the reporting party and the responding party must provide a list of witness names and a statement of their witness' anticipated testimony; all witnesses must be confirmed by the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct no later than 48 hours prior to the hearing.
 6. The right to have an advisor. The advisor may not be a witness at the hearing or otherwise participate in the hearing;
 7. The right to present relevant information;
 8. The names of others who will be present at the hearing (if known), including the names of the hearing officers; and a copy of the procedure for challenging any of the hearing officers on the basis of partiality
 9. Notice that a Document File compiled by the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct with statements from the reporting party, responding party and witnesses and any other documentary information will be available to the responding party, the reporting party, and their advisors for review at least three (3) days prior to the Student Conduct Hearing. An appointment is required to review the Document File. Copies may be made available upon specific request.

HEARING OFFICERS

Student Conduct Hearings for violations of the Code will be conducted by a trained member(s) of the University faculty, staff, or consultant designated by the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct.

CONDUCT OF THE HEARING

The hearing will be closed to all members of the campus and outside community except those directly involved with the complaint. The reporting and responding party each have the right to be assisted by an advisor of their choice who is not a witness in the complaint. An advisor or legal counsel may be present to advise only and may not participate. Advisors who interfere with the proceedings can be excused by the hearing officer. An audio recording of the hearing is made and kept by the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct.

Only persons involved in the hearing process will be permitted in the vicinity of the hearing.

It is expected that participants and advisors will respect the dignity and privacy of Kean community members and keep private that which transpires during the hearing, in accordance with federal law.

Student witnesses, when called by the University on behalf of the reporting party, the responding party, or the University, are required to participate in the hearing process.

The hearing process will be conducted in the following manner:

1. All participants and advisors will be introduced to the hearing officer.
 2. All participants and advisors will be introduced to the audio technician.
 3. The hearing officer will recite the complaint against the student and all Code sections alleged to have been violated.
 4. The responding party will state whether he/she is responsible, not responsible, or responsible with an explanation for the alleged misconduct. Responsible with an explanation means the student admits to the actions but believes there were circumstances that should be taken into consideration by the hearing officer in the determination of this complaint.
 5. Statements regarding their respective positions may be given by the reporting party and the responding party. The Hearing Officer may place reasonable time limitations on the statements.
 6. The University reserves the right to assign a representative of the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct to present the complaint.
 7. Relevant records, documents, and written statements may be accepted and considered by the hearing officer.
 8. The reporting and responding party may be present throughout the entirety of the proceeding except for the deliberation phase. The reporting party, the responding party and the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct representative will be able to present witnesses who will be subject to questioning. Witnesses will be asked to remain until the end of the hearing in the event they must be called back for clarification of their testimony. In the event that a witness is unavailable, a signed statement from the witness may be admitted. Any such statements will be shared with the parties prior to the hearing, and the responding party will be given full opportunity to respond to the written statement at the hearing.
 9. Witnesses will appear separately and will leave the hearing room after their testimony is completed. Witnesses are not permitted to leave the vicinity of the hearing room until permission has been granted by the hearing officer, and witnesses are instructed not to communicate with other witnesses outside the hearing during the proceedings.
10. All parties may question each other and the witnesses, and the hearing officer may direct questions as appropriate to any participant, or require that all questions go through the hearing officer. Other accommodations may be utilized to ensure that the hearing is a safe space for participants. The reporting and responding party may present concluding remarks. The Hearing Officer may place reasonable time limitations on the statements.
 11. At the conclusion of the hearing, the hearing officer will advise the reporting and responding party that his/her determination will be given, in writing, to the appropriate parties.
 12. The responding party's prior student conduct record will be a factor in determining the appropriate sanction(s).
 13. The reporting party will not be notified of the outcome of the hearing EXCEPT in cases of violence, sexual misconduct, or offense that fall under Title IX, once the decision of the hearing officer has been issued.
 14. For each separate offense, the hearing officer will determine whether the responding party is responsible or not responsible. The decision will be based upon an evaluation of the information presented and a determination as to whether the Code was more likely than not to have been violated. For each violation, the hearing officer will impose an appropriate remedy and/or sanction.
 15. The rules of evidence applicable to the courts do not apply to Code proceedings of this University community. Fair process applicable to this process is as defined in these procedures.
 16. The Director of Community Standards and Student Conduct or designee may implement changes to these proceedings as needed that do not jeopardize the material fairness owed to the parties to any complaint.

REMEDIES AND SANCTIONS

- A. The following remedies and sanctions may be imposed when responding parties have been found responsible for violation of the Code. In addition, other remedies and sanctions may be fashioned at the discretion of the hearing officer:
 1. Written Warning to the offender that the conduct must stop and any continuation may be a basis for more severe action.
 2. Letter of Reprimand.
 3. Probation – Notice that further violation of the Code may result in expulsion. Also, the decision may place some additional restrictions on membership in student organizations and/or participation in activities or may establish special restitution and service requirements.
 4. Suspension:
 - a. Specific Period – Revocation of the privilege of attending the University and using its facilities for a specific period not to exceed two academic years.
 - b. Indefinite Period – Revocation of the privilege of attending the University and using the facilities pending the satisfying of specific conditions. The Vice President for Student Affairs will determine whether the conditions have been satisfied.

The 2017-2018 Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report

5. Residence Hall Suspension - Revocation or restriction of privileges for the use of, access to, and/or residence in University Residence Halls
6. Facilities Restriction -- Revocation or restriction of privileges for the use of some but not all University facilities
7. Expulsion – Permanent termination of student status and rights to be present on University property and attend/participate in University-sponsored events
8. Referral to civil or criminal authorities

Any of the following may accompany a remedy and sanction:

9. Restitution requiring individuals to restore or replace within a specified time, property which has been damaged, defaced, lost, or stolen.
 10. Service assignment requiring an individual to perform services for the community or the University
 11. Referral to appropriate psychological or psychiatric service for evaluation, mandated assessment, or other special help.
 12. Fines for drug and alcohol violations as outlined in the Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report at www.kean.edu/annual-campus-security-and-fire-safety-report.
 13. A Campus-Wide Notice of No Trespass will accompany a sanction of suspension or expulsion from the University.
 14. A Residence Life Notice of No Trespass will accompany any restriction imposed or related to residential living or visitation of the residence halls.
 15. Campus-Wide No Contact Order: The Vice President of Student Affairs may impose a Campus Wide No-Contact Order between parties when the fear of retaliation and/or harassment may be present. Specific instructions will accompany the Campus-Wide No-Contact Order outlining to all parties the expected behavior including face to face contact, correspondence, e-mail, instant message or telephone. Friends and relatives are also not permitted to have any contact on behalf of either party.
- B. Underage students found in violation of the University's Alcohol Policy and/or sanctioned for the possession or distribution of illegal drugs will be subject to the University parental notification policy. (See FERPA Policies and Procedures in the Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report). In addition, Kean University reserves the right, in accordance with FERPA, to make public notification of the final results of certain student conduct actions (See FERPA Policy in the Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report). Such notification may include the name of the student offender and the type of violation, but will not disclose the names of any other students who were involved as reporting parties or witnesses without their consent.

APPEAL PROCEDURES

- A. Where an individual is found responsible for a violation of the Code that may lead to a sanction less serious than suspension or expulsion, the individual can appeal in writing to the Review Committee for Appeals within five (5) business days from the date of the hearing officer's determination. A person will have the right to request a review based on any of the following grounds:

1. A sanction that falls outside the sanction range commonly assigned for the offense
 2. A material deviation from written procedures that jeopardized the fairness of the process
 3. A demonstrable bias by the hearing officer
 4. New information, unavailable at the time of the hearing, that could be outcome determinative
- B. In the case of suspension or expulsion, the student can appeal in writing to the Vice President for Student Affairs within three (3) business days of the receipt of the hearing officer's determination.
- C. In the case of suspension or expulsion, the student will not be permitted to be on campus or attend classes pending the outcome of the appeal unless implementation of the sanction is delayed by the Vice President for Student Affairs due to extraordinary circumstances.

THE REVIEW COMMITTEE FOR APPEALS

The Review Committee for Appeals is a body consisting of trained staff and students whose role is to review all student conduct conference appeals. The Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct will submit the appeal to the Review Committee within ten business days of receipt. Appeals to the Review Committee will be limited to information presented during the meeting with the conduct administrator and supporting documents provided by the respondent and the conduct administrator. If new information, which was reasonably not available at the time of the original decision, is presented, the Review Committee may send the case back to the conduct administrator for further evaluation.

The Review Committee is composed of one student and two hearing officers. The Committee will review the written challenge and, based on a preponderance of the evidence standard, determine whether or not the student should be granted an appeal. If Committee determines that an appeal is not granted, the decision of the conduct administrator will go into effect and the student will have no further appeal opportunities. The Review Committee's decision not to grant an appeal is final.

If the Committee determines that an appeal should take place, the case will be forwarded to the next level administrator for review. The Review Committee will convene weekly and all proceedings are closed to the public.

APPEAL OF SUSPENSION/EXPULSION TO THE VICE PRESIDENT FOR STUDENT AFFAIRS

The request for review of an appeal will be considered by the Vice President for Student Affairs to determine whether grounds for an appeal exist. A person will have the right to request an appeal based on any of the following grounds:

1. A sanction that falls outside the sanction range commonly assigned for the offense
2. A material deviation from written procedures that jeopardized the fairness of the process
3. A demonstrable bias by the hearing officer

4. New information, unavailable at the time of the hearing, that could be outcome determinative

REQUEST FOR APPEAL TO THE VICE PRESIDENT FOR STUDENT AFFAIRS

1. The Vice President for Student Affairs or designee will review the written request for an appeal to determine whether there is sufficient basis to grant an appeal. If so, he/she will proceed to hear the appeal, or return the complaint to the original hearing body for reconsideration or rehearing in light of the basis for the appeal.
2. If the Vice President for Student Affairs determines that there is not a sufficient basis to change the decision of the hearing officer, the parties to the complaint will be notified in writing.

3. Appeals are deferential to the original hearing decision, and are not intended as a rehearing. If the Vice President for Student Affairs hears the appeal, he/she may determine that there is a sufficient basis to change the decision of the hearing officer if there is clear error or compelling justification only. If so, he/she may reverse, uphold or modify the decision, or change the sanction. Normally, appeals involve a review of the hearing record and appeal request.
4. The decision of the Vice President for Student Affairs will be final within the University Student Conduct structure.

POLICY AND PROCEDURES FOR ADDRESSING DISRUPTIVE BEHAVIOR

UNIVERSITY-INITIATED WITHDRAWAL

The following model policy is adapted from policies at a variety of schools, including the University of Iowa and Loras College which are in turn adaptations of a model policy developed by Gary Pavela, J.D., of the University of Maryland (19 Pavela, Gary (1985). The Dismissal Of Students With Mental Disorders: Legal Issues, Policy Considerations Alternate Responses. College Administration Publications, Inc.: Asheville, N.C.).

The following model policy was also modified for Kean University by the National Center for Higher Education Risk Management (NCHERM).

If a student is behaving in a way which is threatening to the student or others, or which significantly interferes with the student's education or the rights of others, the Vice President for Student Affairs may initiate these procedures. The Vice President for Student Affairs is empowered with the discretion to define within his/her professional judgment what is sufficiently threatening and/or disruptive to warrant invoking this procedure.

The first step will be to determine an appropriate initial action. The primary alternatives for initial action are as follows, but these do not preclude other actions based on a specific situation.

- Continue at the University with no restrictions. The University may take no action if it has decided, based on review of the referral information or other information presented, that the student may be allowed to continue with no restrictions. In those cases, care should be taken to provide opportunities for the student to be advised of accommodations and supportive services that are available. In cases where there are conduct actions pending, those actions should go forward.
- Continue in University pending further proceedings. The University may require that student meet certain conditions regarding the student's behavior over a specified period of time if he/she is to remain enrolled. Such conditions here would include, for example, stopping classroom disruptiveness, or continuing only if the student avails him or herself of supportive services or accommodation arrangements. Failure to comply with the conditions, coupled with further disruptive behavior, may result in having additional conduct complaints added to any that were previously pending or deferred. At no point will the University engage in a behavioral contract or agreement with a student whose behaviors indicate harm or danger to any member of the community.

- Remaining enrolled at the University subject to conditions but with eligibility for University-owned residential agreement reviewed. Under certain circumstances, where other students' living and learning environment is very likely to be disrupted by a student's behavior, the Director of Residence Life will have the option of allocating alternative and more suitable living accommodations if such are available, or of terminating the accommodation agreement.
- Suspension of studies and/or separation from campus. If there is a pervasive pattern of disruptive or threatening behavior, or behaviors that are assaultive, suicidal, self-injurious or self-neglectful which present an imminent risk of injury to the student or others, the student may be suspended from studies and/or ordered off campus. In those situations, an interim

BASIS FOR INTERIM OR PERMANENT INVOLUNTARY MEDICAL WITHDRAWAL

The University may withdraw a student if it is determined, by a preponderance of the evidence (that is more likely than not) that the student is engaging in or likely to engage in behavior which poses a substantial danger of causing imminent harm to the student, to others or to substantial property rights, or which renders the student unable to engage in basic required activities necessary to obtain an education, or that substantially impedes the lawful activities of others.

STANDARD FOR ADDRESSING POTENTIALLY SUICIDAL STUDENTS

When suicidality is at issue (or any issue for which a student with a disability is facing separation from housing or the University), the objective of the hearing is to determine whether a student is a direct threat. A direct threat will exist when a student poses a significant risk to the health or safety of themselves or others. A significant risk constitutes a high probability of substantial harm, based on a timely, reasonable medical judgment. Significance will be determined by:

- The nature, duration and severity of the risk;
- The probability that the potentially threatening injury will actually occur;
- And, whether reasonable accommodations to policies, practices or procedures will sufficiently mitigate the risk.

STATUS OF CONDUCT PROCEEDINGS

If the student has been accused of a violation of the Conduct Code, but it appears that the student is not capable of understanding the nature of the wrongfulness of the action, this medical withdrawal policy may be activated prior to issuance of a determination in the conduct process.

Students subject to conduct proceedings who wish to introduce relevant evidence of such lack of capacity must so inform the Hearing Officer in writing at least two business days prior to any conduct hearing. If the Hearing Officer determines that the evidence may have merit, the conduct complaint will be held in abeyance and procedures will be initiated to investigate resolution of the matter in accordance with this proposed policy and procedures.

If the student is ordered to be medically withdrawn from the University, or another action is taken under these provisions following a finding that the student's behavior was the result of a lack of capacity, such action terminates the pending conduct action. If the student is found not to be subject to medical withdrawal or other action under this section, conduct proceedings may be reinstated.

REFERRAL FOR EVALUATION

The Vice President for Student Affairs may refer a student for evaluation by an independent licensed psychiatrist or psychologist chosen by the institution if it is believed that the student may meet the criteria set forth in this policy or if a student subject to conduct proceedings provides notification that information concerning a mental disorder will be introduced.

Students referred for evaluation will be so informed in writing with personal and/or certified delivery, and will be given a copy of these standards and procedures. The evaluation, conducted at University expense, must be completed within five business days from the date of the referral letter, unless an extension is granted by the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs. A student who fails to complete the evaluation in accordance with these standards and procedures and give permission for the results to be shared with appropriate administrators may be withdrawn on an interim basis, or referred for conduct action, or both.

INTERIM ACTION

The Vice President for Student Affairs may order interim medical suspension of a student where it is reasonable to believe that a substantial threat of harm to self or others exists. Students suspended under this provision will be notified by personal delivery, and will also be given a copy of these standards and procedures. The student will be given the option of appearing before the Vice President for Student Affairs (or designee) within 48 hours of the order for interim medical suspension to discuss only the following:

- the reliability of the information concerning the student's behavior;
- whether the student's behavior poses a danger of causing substantial, serious harm to the student or others, causing property damage, or directly impeding the lawful activities of others;
- whether the student has completed an evaluation, in accordance with the standards and procedures.

The sole decisions to be made at the hearing or whether interim medical suspension should be continued or modified, and whether medical withdrawal should remain in consideration.

INVOLUNTARY MEDICAL WITHDRAWAL

If the medical evaluation supports medical withdrawal, a hearing will be scheduled before the Hearing Officer and the director of the health center. The student will be informed, in writing with certified delivery of the time, date and place, and will be given at least two business days to independently review the psychological or psychiatric evaluation prior to the hearing. In addition, the student will be notified of who is expected to present information at the hearing, and is expected to notify the Hearing Officer in advance of any witnesses the student expects to bring.

If the evaluation does not support medical withdrawal, the student will be notified. If other action is pending, the appropriate individuals will be notified and will proceed with their actions.

The student and the student's representatives may present information for or against involuntary Medical Withdrawal and will be given the opportunity to ask questions of others presenting information. The hearing will be conversational and non-adversarial; however the Hearing Officer in charge of the hearing will exercise active control over the proceeding, to include deciding who may present information. Formal rules of evidence will not apply. Anyone who disrupts the hearing may be excluded.

A written decision will be rendered by the committee within two business days, stating the reasons for its determination. The decision will be delivered to the student by certified means. If the student is withdrawn, the notification will include information concerning when reapplication may be made, as well as specifying any conditions of reinstatement. The decision of the Hearing Officer is subject to appeal to the Vice President for Student Affairs. The decision is based upon the preponderance of the evidence.

A written and taped record of the proceeding will be kept and a copy made available to the student.

A student seeking readmission who has been medically withdrawn must request reinstatement, and may not reenter the University without providing competent medical evidence that the medical condition no longer exists, or is sufficiently under treatment so as to remove any substantial likelihood of reoccurrence of the situation which caused medical withdrawal. The University may require the student, at the student's cost, to undergo a medical evaluation by a licensed mental health professional of the university's choosing. The results of such evaluation must be disclosed to appropriate University personnel. A student who is permanently withdrawn is not eligible for reinstatement or readmission.

A medical withdrawal is not considered a conduct action, though a prior medical withdrawal may be considered in subsequent conduct hearings involving the student.

ACCESS TO EDUCATIONAL RECORDS - CONFIDENTIALITY OF STUDENT RECORDS (FERPA POLICY)

INTRODUCTION

Kean University collects data and information about students in order to facilitate their educational development. The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 and the Higher Education Amendments of 1998 delineate the rights of students to be informed of the existence of this information, to have access to it, and the conditions under which information about students may be disclosed to others. A copy of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act is available in the Office of the Registrar. The material below specifies the University policy and procedures for complying with FERPA. All employees of the University who handle student records are bound by the Kean policy and procedures.

GENERAL POLICY STATEMENT

Information from student educational records may be shared within the University by those officials with a "legitimate educational interest" (as defined in this document) in such information. Information from records, files and data directly related to student shall not be disclosed by any means to individuals or agencies outside the University without the written consent of the student, except in response to directory information or to a subpoena or court order, or in those cases of specifically designated educational and governmental officials as required by FERPA and explained below.

STUDENTS

A student is defined as an individual currently or previously enrolled in any academic offering of the University.

ANNUAL NOTIFICATION

Students will be notified of their FERPA rights each semester through an insert in the registration bulletin that refers them to the policy in the undergraduate student handbook or the undergraduate and graduate catalogs. A copy of the policy will be available in the Office of the Registrar.

SUPPORT AT HEARINGS

The student subject to either an Interim Suspension Hearing or an Involuntary Medical Withdrawal hearing may be assisted in the hearing by a family member and/or a licensed psychologist or psychiatrist, or in lieu of a licensed psychologist or psychiatrist, by a member of the faculty or staff of the University or other support person at the discretion of the Hearing Officer. The student may be accompanied by legal counsel, although that counsel may only provide legal advice to the student, and may not address the panel. The student will be expected to speak for him or herself whenever possible.

STUDENT RECORDS

A student's education record is comprised of written and recorded information that personally identifies a student, or is readily linked or linkable to the identity of a student, that is kept or maintained by University officials. Records originating at another institution are also subject to this policy. Education records include the following:

RECORD	LOCATION
Admissions Records	Admissions Office, Graduate Office, Office of the Registrar, Center for Academic Success
Career Placement Records	Center for Academic Success
Cumulative Academic Records	Graduate Office, Office of the Registrar
Disciplinary Records	Vice President for Student Affairs, Residential Student Services
Health Records	Health Services
Financial Records	Financial Aid, Student Accounting
Progress Records	Dean, Department Chairpersons, Center for Academic Success
KUBIT Team Records	Vice President for Student Affairs

Excluded from the definition of student education records are records or notes of instructional and administrative personnel, which are in the sole possession of the individual. Records exempt include the notes of a professor or staff member concerning a student and intended for that individual's own use; information maintained by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, or paraprofessional used in connection with the provision of treatment; and alumni records.

UNIVERSITY OFFICIALS RESPONSIBLE FOR STUDENT RECORDS

DIRECTORY (PUBLIC) INFORMATION

Kean University designates the following items as Directory Information:

Category I	student name, permanent, local and e-mail address, phone number, dates of attendance, class, date of graduation.
Category II	degrees and awards conferred, major.
Category III	weight and height of members of athletic teams.
Category IV	photographic, video, or electronic images.

This information is regarded as public, and the University may disclose any of these items without prior written consent. The student is entitled to request that any or all categories of this information not be made publicly available. Such a request must be made in writing to the Registrar on an annual basis. Request must be filed within ten days after the start of the fall or spring semester and will remain in effect until the next fall semester.

STUDENT RIGHTS TO INSPECT EDUCATION RECORDS

A student has the right to inspect and review his or her educational records. To do so, the student must submit a request in writing to the director for the office in which the record is located. This official must respond within 45 days of the request by arranging an appointment for the student to view the records. When a record contains information about more than one student, the student may inspect and review only the records which relate to him or her. The student is also entitled to copies of his or her records generated at Kean University at a reasonable administrative cost.

Educational records will not be released to the student or to any third party if the student has financial obligation or if a serious academic and/or a misconduct matter involving the student remains unresolved.

Letters of recommendation and other information obtained or prepared prior to January 1, 1975, which were written on the assumption of confidentiality, will not be made available to the student.

DISCLOSURE TO OTHERS

Kean University will disclose information from a student's education records only with the written consent of the student, except as requested by University officials with "legitimate educational interests", defined in part a. below, or in those cases delineated in part b. below;

- a. University officials with "legitimate educational interest" are those with general or specific responsibility for promoting the educational objectives of the University. This includes individuals within the institution involved in teaching, research and related activities such as academic, advising, counseling, academic support, supervision of co-curricular activities, official University committees or clubs, financial assistance, medical services, and job placement.

A University official is a person employed by the University in administrative, supervisory, academic, or research, or support staff positions. This includes members of the Board of Trustees and person employed by or under contract to the University to perform special tasks, such as the attorney or auditor.

University officials have "legitimate educational interest" if they are:

- Performing a task that is specified in their job description
- Performing a task related to a student's education
- Performing a task related to the discipline of a student
- Performing a service or benefit relating to the student or student's family, such as healthcare, counseling, job placement, or financial aid assistance.

Clerical personnel employed to assist University officials in their job performance may also be granted access to students' records. Access by all personnel is restricted to that part of the student record necessary for the discharge of assigned duties.

- b. Information may also be disclosed without the written consent of the student if requested under the circumstances delineated below:
 1. By Federal and State Authorities. Student record may be disclosed to certain officials of the U.S. Department of Education, the Comptroller General, and State and local educational authorities, in connection with certain State or federally support education programs.
 2. By Other Educational Institutions. Disclosure of appropriate academic records may be made to officials of other educational institutions to which the student has applied or intends to enroll.
 3. In Response to a Judicial Order. Information concerning a student will be released if properly subpoenaed pursuant to a judicial, legislative, or administrative proceeding. In the case of a judicial order or a subpoena, the University will make a reasonable effort to notify the student of the order or subpoena in advance of compliance, unless the subpoena is ex parte.

4. In Support of Financial Aid Requests. Information from student records may be released in connection with a student's request for financial aid as necessary to determine eligibility or to enforce the terms and conditions of the aid.
5. If Mandated by a State Law requiring disclosure that was adopted prior to November 1994.
6. By Educational Agencies Conducting Research. Information, which will not permit the individual identification of students, may be released to educational agencies for research or for the development of predictive tests. Information may also be released to organizations conducting certain studies on behalf of the University. In these cases, the information may not be used in any way that permits identification of an individual student.
7. By Accrediting Agencies. Information may be released to accrediting agencies to enable them to carry out their functions.
8. In Case of Emergency. On an emergency basis, information about a student may be released by the Registrar when that information is necessary to protect the health or safety of a student or other individuals.
9. To Parents of Dependent Students. Information concerning a student, who is dependent, within the meaning of section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, may be released to that student's parents. For purposes of this policy, unless information is presented that the student is, in fact, a dependent; students will be assumed not to be dependent. Parents who wish to provide such information should be referred to the Office of the Assistant Vice President for Enrollment Services.
10. Parental Notification of Drug and Alcohol Violations. Section 952 of the 1998 amendments to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act authorizes the University to inform a parent or legal guardian of any student under the age of 21, who has been found in violation of any law or University policy governing the use or possession of alcohol or controlled substances.

For purposes of this policy the University will first notify the student of its intent to notify the student's family. The family will then be notified unless it is determined that such communication will put the student at risk. (See Drug and Alcohol Policy)

RECORD OF REQUESTS FOR DISCLOSURE

Kean University will maintain a record of all requests for and/or disclosure of information to outside agencies from a student's educational record. The record will indicate the name of the party making the request, any additional party to whom it may be disclosed, and the legitimate interest the party has in requesting or obtaining the information. This record may be reviewed by the student.

CORRECTION OF EDUCATION RECORDS

Students have the right to ask to have records corrected that they believe are inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of the privacy rights. The substantive judgment of a faculty member about a student's work, expressed in grades or other evaluations, is not within the scope of this right to challenge information.

To challenge his or her record, a student must submit a request to amend the record to the University official in whose area of responsibility the material is kept. The official may comply with the request and correct the material or the official may rule against changing the record. If the official decides not to comply, the student will be notified of the decision and advised of his or her right to a hearing to challenge the information believed to be inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of his or her rights.

The hearing must be held within three weeks of the request and the student notified of the time, date, and place in advance of the hearing.

The hearing will be conducted by a hearing officer who is disinterested party. He or she may, however, be an official of the University. The student will be afforded a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to the issues raised in the original request to amend his or her records. The student may be represented by an individual of his or her choosing, including an attorney (at the student's expense).

Within two weeks of the conclusion of the hearing, the hearing officer will prepare a written decision based solely in evidence presented at the hearing. The decision will include a summary of the evidence presented and the reasons for the decisions.

If it is decided that the challenged information is not inaccurate, misleading, or in violation of the student's right of privacy, the University will notify the student that he or she has a right to place in the record a statement commenting on the challenged information and setting forth reasons for disagreeing with the decision. This statement will be maintained as part of the student's education records as long as the contested portion is maintained. If the University discloses the contested portion of the record, it must also disclose the statement.

Students have the right to file a complaint with the Department of Education concerning alleged failures of the University to comply with the requirements of FERPA.

KEAN UNIVERSITY HAZING POLICY

Hazing, or any activity that subjects a student to harassment, intimidation, physical exhaustion or mental distress, is entirely contrary to the Kean University Student Code of Conduct. University policy and state law forbid hazing by fraternities and sororities, athletes, individuals, or any other Kean University recognized student group.

Hazing is defined as any activity that endangers the physical safety of another person; or produces mental or physical discomfort; causes embarrassment, fright, humiliation or ridicule; or degrades the individual. Any organization suspected of hazing will be investigated and subject to judicial (refer to Student Code of Conduct in this publication) and criminal action.

Kean University complies with New Jersey State Law prohibiting hazing.

NEW JERSEY STATE CRIMINAL STATUTE

2C: 40 - 3 HAZING

A person is guilty of hazing, a disorderly person's offense, if in connection with initiation of applicants to members of a student or fraternal organization, he/she knowingly or recklessly organizes, promotes, facilitates or engages in any conduct, other than competitive athletic events, which places or may place another person in danger of bodily injury.

A person is guilty of aggravated hazing, a crime of the fourth degree, if he/she commits an act prohibited in subsection a, which results in serious bodily injury to another person.

2C: 40 - 4 CONSENT

Notwithstanding any other provision of Title 2C of the New Jersey Statutes to the contrary, consent shall not be applicable as a defense to a prosecution under this Act. (Added by L. 1980, chap. 169 (2); eff. 12/18/80).

2C: 40 - 5 PROSECUTION

Conduct constituting an offense under this Act may, at the discretion of the prosecuting attorney, be prosecuted under any other applicable provision of the Title 2C of the New Jersey Statutes. (Added by L.1980, chap. 169 (3); eff. 12/18/80.)

Hazing includes, but is not limited to:

- Actions that recklessly or intentionally endanger the physical and mental health or safety of students;
- Forced or required consumption of any food, liquor, drugs or any other substance;
- Forced or required participation in physical activities, such as calisthenics, exercises or so-called games;
- Exposure to extreme weather conditions (i.e., snow, heat, rain, etc.);
- Excessive fatigue resulting from sleep deprivation, physical activities or exercises;
- Assignment of activities that would be illegal or unlawful, or might be morally offensive to individual new members;
- Physical brutality, including paddling; striking with fists, open hands or objects; and branding;
- Kidnapping, unauthorized road trips, transporting a person against his/her will or stranding of individuals;
- Verbal abuse, including "line-ups" and berating of individuals;
- Forced or required conduct that could embarrass or adversely affect the dignity of the individual, including the wearing of apparel that is conspicuous or extraordinary, and the performance of public activities;
- The intentional creation of clean-up work or labor for new members by active members or alumni;
- Denial of sufficient time to study;
- Nudity or lewd behavior;
- Walking on line;
- Wearing of uniforms;

(adapted from the NASPA Journal, vol. 24, no. 4, spring 1987, in "Putting an End to Fraternity Hazing")

Members of the University community who are made aware of an alleged hazing incident, who witness a hazing incident, or who wish to make a claim of alleged hazing should contact the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs, Kean Hall, Room 124, (908) 737-7080; FAX (908) 737-7085.

POLICY ON HARASSMENT, INTIMIDATION AND BULLYING

Minimum Sanction: Probation; Maximum Sanction: Expulsion

Students are prohibited from engaging in harassment, intimidation or bullying. A student will be found responsible for harassment, intimidation or bullying if he or she engages in conduct, including any gesture, written, verbal or physical act, or any electronic communication (which includes e-mails, text messages, and Internet postings on web-sites or other social media), whether it be a single incident or series of incidents, that occurs on the University's campus, through use of University facilities, or at any function sponsored by the University or any University-related organization, on or off-campus; that is so severe or pervasive and objectively offensive that it substantially disrupts or interferes with the orderly operation of the University or the rights of any student or other member of the University community; and that:

- A. involves intimidation or threats to another person's safety, rights of personal privacy and property, academic pursuits,

University employment, or participation in activities sponsored by the University or organizations or groups related to the University; or

- B. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of insulting or demeaning any student or group of students; or
- C. creates an intimidating or hostile environment by substantially interfering with a student's education, or by materially impairing the academic pursuits, employment or participation of any person or group in the University community, or by severely or pervasively causing physical or emotional harm to the student or other member of the University community; or
- D. a reasonable person should know, under the circumstances, will have the effect of physically or emotionally harming a student or other person or damaging the person's property or placing him/her in reasonable fear of physical or emotional harm to his/her person, or to any member of that person's family or household, or of damage to his/her property

1. DISCRIMINATORY HARASSMENT, INTIMIDATION OR BULLYING

A student will be found responsible for discriminatory harassment, intimidation or bullying who engages in conduct described above as "harassment, intimidation, or bullying" which the student directs at a specific group or individual, based upon race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, age, marital status, affectional or sexual orientation, familial status, disability, nationality, sex, gender identity or expression, or any other characteristic protected from discrimination by the New Jersey Law Against Discrimination, NJSA 10:5-4.

2. SEXUAL HARASSMENT

A student will be found responsible for discriminatory harassment who engages in conduct described above as "harassment, intimidation or bullying" which the student directs at a specific individual based on sex, or which would not have occurred but for the individual's gender, or gender identification, which conduct is unwelcome and substantially interferes with work, educational performance or equal access to the University's resources and opportunities. Sexual harassment is a violation of Kean University's Statement on Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action, Sexual Harassment and Tolerance as well as Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (as amended in 1991). Under certain circumstances, sexual harassment may constitute sexual assault or abuse. The University will fully comply with all relevant civil laws prohibiting sexual harassment and all criminal laws concerning sexual assault. New Jersey Criminal Code (NJSA2C:14-1-2 of the) defines sexual assault as sexual penetration meaning "vaginal intercourse, cunnilingus, fellatio or anal intercourse between persons or the insertion of a hand, finger or other object in the anus or vagina by either the actor or upon the actor's instruction. The depth of insertion shall not be relevant." Please see the University policy on sexual misconduct at www.kean.edu/policies/Sexual-Misconduct-Policy.

COMPUTER RELATED ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

PREAMBLE

Those who do not abide by the policies listed below should expect suspension of computer privileges and referral to the Committee of Discipline. Offenders may also be subject to criminal prosecution under federal and state law, and should expect the Office of Computer and Information Services (OCIS) to pursue such action. As an example, under New Jersey law: "A person is guilty of a crime of the third degree if he purposely and knowingly accesses and recklessly alters, damages, destroys or obtains any data, data base, computer, computer program, computer software, computer equipment, computer system or computer network [2C:20-26 para b.]."

The Office of Computer and Information Services should be notified about violations of computer laws and policies, as well as about potential loopholes in the security of its computer systems and networks. The user community is expected to cooperate with the Office of Computer and Information Services in its operation of computer systems and networks as well as in the investigation of misuse or abuse.

The computer resources and facilities of Kean University are solely for the use of Kean University (registered) students, faculty and staff.

Individuals using these computer systems without authority, or in excess of their authority, are subject to having all computer activities monitored and recorded by OCIS personnel.

In the course of monitoring individuals improperly using a computer system, or in the course of system maintenance, the activities of authorized users may also be monitored.

Anyone using any of the computer facilities at Kean University expressly consents to such monitoring and is advised that is such monitoring reveals possible evidence of criminal activity. OCIS personnel may provide the evidence of such monitoring to law enforcement officials. The legality of such monitoring is governed by 18 U.S.C. section 2510 et seq.

POLICIES

The Kean University policies on Computer and Information Resources include but are not limited to the list below:

1. You must not use a computer ID that was not assigned by the Kean Office of Computer and Information Services (OCIS). You may not try in any way to obtain a password for another's computer ID. You may not attempt to disguise the identity of the account or machine you are using.
2. You must not use the OCIS resources to gain unauthorized access to remoter computers. If you abuse the networks to which the University belongs or the computers at other sites connected to those networks, the University will treat this matter as an abuse of your Kean University computing privileges.
3. You must not deliberately perform an act that will impact the operation of computer, terminals, peripherals or networks. This includes, but is not limited to, tampering with the components of a local area network (LAN) or the high-speed backbone network, otherwise blocking communication lines or interfering with the operation readiness of a computer.
4. You must not run or install on any University computer system or network, or give to another, a program which could result in the eventual damage to a file or computer system and/or the reproduction of itself. This is directed towards, but not limited to, the classes of programs known as computer viruses, Trojan horses and worms.
5. You must not attempt to circumvent data protection schemes or uncover security loopholes.
6. You must abide by the terms and conditions of all software licensing agreements and copyright laws.
7. You must not deliberately perform acts that are wasteful of computing resources. These acts include but are not limited to: sending mass mailings or chain letters, obtaining unnecessary output, creating unnecessary multiple jobs or processes, or creating unnecessary network traffic.

8. The following types of information or software cannot be placed on any system on or off campus:
 - That which infringes upon the rights of another person.
 - That which is abusive, profane or sexually offensive to the average person.
 - That which consists of information which may injure someone else and/or lead to a lawsuit or criminal charges.
 - Examples of these are: pirated software, destructive software, pornographic materials or libelous statements.
 - That which consists of any advertisements for commercial enterprises.
9. You must not harass others by sending annoying, threatening, libelous, or sexually, racially or religiously offensive messages.
10. You must not attempt to monitor another user's data communications, nor may you read, copy, change or delete another user's files or software, without the permission of the owner.
11. You must not use any of the University's micro-computers, workstations or networks for other than a Kean University course, research project or departmental activity. These resources must not be used for personal gain unless in support of Kean University research or a departmental project.
12. You must not use a computer account for work not specifically authorized for that account. A University-funded account may not be used by its requestor for personal financial gain.
13. You must not play games using any of the University's computers or networks, unless for instructional purposes specifically assigned by a professor.

Kean University is a member of JvNCnet. JvNCnet provides Kean University with computer data connectivity to other member organizations and the Internet.

Examples of using JvNCnet are: sending electronic mail to a site off-campus, ftp and telnet sessions which leave Kean University's computing facilities and connect to computing facilities at another site.

When such activities are engaged, the JvNCnet acceptable use policy must be adhered to.

JVNCNET ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

This statement represents a guide to the acceptable use of JvNCnet use. In those cases where data communications are carried across other regional networks or the Internet, JvNCnet users are advised that acceptable use policies of those other networks apply and may limit use.

JvNCnet member organizations are expected to inform their users of both the JvNCnet and the NSFNET acceptable use policies.

1. JvNCnet Primary Goals
 - 1.1. JvNCnet, the John von Neumann Computer Network, has been established to: 1) provide the highest quality and optimum access of networking services to the research and educational community of the United States and internationally, 2) offer network resources at the maximum level of cost-efficiency, and 3) promote and facilitate innovation and regional and national competitiveness. These goals remain the standard for excellence in service and price and should not be compromised.

2. JvNCnet Acceptable Use Policy

- 2.1. All use of JvNCnet must be consistent with JvNCnet's primary goals.
- 2.2. It is not acceptable to use JvNCnet for illegal purposes.
- 2.3. It is not acceptable to use JvNCnet to transmit threatening, obscene or harassing materials.
- 2.4. It is not acceptable to use JvNCnet so as to interfere with or disrupt network users, services or equipment. Disruptions include, but are not limited to, distribution of unsolicited advertising, propagation of computer worms and viruses, and using the network to make unauthorized entry to any other machine accessible via the network.
- 2.5. It is assumed that information and resources accessible via JvNCnet are private to the individuals and organizations which own or hold rights to those resources and information unless specifically stated otherwise by the owners or holders of rights. It is therefore not acceptable for an individual to use JvNCnet to access information or resources unless permission to do so has been granted by the owners or holders of rights to those resources or information.

3. Violation of Policy

- 3.1. JvNCnet will review alleged violations of Acceptable

Use Policy on a case-by-case basis. Clear violations of policy which are not promptly remedied by the member organization may result in the termination of JvNCnet membership and network services to members.

COPYRIGHT COMPLIANCE AND ELECTRONIC FILE SHARING OF MEDIA

KEAN UNIVERSITY POLICY ON ELECTRONIC FILE SHARING OF MEDIA

University computing resources are the property of Kean University, and are provided to current students, faculty, staff members, visitors, and agencies as a privilege rather than a right. Users must comply with all local, state and federal laws, including, but not limited to, laws regarding libel, harassment, privacy, copyright infringement, theft, and threats. All of Kean University's policies extend to computer use. All persons who use University computer resources have the responsibility to respect and follow the policies set below and to honor the ethical norms associated with the highest standards of professional conduct.

Downloading, copying and sharing material, such as music, movies, games, and applications, for which the copyright holder has not given permission is a violation of Federal copyright law (www.copyright.gov), the Digital Millennium Copyright Act (a federal law which protects the interests of copyright holders in regard to digital media as well as, the Kean University Acceptable Use Policy.

More recently the Federal government amended the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 to explicitly outline the process colleges and universities must employ to combat the unauthorized use of copyrighted materials.

HIGHER EDUCATION OPPORTUNITY ACT 2008

Effective July 1, 2010 all colleges and universities that receive Federal funding for Title IV Programs must be in full compliance with the Higher Education Opportunity Act of 2008 (HEOA), Public Law 110-315, also referred to as H.R. 4137. HEOA requires colleges and universities to proceed as follows to combat the unauthorized distribution of copyrighted materials:

- Institutions must make an annual disclosure that informs students that the illegal distribution of copyrighted materials may subject them to criminal and civil penalties.
- Institutions certify to the Secretary of Education that they have developed plans to "effectively combat" the unauthorized distribution of copyrighted material.
- Institutions, "to the extent practicable," offer alternatives to illegal file sharing.
- Institutions identify procedures for periodically reviewing the effectiveness of the plans to combat the unauthorized distribution of copyrighted materials.

UNIVERSITY PLAN TO KEEP THE CAMPUS INFORMED AND PREVENT ELECTRONIC COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

■ The 2017-2018 Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report

Consistent with the University's academic principles and ethical practices, we view education as the most important element in combating illegal sharing of copyrighted materials. Therefore, in order to use University computing resources, all members of the Kean University community are advised of the Acceptable Computer Use Policy upon accessing the University network.

In addition the following strategies are in place:

- Effective fall 2010, posters will be mounted in student life areas and various computer labs to discourage illegal file sharing;
- Computing support staffs, student Help Desk workers, Resident Assistants, and Academic Instructional Mentors, are regularly trained on the University's policies with respect to copyright issues. Student workers provide an important channel for communicating with the student community;
- Kean University's policies and procedures concerning the Digital Millennium Copyright Act and our response to infringement claims are published on the OCIS web site, and in The Guide.
- Each semester, all University employees will receive an email from the Office of Computer Information Services (OCIS) regarding copyright infringement and related issues, effective July 1, 2010.
- The 2011 Orientation issue of The Cougars Byte newsletter will include an article outlining the University's policy concerning illegal downloading of copyrighted materials.
- A paper copy of the Kean University Policy on Electronic File Sharing of Media will be supplied upon request by contacting the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs, Kean Hall, room 124, or by calling (908) 737-7080.

CRIMINAL PENALTIES AND UNIVERSITY SANCTIONS FOR ILLEGAL FILE SHARING

Federal Copyright Law www.copyright.gov, specifies that the reproduction or distribution of copyrighted work is illegal and the following penalties apply:

CIVIL AND CRIMINAL PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION OF FEDERAL COPYRIGHT LAWS

In general, anyone found liable for civil copyright infringement may be ordered to pay either actual damages or "statutory" damages affixed at not less than $750 and not more than $30,000 per work infringed. For "willful" infringement, a court may award up to $150,000 per work infringed. A court can, in its discretion, also assess costs and attorneys' fees. For details, see title 17, United States Code, Sections 504, 505.

Willful copyright infringement can also result in criminal penalties, including imprisonment of up to five years and fines of up to $250,000 per offense.

UNIVERSITY PROCEDURES AND SANCTIONS FOR ILLEGAL FILE SHARING

The Office of Computer Information Services (OCIS) will disable computer network access if a computer appears to be connecting to multiple other computers or exhibiting other properties that violate the University's network usage policy. When a port is disabled, the registered owner of that computer will be notified that the computer could potentially be compromised, and will be offered contact information to assist in cleaning/repairing the software on that computer. Once the problem has been rectified, the computer will be allowed back on the network. Kean University does not support or tolerate in any way the illegal and/or unauthorized downloading or sharing of copyrighted material and this is an explicit violation of University policy and United States copyright laws.

When notifications of copyright violations are received from recognized groups, such as the Recording Industry Association of America (RIAA), the registered owner of the computer will be notified. Access to the network will be removed for 14 days. After 14 days, if the offending material has been removed, the computer will be allowed back on the network. The appeal process is through the Office of the Vice President for Student Affairs.

A second violation will result in the computer being banned from the network for one month. After one month, if the offending material has been removed, the computer will be allowed back on the network.

A third violation will result in the computer being banned for a semester. In addition, the user will be required to meet with the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct and further disciplinary action may be taken against the user at that time (<http://www.kean.edu/offices/community-standards-student-conduct>).

Action by Kean University may be in addition to civil and criminal enforcement actions taken independently.

OCIS MONITORING AND TECHNOLOGY-BASED DETERRENTS

In order to monitor against misuse of the network, Kean University is utilizing a packet shaper to all but eliminate P2P access from on campus. This plan is reviewed on an annual basis. The plan will continue to be considered successful as long as the University is not receiving "Notice of Claimed Infringement" by a copyright holder.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: WHAT IS COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL?

Copyrighted material that is illegally distributed over the Internet can take many forms including, but not limited to, the following:

- Music: may take the form of MP3s or WAV files either ripped (or copied) from CDs or downloaded and redistributed without permission.
- Movies or Television Shows which have been recorded and digitized ripped (or copied) from DVDs, DVRs or TV Cards.
- Written works: may take the form of eBooks, PDFs, or HTML pages distributed without permission.
- Photographs: includes graphics copied from other web sites.
- Software: includes software applications such as games, operating systems, applications that were not purchased by you and have no valid license.

Q: HOW ARE COPYRIGHTED MATERIAL DISTRIBUTED ILLEGALLY?

Copyrighted material is illegally distributed over the Internet by several methods including, but not limited to, the following:

- Peer-to-peer (P2P) software: consists of many computers connected in a network for uploading and downloading files; these networks use software like BitTorrent, AresWarez, BitComet, Morpheus, DirectConnect, Limewire and many more. FTP (file transfer protocol): consists of one computer serving files to its clients on a continual basis.
- IRC (internet relay chat): a form of real-time internet chat through which users can create file servers that allow them to share files with others.

Q: HOW CAN A COPYRIGHT HOLDER FIND OUT IF I HAVE COPYRIGHTED MATERIALS ON MY COMPUTER?

Copyright holders can search the Internet to determine whether copyrighted material is being illegally distributed. They often search with the same peer-to-peer software (KaZaA, Bit Torrent, mIRC, AresWarez etc.) used by those who share files. To avoid any problems, make sure that you are not making any files available for download that you do not have permission from the copyright owner to share. The simplest way to comply with this is to delete the files or to turn off/uninstall any file sharing software you have on your computer.

When an infringing file is found, a copyright infringement notice is issued to the network provider from which the file was transmitted. Many users sharing illegal files are under the false assumption that by not providing any personal information, or providing false information, there is some anonymity when using these P2P applications. However, any activity on the Internet can be tracked back through your Internet Service Provider to your computer. Kean University, as your Internet Service Provider when you are on campus, will receive these notices, lookup the computer by IP address and forward the warning.

Q: IF MY COMPUTER IS FOUND TO HAVE COPYRIGHTED MATERIALS, WHAT STEPS CAN THE COPYRIGHT HOLDER TAKE AGAINST ME?

Copyright owners can file civil suits to recover damages and costs. In many cases, statutory damages of up to $30,000, or up to $150,000 for willful infringement, may be awarded even if there is no proof of actual damages. In addition, in certain cases of willful infringement, the government can file criminal charges, which can result in substantial fines and imprisonment. Use of an academic network does not provide immunity from copyright law, nor can Kean protect its students, faculty, or staff from criminal investigations or lawsuits relating to their personal actions.

Q: HOW DOES ILLEGALLY DISTRIBUTED MATERIAL, OR SHARING THAT MATERIAL, AFFECT ME?

Illegal file sharing affects every user on the Kean University network. If you are on the University's network either in an office, in a residence hall, in a public lab, or a visitor to our network from off-campus, you can experience the effects of slower Internet speed resulting from illegal file sharing. Most file sharing software also comes bundled with malware such as spyware or adware. Sometimes this malware remains installed on the system even if the original file sharing software is removed, and can be very difficult to eliminate. In many cases such malware can interfere with the correct operation of web browsers, anti-virus and anti-spyware software, software firewalls and can cause degraded performance on affected systems. If you are faculty, staff, or a student using the University network and you are distributing files illegally you may experience:

- Increased virus attacks against your computer. Spyware installed on your computer without your knowledge. (Especially if using P2P software)
- Potential lawsuits.

Q: HOW DO I PREVENT POTENTIAL COPYRIGHT PROBLEMS?

Do not share copyrighted material and uninstall any file sharing software on your computer. If you never install a peer-to-peer program, you will dramatically reduce the chances of your computer being infected by a virus, installing spyware, or being sued.

Q: IS IT LEGAL TO DOWNLOAD OR STORE COPYRIGHTED MATERIALS ON MY COMPUTER?

Generally, you are infringing copyright if you download or share copyrighted materials on your computer without the permission of the copyright owner, unless fair use or another exemption under copyright law applies. Most downloading over the Internet of commercially available copyrighted works, such as music or movies, through file sharing systems is illegal.

If you purchase/download music, movies or other copyrighted material legally, via iTunes or other legal sites, you are well within your rights unless you then share that material with others who have not paid for it. That would be a copyright violation.

Q: WHERE CAN I DOWNLOAD LEGALLY?

A number of services exist where you can legally download music, software, television shows and movies.

- iTunes, from Apple (Music, TV, Movies, Audio Books)
- Napster (Music)
- Sony Connect (Music)
- WalMart (Music)
- Yahoo (Music)
- MSN (Music)
- CinemaNow (Movies)
- Audible.com (Audio Books)
- Google Video (Movies and TV)

You can now also watch many television shows and other videos free at the following sites:

4. ABC (Many full episodes of ABC shows)
5. CBS Innertube (Many full episodes of CBS shows)

6. NBC Universal (Many full episodes of NBC shows)
7. Google Video
8. YouTube

EQUITY IN ATHLETICS DISCLOSURE ACT (EADA) AND THE NCAA GRADUATION RATES REPORT

EQUITY IN ATHLETICS DISCLOSURE (EADA) REPORT

The Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act (EADA) requires that the Secretary of Education collect and provide a report to Congress on financial aid and statistical information on collegiate sports. Each institution of higher education that conducts an intercollegiate athletics program (for men and women) must prepare and submit on an annual basis the EADA Report. The report is due each October 15 for the preceding academic year.

This report is designed to make prospective student-athletes aware of an institution's commitment in providing an equitable athletics program for both their male and female participants.

The report can be accessed through the NCAA website (www.ncaa.com) and by selecting: "Title IX, Gender Equity Information" or "News and Publications". The reports of each institution are published by the NCAA each year and the manual can be purchased or viewed through this website. Any student or individual who would like a copy of this report can write the Kean University Athletics Department or stop by and a copy will be given to you.

The NCAA collects and publishes the graduation rates of all member NCAA institutions. This information is required from each institution of higher learning on an annual basis which is included in the NCAA Graduation Report which can be accessed through the NCAA website (www.ncaa.com) and selecting "News and Publications".

The report is designed to make prospective students aware of the graduation rate of the general student-population.

Anyone desiring a copy of the Kean University Graduation Report can write the Kean University Athletics Department or stop by the office and a copy will be provided to you.

Should any individual request copies of these two reports, (parents, faculty, staff or students), the athletics department staff will immediately provide copies as requested.

ORGAN DONATION

July 26, 2007, Governor Jon S. Corzine signed bill A1190 which requires the placement of organ donation information and materials at public institutions of higher education. This legislation helps to boost public awareness of the benefits of organ and tissue donation and increase participation in donation programs across the state.

HOW TO BECOME AN ORGAN AND/OR TISSUE DONOR

To become an organ and/or tissue donor you should:

1. Make it a license to save lives. Make the donor designation on your New Jersey driver's license or ID card. This is the most important and direct way to make your wishes known. The words "Organ Donor" will appear on the front of your license and will be included in your computer record with the Motor Vehicle Commission. For more information or to sign up to be notified when an online registry is available, visit www.donatelifenj.org.

2. You should tell your family about your decision so they understand your wishes. If there is no designation on your driver's license or other legal means of donor designation, the final decision about organ and tissue donation will be made by your family. Your wishes can also be made through advance directives and living wills.
3. Until you get to the Motor Vehicle Commission and make your donor designation, you can also sign and carry an organ donor card. Please note that while the donor card allows you to legally express your wishes, it must be accessible at the time of your passing as it is not connected to any registry.

SAFE HAVEN INFANT PROTECTION ACT

www.njsafehaven.org

On January 17, 2010, the State of New Jersey enacted a new law that requires the Department of Children and Families (DCF) to notify an expanded list of public and private entities across the state about the New Jersey Safe Haven Infant Protection Act and the relevant information and materials to give up an unwanted infant safely, legally and anonymously. The parents, or someone acting on their behalf, can bring a baby less than 30 days old to any hospital emergency room or police station. DCF will take the child into custody and place the infant in a foster or pre-adoptive home.

PROCEDURES GOVERNING COMMERCIAL SALES

Kean University is an educational institution. Its fundamental mission is to provide academic and educational programs for its students. Located in a densely populated area, the University's facilities are limited. Classroom space, parking space, recreational space, housing, office space, and other forums are frequently booked to near capacity by the members of the University Community. For these reasons, the University has prioritized the opportunity for use of its facilities to recognized University organizations and groups, University departments, or members of the University Community. For these same reasons, the University has restricted use of its facilities for commercial sales or solicitations to events that have a relationship to the University Community and the institution's educational mission.

1. As a general rule, representatives of off-campus groups or businesses will not be permitted to engage in commercial sales or otherwise solicit in person on-campus. The Reservations Coordinator may grant permission for solicitations and sales by off campus business concerns, consistent with the Standards for Evaluating Requests for Use of University Facilities and Grounds and only when specifically sponsored to do so by a recognized student, faculty, or other employee organization. Use of University facilities and grounds by off campus groups or businesses may be limited to specific times and locations.

2. Kean University prohibits the advertising, marketing, or merchandising of credit cards to students on University owned, operated, or controlled property, and at any University-sponsored events with out prior approval from the Director of Business Services.
3. Applications must be made at least four weeks prior to the solicitation and will be reviewed in accord with the Standards for Evaluating Use of University Facilities and Grounds. Use will be subject to the Procedures Governing Use of Facilities and Grounds. These restrictions are not intended to apply to: competitively bid or other contractual arrangements, or to those individuals and organizations not affiliated with the University who are invited on campus to make business presentations, or proposals in order to obtain sponsorship, or to elicit requests for proposals, or contractual agreements with either the University administration or recognized University organizations and groups.

POLICY STATEMENT ON FREE SPEECH AND DISSENT

PREAMBLE

Kean University has a long-standing commitment to basic constitutional freedoms. These freedoms are important not only because they are guaranteed within the constitution, but also when considered in light of our University's public dedication to the "transmission of knowledge, the pursuit of truth, the development of students, and the general well-being of society."

The Kean University Bill of Rights and Responsibilities, adopted in 1972, affirms the commitment of the University to free speech and to dissent and recognizes the inherent link between these two. It underscores the importance within the educational process of the "search for truth and its free presentation" while extending to members of the campus community the right to "engage in non-violent demonstrations." The importance of the link between free speech and the right to dissent as well as the responsibility for orderly dissent is embodied in the statement that members of the community who wish to dissent have the "obligation not to interfere with any member's freedom to hear and to study unpopular and controversial views on intellectual and public issues."

Similarly the University Policy on Dissent and Campus Demonstrations, adopted in 1972, encourages members of the University community to "register their dissent from any condition, issue, or proposed action by any orderly means." The Policy on Dissent and Campus Demonstrations recognizes also that those who exercise their right to dissent have the responsibility to do so in ways that do not interfere with the basic freedoms of all members of the campus community.

The statement presented in this document derives from and is consistent with the framework established within the University Bill of Rights and Responsibilities and the Policy on Dissent and Campus Demonstrations.

STATEMENT OF FREE SPEECH

Kean University is committed to maintaining an environment which fosters free speech and open discussion and debate of ideas. Members of the campus community are encouraged to listen to the ideas of any person. This commitment includes supporting the right of a group or individual to sponsor speakers or events with unpopular or controversial points of view, while enabling those who oppose these points of view the opportunity to express disagreement or dissent in ways that do not restrict the ability of individuals to hear the ideas being presented. It is understood also that sponsorship of a speaker or event does not necessarily imply approval of the views presented.

SCOPE OF STATEMENT

THE CLASSROOM

As stated in the University Bill of Rights and Responsibilities, academic freedom extends to a faculty member "the right to determine the specific content of his or her course within the established course definition." This right of a faculty member to conduct his or her course free of intrusion from those outside the class is considered inviolate* and therefore, the guidelines (i.e., the Statement) for external speakers delineated in the "Policies and Procedures for University Facilities" manual does not apply to academic instruction. The guidelines (i.e., the Statement) do apply to all other meetings on campus to which an outside speaker is invited (open meetings).

OPEN MEETINGS AND EVENTS

All meetings and events to which outside speakers or groups are invited are open, even though sponsoring organizations may limit the audience to members of their groups. For all open meetings or events, provision must be made for members of the campus community who wish to do so to have access to the words of the speaker. This may be accomplished by permitting attendance at the part of the function which includes the talk or by recording (videotaping or audio taping) the talk and making the tape generally available for viewing by the members of the campus community. In accordance with copyright laws, recording may only be done with permission of the speaker.

STATEMENT ON DISSENT AND PROTEST

Kean University recognizes that the right to dissent is the complement of the right to free speech. Where dissent does occur at the same time and location of the talk, it must not interfere with the speaker's ability to communicate or the audience's ability to hear and see the speaker. The dissent might also be expressed in a forum other than at the original talk.

Peaceful dissent (i.e., picketing, distribution of literature, and silent or symbolic protest) is widely recognized as an acceptable means of dissent. Protest should never be disruptive or violent, nor should it result in damage or destruction.

The following examples are meant to suggest the limits of acceptable dissent. They are not intended to be comprehensive.

- Picketing and the Peaceful Distribution of Literature. Picketing in an orderly way or distributing literature outside a meeting is acceptable as long as these activities do not interfere with gaining access to the meeting or event.
- Silent and/or Symbolic Protest. The wearing of symbolic clothing or emblems or the engaging in noiseless protests that involve gesturing, standing, or displaying signs are acceptable expressions of dissent, but these activities should not obscure the speaker from the audience's view or prevent the audience from hearing the speaker.

- Vocal Dissent. Dissenting vocally from a speaker's views, especially if the vocal protests are similar in kind and degree to the reaction of those supporting the speaker, is acceptable. Disrupting a meeting or event with prolonged chants or other noise in a manner that interferes with the speaker's communication is not permitted, whether inside or outside the meeting.
- Force or Violence. Using force or violence is never an acceptable form of protest. Freedom of movement may not be interfered with.

All persons at a talk must respect the right to dissent, as defined above. Any person who interferes with acceptable forms of dissent is considered in violation of this policy in the same way as is a dissenter who violates the rights of the speaker or the audience.

PROCEDURES GOVERNING DISTRIBUTION OF LITERATURE

The Kean University Statement on Free Speech and Dissent and the Statement on Dissent and Protest express the commitment of Kean University to maintaining an environment which supports the free and open exchange of ideas. The General Procedures Governing the Use of University Facilities and Grounds are to be applied on a content neutral basis whenever University facilities and grounds are used outside of the classroom context and are to be interpreted in a manner consistent with the basic commitment of the University to free speech and dissent.

RECOGNIZED UNIVERSITY ORGANIZATIONS, GROUPS OR FACULTY/STAFF

1. Priority in scheduling and use of University facilities or grounds for purposes of distributing literature is given to recognized University Organizations and Groups.

2. Recognized University Organizations, Groups, Faculty/ Staff or Members of the campus community may utilize sites designated for the sale or distribution of literature, including leaflets, handbills, handouts, newspapers and other written material when not in connection with a scheduled University event. University facilities must be reserved in advance by submitting a formal request online at <http://events.kean.edu> and in accord with general University scheduling procedures at least five (5) business days prior to the requested use.
3. Recognized University Organizations, Groups, Faculty/ Staff or Members of the campus community must notify The Miron Student Center Operations & Event Management Office (MSC 6) of their request to use University facilities or grounds in connection with a scheduled university event at least five (5) business days prior to the date of requested use. All use will be subject to review in accord with the Standards for Evaluating Requests for Use of University Facilities and Grounds and to the General Procedures Governing Use of Facilities and Grounds. In the event of scheduling conflicts or other disruption to the orderly operation of the University, the University reserves the right to change the date, time and location of the distribution and if necessary, cancel the event.

4. In order to avoid scheduling conflicts, and allow sufficient time to evaluate space, security, parking, staffing, and other needs and to plan and organize the allocation of University resources, Recognized University Organizations, Groups, Faculty/Staff or Members of the campus are encouraged to complete the request for demonstration and distribution of literature form and return it to the Miron Student Center Operations & Event Management Office, between the hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, in accord with regular University scheduling procedures and in the case of any sale, must comply with the requirements of the Independent Vendor Policy. All use is subject to review in accordance with the Standards for Evaluating Requests for Use of University Facilities and Grounds and the General Procedures Governing the Use of University Facilities and Grounds.

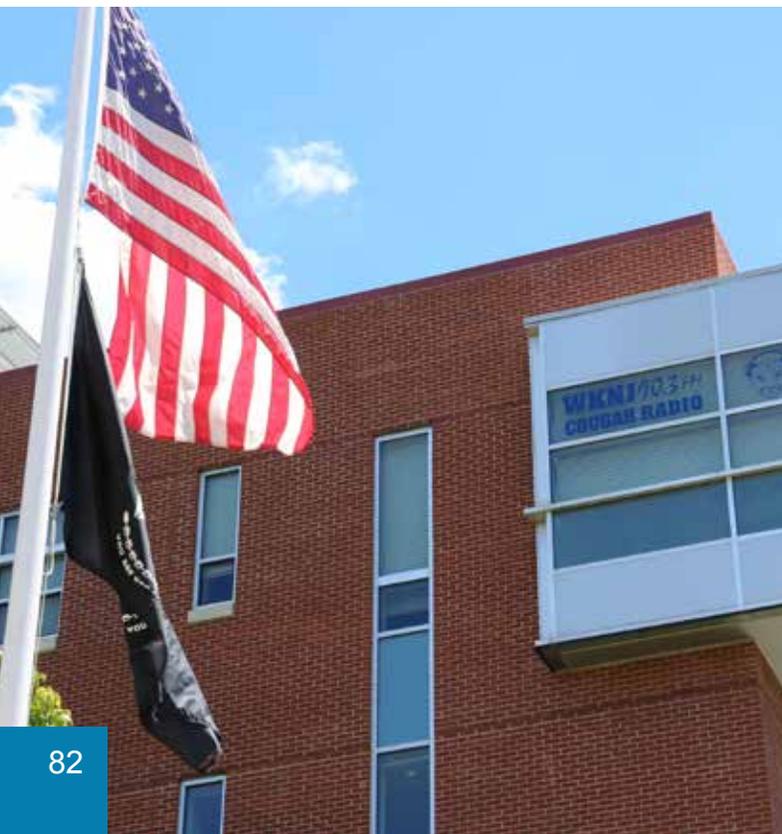

EXTERNAL ORGANIZATION, GROUP, OR INDIVIDUAL

1. External Organizations, Groups, or Individuals must obtain written permission to sell or distribute literature including leaflets, handbills, handouts, newspapers and other written material when not in connection with a scheduled University event from the Office of University Relations, in accord with regular University scheduling procedures and in the case of any sale, must comply with the requirements of the Independent Vendor Policy.

2. Written confirmation must then be brought to the Miron Student Center Operations & Event Management Office, located on the first floor of the Miron Student Center (MSC-6) between the hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday; to schedule an appropriate date, time and location to distribute their Literature.
3. In order to avoid scheduling conflicts, and allow sufficient time to evaluate space, security, parking, staffing, and other needs and to plan and organize the allocation of University resources, individuals. Application must be made six working days prior to a scheduled University event, or six weeks prior to the requested date if not in conjunction with a University event, in accordance with the Standards for Evaluating Requests for Use of University Facilities and Grounds and the General Procedures Governing the Use of University Facilities and Grounds.
4. The University reserves the right to designate time, place and manner restrictions on the distribution of literature.
5. The total number of people or organizations, distributing or selling literature on-campus or at any one location may be limited. In accordance with general University policy, preference will be given to members of the University community. In acting on requests from non-campus groups or representatives, those sponsored by recognized University organizations or groups will be given preference.
6. Harassment of members of the University community by those selling or distributing literature, or sale or distribution outside of the hours or locations for which permission has been granted, will be cause for immediate revocation of permission and could result in a suspension of future usage privileges.
7. Decisions regarding requests under these guidelines will need to take into account both any special circumstances that may relate to University activities and the burden that permission to sell or distribute literature may place on the University's security force, administrative staff and facilities.
8. If special circumstances are presented, upon request, shorter timelines and different locations will be considered at the discretion of the University.
9. The appeal procedures detailed in the General Procedures Governing Use of Facilities and Grounds apply in the event of a challenge to a decision by the University.

GUIDELINES FOR USE OF UNIVERSITY FACILITIES FOR DISSENT & DEMONSTRATION

Kean University recognizes its commitment to the exercise of free speech and dissent by its faculty, staff and students. Demonstration and dissent is subject to the need that the University operate in an orderly fashion. Normal delivery of the academic and educational program is the University's priority concern. All use is subject to review in accord with the Standards for Evaluating Requests for Use of University Facilities and Grounds and to the General Procedures

Governing Use of University Facilities and Grounds.

1. Priority in scheduling and use of University facilities or grounds for purposes of dissent or demonstration is given to recognized University organizations and groups.
2. Kean University sponsored organizations, groups or members of the University community are encouraged to complete the request for demonstration and distribution of literature form and return it to the Miron Student Center Operations & Event Management Office; prior to the requested use, so as to permit the University to designate appropriate time, place, and manner restrictions. If in connection with a scheduled University event, requests to schedule must be made 72 hours prior to the requested use. If not in connection with a University event, requests to schedule must be made in accord with normal University scheduling procedures.
3. In order to allow the University sufficient time to evaluate space, security, parking, staff and other needs, and to plan and organize its allocation of resources, requests for use of University facilities or grounds by organizations, groups or Individuals not affiliated with the University for dissent or demonstration must be made to the Office of University Relations in accordance with regular scheduling procedures for external groups. If the use requested is in connection with a regularly scheduled University event, requests must be made at least ten (10) working days prior to the event.
4. Kean University reserves the right to designate time, place and manner restrictions on individuals, groups or organizations registering dissent or to disperse any such group where there is significant, imminent danger to public safety. The University reserves the right to change the date, time or location of a dissent or demonstration, in the event of a scheduling conflict, or if the requested use would disrupt the orderly operation of the University, consistent with the Procedures Governing the Use of University Facilities and Grounds.
5. If special circumstances are presented, upon request, shorter timelines and different locations will be considered at the discretion of the University.
6. The name of the individual authorized by the organization to act on its behalf should be provided to the University along with the number of individuals wishing to attend the event. Space will be allotted within physical limitations and subject to the public safety and operational needs of the University.
7. Due to limited space, public safety concerns and/or the operational needs of the University, the University reserves the right to limit the number of protesters on campus as well as the number of protesters, demonstrators or counter-demonstrators from any one group or at any one location. The University also reserves the right to limit the number of protesters so as to afford other groups the opportunity to express their views. In accordance with general University policy, priority will be given to recognized University organizations and groups.
8. Violations of these procedures and/or interference with a speaker's ability to communicate, or the audience's ability to hear or see the speaker will be addressed through the Student Code of Conduct procedures or legal process. Failure to comply with the request to cease the disruption will result in removal, a notice of suspension during which time a hearing will take place in accordance with the Universities Student Code of Conduct procedures, and/or civil or criminal process.
9. Requestors are strictly responsible for any damage done to property attributable to the individual applicant, group or organization.
10. Tents, tarps, and all other forms of camping equipment are prohibited.
11. Appeals of the University's decision regarding use of facilities and/or grounds, including denials or limitations on use, may be made in accord with the appeal procedures detailed in the General Procedures Governing the Use of University Facilities and Grounds.

GENERAL PROCEDURES GOVERNING USE OF UNIVERSITY FACILITIES AND GROUNDS

1. All events held on Kean University property must comply with federal, state, local laws and University policies. It is the responsibility of the sponsoring organizations, groups or individuals to monitor events and ensure that all aspects of the event are in complete accordance with laws and University regulations. This includes fire and safety regulations, including those related to capacity and access.
2. Security at events is subject to the sole and exclusive control of Kean University. Searches of individuals must be conducted by authorized law enforcement personnel. Use of University grounds or facilities in connection with events requiring security is conditioned upon timely execution of a security agreement approved by the University.
3. University representatives must have full access to all rooms, facilities, and grounds utilized by any group, organization or individual at all times.
4. Use of University facilities or grounds must not interfere with or disrupt educational, academic or other University activities. It is the responsibility of any organization, group or individual seeking use of University facilities and grounds to ensure that the proposed use is conducted consistent with these procedures.
5. Organizations, groups or individuals using Kean University facilities and grounds cannot intimidate, interfere, or discriminate on the basis of age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, race, color, creed, national origin, physical handicap, or political activity, or union activity.
6. Appropriate attire must be worn in all campus facilities at all times, including shirt, shoes, pants/shorts/skirts.
7. Pets/animals are prohibited in Kean University buildings except for those allowed per the Americans with Disabilities Act.
8. No program may be held on University property without

- express authorization from Kean University.
9. Events may not be advertised prior to receiving a formal event confirmation and/or prior to execution and approval of a license agreement. Additionally, advertising for any event sponsored by an external organization must clearly state that the activity is "Not a program sponsored by Kean University".
 10. Kean University is not responsible for materials, equipment, etc. that users or sponsoring organizations may leave in reserved or public spaces unattended. Users who choose to leave materials before and after events accept complete responsibility for the security of the items.
 11. Sponsoring organizations, groups or individuals are responsible for any and all damages and cleaning beyond that considered to be "normal wear and tear". Any organizations, groups or individuals that show disregard for facilities and/or equipment may be charged additional fees, be denied further use of University facilities, and/or be subject to the appropriate sanctions. Sponsoring organizations, groups or individuals assume responsibility for any damage done to facilities or equipment by their guests. Kean University accepts no responsibility for damage to, or loss of any merchandise or personal property.
 12. Smoking in all Kean University buildings is prohibited.
 13. The burning of candles and incense are strictly prohibited in all Kean University buildings.
 14. Windows may not be covered in accordance with fire code regulations.
 15. University property (furniture, displays, equipment, etc.) may not be moved or removed from spaces without express written permission.
 16. Sponsoring organizations, groups or individuals are expected to leave facilities in the same condition in which they were found. This includes surface cleaning after events, removal of balloons, decorations, signs and advertisements. Equipment should be powered down and /or returned to its original location and the space should be cleared of all trash and debris. Additional fees will be assessed if the sponsoring organization, group or individual fails to comply with this requirement.
 17. Facilities users shall:
 - a. Adhere to all scheduling guidelines.
 - b. Follow all guidelines regarding the use of the facilities and the posting of publicity related to an event.
 - c. Comply with all University policies and guidelines, federal, state and local laws before, during and after the event.
 - d. Pay in full all charges due to Kean University for the facilities' use and the provision of ancillary services.
 18. In addition to the requirements above, all externally-sponsored events shall also:
 - a. Enter into a license agreement with Kean University for the use of the facilities, services, and resources.
 - b. Provide proof of Liability Insurance.
 - c. Pay a deposit of 20% of the estimated fees associated with the use of facilities, services, and resources.
 19. University organizations, groups or individuals may not act as sponsors/agents for off campus vendors or organizations in order to avoid fees/charges for the use of facilities. Organizations, groups or individuals that attempt to misrepresent an event for this purpose will be held responsible for paying external rates and may have reservation privileges suspended.
 20. Organizations, groups or individuals using Kean University facilities and grounds cannot intimidate, interfere, or discriminate on the basis of age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, race, color, creed, national origin, physical handicap, or political activity, or union activity.
 21. University facilities must be reserved in advance by submitting a formal request online at <http://events.kean.edu>. Space is approved on a first-to-schedule basis; however, there are times during the year that are historically busy. Limited resources may make it difficult to accommodate requests for space during these times.
 - a. Student groups are restricted from scheduling spaces during the last week of the semester.
 22. Violations of these procedures will be addressed through internal disciplinary procedures, legal process, and/or revocation of usage privileges. Interference with a speaker's ability to communicate or the audience's ability to hear or see the speaker will result in a request to cease the activity. Failure to comply with the request to cease the disruption will result in removal and a notice of suspension during which time a hearing will take place in accordance with University disciplinary procedures.
 23. Inappropriate or threatening physical contact, any threat of physical contact, malicious damage to property, actions that disrupt the freedom of movement of others and violations of civil and criminal laws are prohibited and will result in removal, internal disciplinary procedures and/or other civil or criminal process.
 24. Possession of any weapons, as defined under N.J.S.A. 2C:39-1, on campus is strictly prohibited. Violators of this prohibition are subject to immediate arrest and criminal prosecution.
 25. Applicable tax laws and copyright laws must be observed. Use of the Kean University name, emblem or identity, for commercial activity will not be permitted without approval.
 26. Events may be moved to a different location upon the occurrence of:
 - a. Circumstances beyond the control of the University, such as facility infrastructure disruption and/or weather related conditions, or
 - b. Unanticipated needs of the University for use of the space, and to best utilize space and resources, or
 - c. Substantial changes in the needs or size of the scheduled event, or
 - d. Subsequent disruption to concurrent events.
 27. If an event interferes with traffic flow or access to buildings, the University will make reasonable efforts to control traffic flow and access to buildings before moving an event. If a move becomes necessary, the University will move the event to either an agreed-to location or the nearest suitable location. Kean University is not responsible for any costs incurred by a user resulting from a change in location. The University reserves the right to change, alter or modify any scheduling request based upon the following considerations:

- a. Academic schedule and program
 - b. Vehicular traffic
 - c. Space and/or staff limitations
 - d. Parking limitations
 - e. Public safety and security
 - f. Orderly operation of the University
 - g. Previously scheduled events
 - h. Construction activities
 - i. Number of individuals expected to attend the event or interested in attending the event
 - j. Weather, equipment failure, or other unforeseen events
28. During an event scheduled outside the regular operating hours of a facility, only those directly involved or attending the event may remain in the facility.
 29. Possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages is prohibited without prior approval.
 30. Sound amplification on the grounds of the campus will only be allowed in the discretion of the University.
 31. These procedures will be applied consistent with any collective bargaining agreement applicable to the University.
 32. Initial appeals of the University's decision regarding use of facilities and/or grounds, including denials or limitations on use, may be made, in the case of student groups, to the Vice President for Student Affairs and in the case of faculty or staff, to the Vice President for Academic Affairs. In the case of organizations, groups or individuals not affiliated with the University, appeals of the decision may be made to the Office of Conference and Event Services.
 33. Appeals from the decision of the Vice President for Academic Affairs, or the Vice President of Student Affairs or the Office of Conference and Event Services, as appropriate, must be made as follows:
 - a. A written letter of appeal must be submitted to the appropriate office within three (3) working days after the initial denial of the request for space.
 - b. Upon receipt of the letter, the appropriate office must review the application and render a decision within three (3) working days of the appeal. In the event the proposed timing of the event does not allow sufficient time to submit an appeal, the University will consider expedited appeals.

STANDARDS FOR EVALUATING REQUESTS FOR USE OF UNIVERSITY FACILITIES AND GROUNDS

The University expects use of University facilities and grounds to advance or promote the academic, educational and/or cultural mission of the University. The following standards will be considered in scheduling use of University facilities and grounds:

- the University's interest in maintaining order on campus;
- the University's interest in ensuring public safety and security;
- the University's interest in preventing commercial exploitation of students of the University;
- the University's interest in preserving residential tranquility

- in residence halls and in the surrounding community;
- the University's interest in preserving its facilities and grounds;

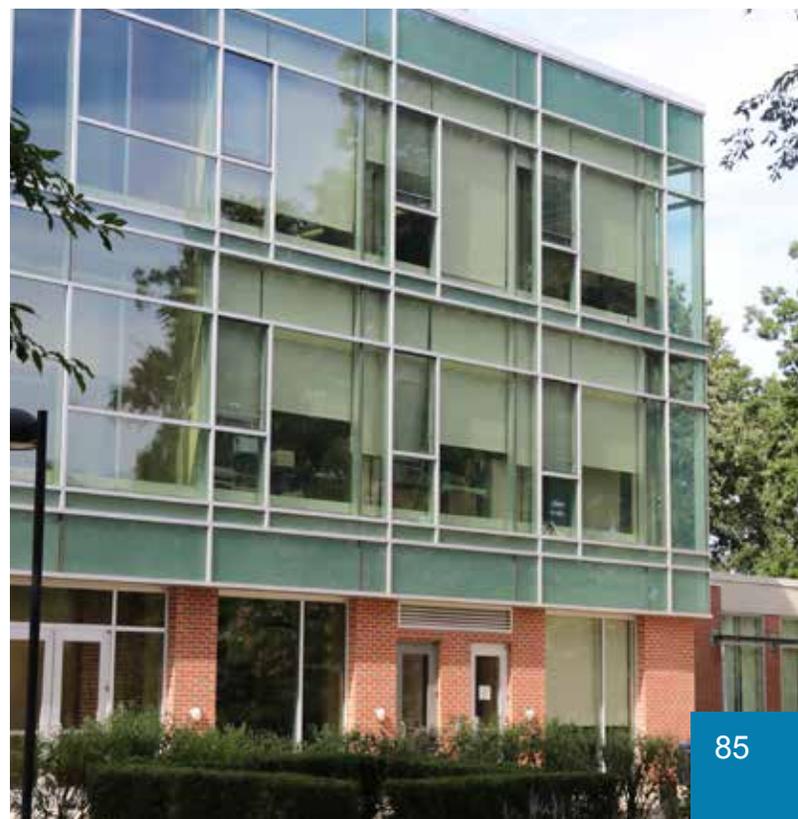

Additional factors include: parking limitations, academic schedule, vehicular traffic, scheduling conflicts, size of the event, and staffing needs, and ongoing construction activities.

CAMPUS LIVING: WHAT'S IT ALL ABOUT?

IT'S ALL ABOUT COMMUNITY . . .

According to Millard Fuller, founder and president of Habitat for Humanity International, for a community to be whole and healthy it must be based on people's love and concern for each other. In the residence life community, our staff serves as role models, encouraging residents to take care of one another to ensure the community remains unified and strong. Kean University's resident population is approximately 2,015. The residential population is comprised of full-time students from diverse backgrounds and a variety of interests.

There are eight furnished residence halls that offer a variety of living arrangements including co-ed floors, single-gender floors, quiet floors and living learning communities. First-year students can enjoy two options: a suite-style living environment, with two rooms and a bathroom in the suite and an apartment style with semi-kitchen and living room area. The other residence halls house upper-class students in apartment style living arrangements. These apartments house four to six students in an environment that has a living room/semi-kitchen area, two – three bedrooms and a bathroom. The semi-kitchen areas include a full size refrigerator, countertop/sink, cabinet storage space and a microwave oven. Residents are required to purchase a meal plan that allows them to partake in the all-you-care-to-eat dining facility on campus.

IT'S ALL ABOUT OPPORTUNITIES . . .

According to the United States Achievement Academy, residential students who live on campus are more likely to achieve a high grade point average, more likely to complete their degree in four years, and more likely to apply for admission to graduate school. While these overall advantages are beneficial, here are some other advantages that will affect a resident's daily living:

Accessibility – Living on campus gives residents quick and easy access to the library, classrooms, computer labs, academic and support services, and classmates. Living close means residents feel a strong connection to the University and keep informed about what's going on.

Personal development – Living on campus gives residents freedom to make many choices. Making decisions in turn means learning to live with the consequences. Due to the nature of the living-and-learning environment in the halls, residents also enhance time management skills and explore career development, identity development, moral and spiritual development, and wellness issues.

Exploring diversity – Since the residence halls are a multicultural environment, residents learn tolerance and appreciation of individual, cultural and racial differences. Residents have an opportunity to formally and informally learn about different lifestyles. Formal programs are planned specifically for residents as well as the informal congregating of students that occurs in the halls. These interactions ultimately help enhance residents' interpersonal skills and give them a chance to experience real-life situations in a controlled environment.

IT'S ALL ABOUT SAFETY . . .

PERSONAL

All residence hall lobbies are staffed 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Guests must be escorted by a resident at all times and must be approved for access into the halls by security staff members from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 a.m. All guests must leave the buildings by 3 a.m. Overnight guests are permitted Wednesdays through Saturdays with consent from roommates and approval from the hall staff. Security measures are enhanced by additional camera surveillance on each floor, elevator and lobby area.

All residents can protect their personal property by keeping their doors locked, making a list of their property and not leaving property alone in crowded places (such as lobbies, hallways and lounges).

COMMUNITY

Residents are encouraged to protect themselves and neighbors in the halls by doing the following:

- Keeping lobby doors locked and refusing access to someone not carrying residence hall identification
- Keeping room/apartment doors locked at all times
- Alerting staff when unidentified visitors are around
- Learning and abiding by security and guest procedures

FIRE

Residential Student Services staff members perform mandatory fire safety training for all residents at the beginning of each semester. All residence life buildings have full sprinkler protection. In addition, all residence life buildings have a fully addressable fire alarm system with smoke detectors throughout. Fire extinguishers are located in all building hallways and stairwells. During the training, staff members teach residents how to prevent fires and how to evacuate the building.

As an extra measure of security for our community, digital video cameras have been installed in the lobby area of each residence hall. This security initiative was implemented as a means to maintain a record of behavior and/or activity that does not meet community living standards and may be in violation of New Jersey State Law, the Kean University Student Code of Conduct, and Office of Residential Student Services Handbook.

This information will remain confidential and will be utilized for investigative purposes by University officials including but not limited to Campus Police, the Office of Student Affairs, and the Office of Residential Student Services. In addition, a guest monitoring system has been installed to monitor and record guest visitation in the residence halls. The program will promote a positive quality of life for all students.

As community members, your cooperation and assistance in this endeavor is expected and appreciated. As always, should you become aware of any suspicious persons or behavior, we ask that you contact Campus Police or the Residential Student Services staff.

IT'S ALL ABOUT LEARNING...

EDUCATIONAL

The Office of Residential Student Services sponsors programming activities that helps to create an environment of living and learning in the residence halls. This series helps to enrich student development through educational programs addressing contemporary issues. Tutoring and mentoring programs are also available in the residential halls.

IT'S ALL ABOUT SERVICE...

In order to accommodate the various needs of the residential population, the residence halls offer a variety of programs and services including:

- A 25 passenger van that frequents local food markets, department stores and train stations.
- Internet access in each residence hall room for each student. Students can also connect to the wireless network installed in each of the residence halls. In

■ The 2017-2018 Annual Campus Security and Fire Safety Report

In addition, students may also use the 24 hour computer lab located in the New Upperclass Residence Hall.

- Cable television system that provides approximately 150 channels.
- Coinless laundry equipment in each residence hall.
- Telephone system in each bedroom equipped with voicemail and caller identification services.

IT'S ALL ABOUT RESPECT...

One of the biggest concerns residents anticipate is the relationship they will have with their new roommate(s). Open and honest communication helps maintain a positive relationship with one's roommate(s). Residents are faced with the challenge of working on skills such as compromising, negotiating, and making adjustments that will affect other aspects of their personal and professional lives. Following is a "Roommate's Bill of Rights," which is made available to every resident when he or she moves into the residence halls:

A ROOMMATE'S BILL OF RIGHTS

- Reasonable undisturbed study time
- Reasonable undisturbed sleep time
- Respect for my belongings
- A reasonably clean, healthful environment
- Free access at all times to my building and room
- Personal privacy
- Guests who respect my roommate's rights
- Reasonable use of shared equipment, such as the telephone, lights and windows
- Freedom from physical and emotional assault
- Self-expression free from guilt or intimidation

IT'S ALL ABOUT SUPPORT...

Qualified and experienced professional and peer staff members are hired each year to assist residents with their adjustment to on-campus community living. All Residential Student Services staff members participate in approximately 50 hours of training sessions covering human relations, substance abuse, mental health issues, crisis management, conflict mediation/resolution, fire safety, communication skills, customer service, programming and community/team building. Each residence hall is staffed by a Residence Hall Director, Resident Assistants, Student Security Staff Members, and Community Assistants.

In order to provide the most efficient service to the residents, Residential Student Services staff coverage is available in all residence halls 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Resident Assistants serve as peer mentors to the residents. These students are upper-class residents who act as liaisons between the residents and the Office of Residential Student Services.

The Residence Hall Directors are responsible for the supervision of the hall's peer mentoring staff, as well as the maintenance and management of their respective building. Residence Hall Directors are student development enthusiasts and actively participate in the education of students outside of the classroom. Each Residence Hall Director's office is located on the first floor of his or her hall's community center.

IT'S ALL ABOUT GETTING INVOLVED... RESIDENT HALL COUNCIL

The Resident Hall Councils are the official elected student governing body of the residence halls and were established to promote cooperation between the students and the administrative personnel regarding on-campus affairs. This is an excellent opportunity to get involved, help plan events, and develop leadership skills.

RESIDENCE LIFE LEADERSHIP POSITIONS

The Office of Residential Student Services provides several leadership opportunities for students within the residence halls. These positions include Resident Assistants, Desk Managers, Desk Service Representatives, ACCESS Tutors, Computer Lab/Game Room Assistants, Community Assistants and Customer Service Representatives. Students holding these positions undergo weeks of training in preparation for the various responsibilities each position entails.

KEAN UNIVERSITY BEHAVIORAL INTERVENTION TEAM FOR STUDENTS (KUBIT)

KUBIT is an acronym for the Kean University Behavioral Intervention Team. KUBIT was formed to address the rising tide of student mental health issues and disruptive behavior. KUBIT is chaired by the Vice-President for Student Affairs and consists of the following members: Director of the Counseling & Disability Services; Director of the Office of Residence Life; Director of the Health Services; and Director of the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct. KUBIT meets on a regular basis in an effort to track "red flags" before a crisis arises. Red flags are warning signals raised by a student that come to the attention of members of the campus community.

HEALTH SERVICES

The Kean University Health Services strives to promote a healthy campus community. Our Nurse Practitioners and Physicians provide confidential services treating illness and injuries along with wellness exams such as women's and men's health and nutrition counseling. We will also make appropriate referrals as needed. Our mission is to complement the educational mission of the University by removing health-related barriers to learning and promote optimal wellness. This enables the student to make informed decisions about health related concerns, and empowering students to be self-directed and well-informed consumers of health care services. Health services is available to all enrolled full and part-time undergraduate and graduate students. For more information please visit the Health Services web page at www.kean.edu/offices/health-services.

MAKING AN APPOINTMENT

Students are encouraged to make an appointment via PyraMED (<http://kean.studenthealthportal.com>). PyraMED allows students to access, control, and view their medical information —confidentially. The student must begin by registering on PyraMED with their Kean University ID number (use all the zeros) and their date of birth.

THE KEAN COUNSELING CENTER

KEAN COUNSELING CENTER AND THE OFFICE OF DISABILITY SERVICES

The Kean Counseling Center (KCC) provides counseling, support and psychoeducational programs and activities designed to improve students' psychological and emotional health in order to help students have a positive and productive university experience. The KCC provides individual and/or group psychotherapy services and programs to address: personal developmental issues related to family concerns, interpersonal relationship problems, childhood trauma, sexual identity concerns, self-esteem issues, depression, anxiety, sexual misconduct/assault or rape, and/or alcohol/drug screening and education. Counseling services are provided by Licensed Social Workers, Licensed Psychologists, Licensed Clinical Alcohol and Drug Counselors, Professional Counselors or Master's level clinicians, under the supervision of professional staff. A part-time Board Certified psychiatrist is available for consultation when further evaluation and/or medication are needed. All services are free of charge and confidential for Kean University students.

For more information, view the website at www.kean.edu/offices/counseling-center.

The Office of Disability Services provides assistance and accommodations for students with learning, physical, medical and/or psychological disabilities. The University adheres to the requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. Every effort is made to provide students with an equal opportunity to participate in all aspects of college life. Services provided through the Office of Disability Services can include mentoring, academic, career and personal advisement and adaptive testing. Other services provided include instruction in the use of adaptive technology and referral to other University services such as tutoring, counseling and diagnostic testing. Classroom, testing and housing accommodations may be provided to students who demonstrate a need for these accommodations through proper documentation. The Office of Disability Services strives to support students in developing the necessary skills for becoming independent, responsible and successful learners.

KEAN COUNSELING CENTER - TIPS FOR HELPING STUDENTS

COUNSELING SERVICES

The Kean Counseling Center is designed to be an essential resource for students seeking assistance in dealing with mental/emotional difficulties. Common areas of concern may include:

- Family difficulties
- Depression
- Anxiety
- Interpersonal and romantic relationship difficulties
- Mental health issues that adversely impinge on academic performance

STUDENTS IN DISTRESS

Many students are able to adjust to difficulties in college on their own or with support from family and friends. However, there may be occasions that indicate the need for professional help. You may be in a position to identify and refer students who require additional assistance.

WARNING SIGNALS

- Marked decline in quality of coursework, grades or class participation
- Incomplete or missing assignments
- Memory loss or trouble concentrating
- Repeated requests for extensions, incompletes or withdrawals
- Increased absenteeism or tardiness
- Marked change in the pattern of interaction: anxious, avoidant, distracted, argumentative
- Depression, lethargy, poor hygiene, sudden weight change, sleeping in class, bizarre, aggressive, morbid or suicidal comments
- Erratic behavior, sudden mood swings, inappropriate anger, hostility and irritability
- Statements in a student's paper that arouse concerns about depression, suicide, an abusive relationship, excessive anger, violent thoughts or other issues
- Comments about alcohol or drug use
- Prolonged sad, hopelessness or lowered self esteem
- Talk of suicide, either directly or indirectly such as, "I won't be around to take that exam anyway" or "I'm not worried about getting a job, I won't need one."

TIPS FOR HELPING TROUBLED STUDENTS

- Choose a place where you can talk quietly without interruptions. Even a few minutes of your undivided time can provide encouragement.
- Be honest and focus on the specific signs that alerted you to a possible problem.
- Remain calm, compassionate and willing to listen. Be aware that the student could respond in a variety of ways. Don't take negative, indifferent or hostile responses as wasted effort.
- Provide the student with the telephone number of the Kean Counseling Center. Reiterate that services are free and confidential.
- Explain to the student that counseling is not just for "people in crisis" and that many people have problems in their daily lives.
- If appropriate, ask for an agreement to make an appointment by a certain date. It might be helpful to ask the student later whether he or she followed through. Keep communication open by telling the student that you are willing to listen.
- Offer the student the option of calling the Kean Counseling Center from your office to initiate the referral, so that a public commitment to get help will have been made.

MAKE A REFERRAL WHEN

- If there is any indication of suicidal or homicidal ideation, intent or plan. Call the police if there is an immediate threat to safety
- The problem is more serious than you are comfortable handling.
- You have talked with the student already and you feel that he or she may need more assistance.

- The student admits there is a problem, but doesn't want to talk about it.
- The student asks for information or assistance that you are unable to provide.

Remember...

In general, you cannot force a student to seek professional help; do not try to coerce, threaten or use deception, however well intentioned, to persuade a student to come to the Kean Counseling Center or use any other mental health resource. Accept that the student may not be ready to seek help.

HOWEVER, danger to self or others is always an exception to this. Appropriate referrals for these students are of paramount importance!

SUICIDE WARNING SIGNS

Seek help as soon as possible by contacting the Kean Counseling Center, by calling the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-TALK (8255) or by calling the Police if you or anyone you know exhibits any of the following signs:

- Threatening to hurt or kill oneself or talking about wanting to hurt or kill oneself
- Looking for ways to kill oneself by seeking access to firearms, available pills, or other means
- Talking or writing about death, dying, or suicide when these actions are out of the ordinary for the person
- Feeling hopeless
- Feeling rage or uncontrolled anger or seeking revenge
- Acting reckless or engaging in risky activities – seemingly without thinking
- Feeling trapped – like there's no way out
- Increasing alcohol or drug use
- Withdrawing from friends, family, and society
- Feeling anxious, agitated, or unable to sleep or sleeping all the time
- Experiencing dramatic mood changes
- Seeing no reason for living or having no sense of purpose in life

WHAT TO DO IF YOU THINK A PERSON IS HAVING SUICIDAL THOUGHTS

Call the Kean Counseling Center (Downs Hall, Room 127; 908-737-4850) during business hours for consultation and support or contact the Kean Campus Police Department (908-737-4800 or 911) for transport to the nearest mental health screening center. For Union County, the nearest mental health screening center is the Trinitas Hospital Psychiatric Emergency Room and can be reached at 908-994-7131. The student should not be left alone while awaiting transport. Take all suicide threats and all suicide attempts seriously. A past history of suicide attempts is one of the strongest risk factors for death by suicide.

Asking a suicidal person about their plans or intentions won't increase the person's suicidal thoughts. It may give you information that indicates how strongly the person has thought about killing themselves and may help them feel supported.
