

SPRING 2026 TRAVELEARN

ART, RESISTANCE, AND PEACEBUILDING IN COLOMBIA

MARCH 7, 2026 - MARCH 14, 2026

Join us! This one-week travel-learn course immerses students in the vibrant history, art, and activism of Bogotá, Colombia. The program explores how creative expression has fueled social movements and peacebuilding efforts, with particular attention to the country's long history of armed conflict. Through an intersectional lens, students will examine the role of activism in advancing human rights, preserving memory, and fostering social justice across lines of class, race, gender, and sexuality.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

- Tour of La Candelaria Historical Neighborhood and Graffiti Art Tour
- Visit Museo Botero
- Visit Botanical Garden
- Visit to Monserrate at Sunset
- Attend a performance and art workshop

INFO SESSION

Thursday Oct. 9th
during College Hour

APPLY NOW

Contacts:

CIS
keanabroad@kean.edu

Professor Nathalia Hernández Ochoa
natherna@kean.edu