

Employer Survey

Hello Superintendents/Administrators/Principals,

Kean University College of Education is committed to enhancing the quality of its teacher candidates. We need your input to produce the best teachers for New Jersey students. Please complete this brief survey by clicking on one of the buttons for each statement to select your level of agreement with the statement. This survey is best viewed on a desktop or laptop computer.

Kind Regards

Faculty at the Kean University College of Education

Employer Survey

Kean University prepares its graduates

		Highly Satisfied	Satisfied	Somewhat Satisfied	Not at All Satisfied
1.	to understand student learning and development
2.	to respect the diversity of the students they teach
3.	to know and understand the content area for which they have instructional responsibility
4.	to understand and use content-specific instructional strategies to effectively teach the central concepts and skills of the discipline
5.	to be knowledgeable about assessment types, their purposes, and the data they generate
6.	to analyze data to monitor student progress and learning
7.	to use data to plan, differentiate, and modify instruction

8.	to align their instructional goals and activities with school and district priorities
9.	to differentiate instruction to support the learning needs of all students
10.	to treat students fairly and establish an environment that is respectful, supportive, and caring
11.	to maintain an environment that is conducive to learning for all students
12.	to communicate clearly and effectively
13.	to collaborate effectively with other teachers, administrators, and district staff
14.	to understand, uphold, and follow professional ethics, policies, and legal codes of professional conduct
15.	to assume responsibility for professional growth

Acknowledgment: This survey is based on surveys developed by the Ohio Department of Higher Education in collaboration with faculty and administrators in Ohio Colleges of Education.