

History Symposium

Moderated by: Faculty from Department of History

---

“William Livingston and the Organization of his Book List”

Victor Bretones

“Medieval Chivalry’s Legacy for Today’s Classrooms”

Davian Brown

“Avignon Papacy: History and Legend”

William Corman

“An Examination of William Livingston’s Personal Philosophy and Morality”

William Corman

“Kean Student Research Advocating Human Rights: Looking at Student Research, Twitter, Social Media, and Personal Human Rights Declarations”

Amaya Erawoc, Adelina Iscoa, Breanna Hernandez, Jemychelle Todorovich, Karen Garcia de la Cruz, Aaron D'Costa and Chelsey Jaipersaud

“Christine De Pizan: Medieval Feminist”

Judith Geker

“William Livingston's Hypocrisies and Idiosyncrasies in New Jersey's Quest for Abolition”

Fayette Kaledzi

“History and Legends surrounding the Knights Templar”

Humberto Marmolejo

“William Livingston Diplomatic Relations with the French between 1777 and 1778”

Diego Mazariego

“The Whitewashed Middle Ages: Revisiting the African and Islamic Involvement in Medieval Europe”

Christian Mills

“Moderating 18th Century Whig Ideology: William Livingston's Resistance to Revolutionary Fervor”

Christian Mills

“The Evolution of William Livingston's View on Slavery”

Sandra Palma

“William Livingston and Domestic Policy”

Joseph Parillo

“A People Divided: The Rise and Fall of the Berlin Wall”

Sarah Roberts

“Recapturing Medieval Planet Mythology: The Case of C.S. Lewis”

Nicole Skalenko

“A Comparative Analysis of William Livingston’s and Other Founding Fathers’ Book Lists”

Nicole Skalenko

“William Livingston’s Revolutionary Propaganda: A 1778- 1779 Timeline”

Nicole Skalenko

“The Children’s Crusade: History and Legend”

Christopher Thoms-Bauer

“An Analysis of an 18th-Century Classical Education through William Livingston”

Christopher Thoms-Bauer

“An Analysis of William Livingston’s Library and the Ideals of the Enlightenment Thinker”

Elizabeth Thorsen