

GENERAL EDUCATION LEARNING COMMUNITY

MIGRATION COHORT B: ALL MAJORS

We will focus on human migration through time, place, and circumstances, including the causes and implications of migration and their impact on cultures, societies, and economies. Topics include transition from high school to college, language and migration, US/Mexico migration issues, among others. Students will gain insight into their personal migration stories.

GE PILOT PROGRAM

GE02

DATE & TIME: T/TH
9:30-10:45 AM
INSTRUCTOR:
ABBY MAGUIRE

ENG 1025: INTRO TO COLLEGE COMPOSITION

Students will be introduced to academic expository writing and develop writing, reading, and critical thinking processes used across the college curriculum.

GE02

DATE & TIME: T/TH
11:00-12:15 PM
INSTRUCTOR:
ABBY MAGUIRE

CS 0412: INTRO TO ACADEMIC READING

Students will develop proficiency in reading as well as be introduced to the content of course textbooks and the college reading level expected performance.

GE02

DATE & TIME: W
9:30-12:15 PM
INSTRUCTOR:
KATHLEEN LODGE

MATH 0901: BASIC ALGEBRA

Students will be learning and discussing topics such as operations with real numbers, simplifying algebraic expressions and linear equations. The course will also cover polynomials and graphing.

GE02

DATE & TIME: M
9:30-12:15 PM
INSTRUCTOR:
MAHCHID NAMAZI

GE 1855: FIRST YEAR SEMINAR

Students will develop critical reading and thinking skills as well as build community through the class experience. Each section has a particular theme that all of the covered topics and coursework will resemble.

PETITIONS FOR COURSES:

GE LEARNING COMMUNITY STUDENTS IN ALL MAJORS: MIGRATION THEME