

GENERAL EDUCATION LEARNING COMMUNITY

DEMOCRACY & CIVIC ENGAGEMENT COHORT D: ALL MAJORS

This learning community will provide you with an interactive experiential approach that will prepare you for college-level reading and writing. Students in this learning community will focus on the theme of Civic Engagement, Diversity, and other common issues within a democracy. These collaborative classes will include out-of-classroom adventures and hands-on learning experiences throughout the semester.

GE PILOT PROGRAM

GE04
DATE & TIME: M/TH
9:30-10:45 AM
INSTRUCTOR:
DENA ARGUELLES

ENG 1025: INTRO TO COLLEGE COMPOSITION

Students will be introduced to academic expository writing and develop writing, reading, and critical thinking processes used across the college curriculum.

GE04
DATE & TIME: T/TH
11:00-12:15 PM
INSTRUCTOR:
SHALANDER SAMUELS

GE 1000: TRANSITION TO KEAN

Students learn about university programs and services and develop academic skills to function successfully in the university setting.

GE04
DATE & TIME: M/TH
2:00-3:15 PM
INSTRUCTOR:
KIM DANIEL-ROBINSON

CS 0412: INTRO TO ACADEMIC READING

Students will develop proficiency in reading as well as be introduced to the content of course textbooks and the college reading level expected performance.

GE 1855: FIRST YEAR SEMINAR

Students will develop critical reading and thinking skills as well as build community through the class experience. Each section has a particular theme that all of the covered topics and coursework will resemble.

PETITIONS FOR COURSES:

GE LEARNING COMMUNITY STUDENTS IN ALL MAJORS: DEMOCRACY & CIVIC ENGAGEMENT THEME