

GENERAL EDUCATION LEARNING COMMUNITY

SUSTAINABILITY COHORT E: ALL MAJORS

Our world is on fire. Creating a world that humans and non-humans can live in will require us to understand and communicate the complexity of people and their environments. This cohort's theme of "sustainability" will anchor student's exploration of three interconnected courses:

GE PILOT PROGRAM

GE05

DATE & TIME: T/TH

9:30-10:45 AM

INSTRUCTOR:

MELISSA LIBBEY

ENG 1025: INTRO TO COLLEGE COMPOSITION

Introduction to College Composition will teach students how to communicate clearly and effectively by connecting with our own cultures, and how to define them and contrast them with others.

GE05

DATE & TIME: T

11:00-12:15 PM

INSTRUCTOR:

MELISSA LIBBEY

GE 1000: TRANSITION TO KEAN

Transition to Kean will help acquaint students with resources on campus, and how to get engaged with their broader communities.

GE05

DATE & TIME: M/W

12:30-1:45 PM

INSTRUCTOR:

JAKE CARLSON

SOC 1000: INTRO TO SOCIOLOGY

Introduction to Sociology will focus on how social change happens through social movements and institutions, which must pay attention to the rich diversity of our communities.