Music
Conservatory

The Music Conservatory is the center of the musical arts at Kean University. Students seeking to explore the depth and breadth of musical culture can pursue paths in performance and education, as well as the liberal arts.

B.M. IN MUSIC PERFORMANCE AND PEDAGOGY

A music intensive degree with emphasis on performance and pedagogy, preparing students for careers as performers and/or private studio instructors.

DEGREE PROGRAMS: B.M. IN MUSIC EDUCATION B.M. IN MUSIC PERFORMANCE B.A. IN MUSIC

ACTIVE STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS: NAFME -COLLEGIATE KAPPA KAPPA PSI

Conservatory students benefit, in the classroom, studio and ensembles, from the wealth of talent found in the New York metropolitan area and work with some of the finest performers, scholars and artists—a world-class faculty.

Accredited by the National Association of Schools of Music, Kean University's Music Conservatory has a strong reputation for the preparation of musicians and teachers and boasts an excellent record for placing and directing graduates in or towards fruitful careers in music, education or advanced studies.

B.A. IN MUSIC

Our B.A. in Music has a great deal of elective credits in the spirit of a true liberal arts degree. Many B.A. in Music Majors choose to enroll in minors or double majors in fields such as Broadcast Communication, Media and Film, or Business.

B.M. IN MUSIC EDUCATION

Music education blends the history, theory and practice of instrumental and vocal performance to enrich lives through musical experiences. Music educators awaken musical talent, guide students to become performers, or enhance productions as a broadcast or sound engineer with the power of music.

Our music education graduates can be found teaching the next generation of musicians in classrooms across New Jersey and beyond.
