

Philanthropy & Religion Travelearn

Join us on an enriching journey to Naples!

Discover how philanthropy, religion, and immigration shape public administration in Italy.

Naples, Italy

July 20, 2025 to July 26 2025

The course will examine the topic of human immigration both historically, religiously and in today's world. Students will also be encouraged to examine and discern the ultimate purposes of philanthropy in our daily lives. Travel through Italy to explore firsthand the influence of religion on the practice of philanthropy and charity in various communities.

Includes:

- Airfare
- Transportation
- Accommodation
- Travel Insurance

Don't miss this opportunity to learn, engage, and experience Naples like never before!

Sign up today!

Contact Information:

Dr. Roseanne Mirabella

rmirabel@kean.edu

Center for International Studies:

keanabroad@kean.edu

Apply by: Sunday, February 9, 2025