GENERAL EDUCATION LEARNING COMMMUNITY

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT
COHORT A

We will focus on Civic Engagement in your communities, including potential discussions and projects around local, college, religious, and other communities. Students will use communication, composition, and public administration skills to develop an understanding of civic engagement on a local, community-based level.

GE PILOT PROGRAM

GE 2021: RESEARCH AND TECHNOLOGY

GE01
DATE & TIME: M/TH
12:30-1:45 PM
INSTRUCTOR:
JOSHUA BURNETT

Students will be introduced to the research process by preparing a formal research paper. They will utilize and familiarize themselves with library resources and interdisciplinary approaches to designing, investigating, and reporting research activities.

ID 1500: CRITICAL READING AND COMMUNITY

GE01
DATE & TIME: T/TH
11:00-12:15 PM
INSTRUCTOR:
SHALANDER SAMUELS

Students learn about multiple genres and disciplines in reading. This course encourages deeper understanding, fluency in reading, and application of reading strategies.

PETITIONS FOR COURSES:
GE01 LEARNING COMMUNITY COHORT