

Instructions for Submitting Academic Early Alerts for Fall 2021 Second Half Term Courses on Advise (Kean USA only)

All instructors of Kean USA undergraduate and graduate courses are required to submit Academic Early Alerts (grades and/or comments) for the students enrolled in their courses. These alerts will reflect your assessment of student performance in the beginning of the session.

Academic Early Alerts are meant to provide students with early feedback on how they are performing in your class. These reports will also be shared with students' faculty advisors and with the Center for Advising, Persistence and Success (CAPS) staff who will intervene with those students for whom you submit poor or failing grades/comments. Students whose Academic Early Alerts indicate they are at risk for earning poor final grades will be connected with the appropriate services (e.g., tutoring, workshops, advisement, and/or counseling) to help them improve their academic performance in time to impact their final grades.

Academic Early Alerts are submitted via Advise only. Please view this short video regarding this process. Reports can be submitted, beginning today until the Thursday, December 2 deadline. You will provide the greatest assistance to students and their advisors by submitting progress reports as early as possible within this timeframe.

The students in your class are being notified about the purpose and timing of Academic Early Alerts. That communication will be available here under Latest Advisement Notes tomorrow. Students will receive notification and referrals related to their Academic Early Alerts via Advise as soon as they are entered. These alerts will not appear on students' transcripts or become part of their permanent records. Academic Early Alerts are for immediate, short-term informational/advisement/intervention purposes only. Academic Early Alerts will be replaced by the final grade. Similar to the process previously followed through KeanWISE, instructors may submit a grade*, comment/alert, or both.

*Appropriate grades are A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, D, and F. P (Passing), S (Satisfactory) or U (Unsatisfactory) are also options if the course is a Pass/Fail course. Grades of P, S, U, or F should be accompanied by the appropriate comment(s). Incomplete is not a valid Academic Early Alert.

Thank you for your support of our students and all the best to you this semester.
