WELCOME

Dear Resident Student,

It is our pleasure to welcome you to on-campus living at Kean University. Congratulations on taking this opportunity to expand your educational experiences at Kean by joining our residential community! As you will discover, living in a residence hall is a unique experience. As an active member of the community, you will have an opportunity to work with others to set a standard of living conducive to personal and academic growth.

The Office of Residence Life staff’s goal is to create an environment that supports learning and community development. To accomplish this, we are committed to supporting the differences among individuals within our community and, at the same time, to serving the needs of the University as well as the local and global community in which it exists. Above all, our staff is dedicated to making the residential experience a full and rewarding one for each of you. However, we cannot succeed in this effort alone. You are encouraged to take advantage of the leadership, educational and social opportunities offered to the resident student. We hope that you will participate by planning social and educational programs, initiating contact with your neighbors and floormates, and collaborating with them in building a sense of community.

This handbook is your guide to residence hall policies, procedures, and services. We hope you will assist us in providing an atmosphere of mutual respect through cooperative and responsible behavior. Should you have any questions or suggestions, please know that we are here to assist you in any way that we can.

Sincerely,

The Office of Residence Life

- I will neither exercise nor tolerate discrimination based on race, ethnic origin, gender, disability, age, religion, or sexual orientation. I will not support individuals, organizations, and departments that practice discrimination. I will support each individual community member’s right to fair, unbiased treatment, whether it is in access to education, campus life, employment, or services. I challenge myself and others to recognize the diversity of our community and to incorporate our multifaceted population in our decision-making processes.

ANTI-DISCRIMINATION

Kean University’s residence halls make up a community enriched by diversity. Our goal is for everyone to be assured equality of treatment and opportunity. Insensitive treatment of others based on race, religion, color, sex, age, disability, national origin, or sexual orientation will not be tolerated.

ROOMMATES’ BILL OF RIGHTS

The following Roommates’ Bill of Rights is a reminder to each resident of their responsibility to their roommate. Your enjoyment of life in a residence hall will depend, to a large extent, on the thoughtful consideration that you demonstrate toward each other.

The basic rights of a roommate include:

1. The RIGHT to read and study in one’s room free from undue interference. Unreasonable noise and other distractions inhibit this RIGHT;
2. The RIGHT to sleep without undue disturbance by noise, guest of roommate(s), etc.;
3. The RIGHT to expect that a roommate will respect one’s personal belongings;
4. The RIGHT to a clean environment in which to live;
5. The RIGHT to free access to one’s room and facilities without pressure from the roommate;
6. The RIGHT to privacy;
7. The RIGHT to host guests (with the agreement of your roommate[s]) with the understanding that guests are to respect the rights of the host’s roommate(s) and other hall residents;
8. The RIGHT to be free from fear of intimidation and physical or emotional harm; and
9. The RIGHT to address grievances.

Your Residence Life staff is available for assistance. Remember, to be a mature adult is to accept responsibility for the welfare of others. Only you can assure that you and your roommate(s) enjoy these rights. The personal growth that can be gained by living in a campus community can be enormously enriching and a realistic ground for the future. Students are encouraged to work out and resolve problems with the help of staff members through mediation or roommate/suitemate contracts if the need arises.

THE STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

COMMUNITY STANDARDS & PROCEDURES

The Office of Residence Life is committed to providing a residential and campus environment that is conducive to academic inquiry in the university tradition. Kean is a metropolitan, comprehensive, teaching university that exists to foster inquiry and public discourse. It is also a community. At Kean, student members of the community are expected to abide by certain community standards that form the basis of the Student Code of Conduct and ensure that their visitors do likewise. These standards are embodied within a set of core values that include integrity, fairness, respect, community, and responsibility. When residents fail to adhere to the community standards, appropriate proceedings may be initiated under the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct to address conduct violations and its consequences.

DEFINITION OF A RESIDENTIAL STUDENT

For the purposes of enforcing the policies as outlined in the Office of Residence Life Handbook, residential students are defined as all persons living in the residence halls and registered for twelve credit hours at the University and are deemed as full-time students pursuing undergraduate, graduate, professional studies, or continuing education.

THE COMMUNITY STANDARDS PROCESS UPHOLDS COMMUNITY VALUES

The community standards process is intended to protect the interests of all members of the residential campus community, and appropriately address conduct, not in accord with the Student Code of Conduct or the policies as outlined in the Office of Residence Life handbook. Remedies and sanctions are intended to contribute to the development of student decision-making and to help them bring their behavior into accord with community values. When a residential student does not conform their behavior to community expectations, the residential student may be subject to appropriate remedies and sanctions including, but not limited to, termination of the housing contract, placement on the University No-Trespass list, restriction or loss of the privileges in regards to visitation and/or participation in this residential community. The community standards process is different from criminal and civil court proceedings. Procedures and rights in residential student community standards proceedings are conducted with fairness to all but do not include the same process afforded by the courts.
JURISDICTION OVER RESIDENCE LIFE COMMUNITY STANDARDS

The Residence Life Handbook may be accessed on the Residence Life Website https://www.kean.edu/reslife. Residential students are charged with the responsibility to read and abide by the provisions of the residence Life Handbook and the authority of the community standards process. The residential student community standards process applies to the conduct of individual residential students and their guest(s). Moreover, these procedures are based on shared values, it sets a range of expectations for the Kean residential student no matter where or when their conduct may take place in the residential halls. The Student Code of Conduct may be applied to conduct that takes place during the time a person is enrolled as a student, including during intra-semester breaks and between semesters.

The Student Code of Conduct applies to guests of residential community members, whose hosts may be held accountable for the misconduct of their guests/visitors to the residence halls. Sanctions for violations by visitors and guests may be referred to the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct and/or Kean University Department of Public Safety and Police.

The policies listed here are written as prohibitions; that is, they are stated as behavior that is prohibited in all residence halls, buildings and grounds. These policies are enforced through the Office of Community Standard and Student Conduct and the Office of Residence Life.

DISCIPLINARY PHILOSOPHY

The Office of Residence Life strongly holds to the idea that we are bound to facilitate education for the personal growth of Kean University students. The primary reason a disciplinary system exists is to help resident students realize that groups of people living together need policies; not to restrict, but rather to maximize personal freedom and to make life generally more pleasant.

We strongly believe that every experience in a student’s life can be educational. A student’s education at the University is not limited to an expansion of their academic knowledge but should include the development of an appropriate moral and ethical code that allows them to function properly in society. Furthermore, a student’s education should include an awareness of their responsibilities to others and how they are cognizant of their status as a member of a social group, and how to live within the rules necessary for the proper functioning of that and other groups in society.

In essence, the goal of the student conduct process is education. It is intended to serve this purpose by identifying socially unacceptable behavior and ensuring that the student adapts to the norms of the University community while simultaneously providing for the needs of the individual student. Of course, to impress upon the student the inappropriateness of their past behavior and the need for appropriate behavioral change, student conduct action may be necessary. As a last resort, separation from the residence halls and/or University may also become necessary in certain cases. This may be the case when the student’s conduct is either a flagrant violation of their fundamental responsibilities as a student, or presents a serious detriment to the welfare of the University community, or is of a continuing and intentional nature indicative of the improbability of the student's willingness to make the necessary behavioral modification.

The student conduct process takes into account the personal and academic needs of each individual student on a case-by-case basis. Any disciplinary action will balance the unique needs, circumstances, and motivation of the student with the needs of the greater Kean community.

Therefore, prevention and re-education are the two basic functions of discipline. Prevention necessitates an awareness of potential areas of trouble and a concern with helping students before they get into difficulty. Re-education involves assisting the student to reorient and redirect themselves constructively with respect to their social, personal, and ethical development.

The Office of Residence Life disciplinary structure is designed to outline the procedures used in the residential area and to clarify the expectations we hold concerning student behavior on campus.

COMMUNITY STANDARDS HEARING PROCESS & PROCEDURES

FOR THE FULL PROCESS PLEASE REFER TO THE STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

GENERAL PROCESS

A report in regard to a policy violation of a residential student for violations as outlined in the Residence Life handbook may be made in writing by anyone who feels the Residence Life policies have been violated.

An Incident Report form link may be found online by clicking this link or at the following web address, https://tinyurl.com/5adebp87. The report should include as much detail of the alleged violation as possible and to the degree possible include specific references to that part of the Office of Residence Life policies that were violated.

The report must include the name, campus address, and telephone number of all parties involved and as much information as is known about the person(s) involved. If there are any witnesses, their names and campus addresses should also be provided if known. There should be as much detail as possible. In exceptional circumstances, provisions may be made to protect the identity of reporters and witnesses upon request.
The Incident Report is submitted to the Director of Community Standards and Student Conduct or designee and/or Residence Hall Director for proper review. The administrator(s) will determine from the report if the incident indicates an alleged violation and will institute the student conduct process as required.

Initial Investigation

Upon receipt of an Incident Report the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct will inquire as to the circumstances surrounding the event in question to determine whether there are sufficient grounds to believe that a violation occurred.

Interview(s) will be scheduled to obtain a written statement from the person(s) reporting the alleged violation, the accused student, witnesses, and/or other persons directly involved in the incident.

Based upon the sufficiency of the facts collected during the interview(s) and the Incident Report(s) filed, an investigation will commence to review the circumstances surrounding the incident in question and determine whether it warrants a referral for disciplinary action. If a determination of the facts collected and the Incident Report(s) filed does not warrant further action, the matter will be closed. Such determinations are appropriate where the report filed does not violate any University Office of Residence Life policy, and/or when there is insufficient evidence to support a reasonable belief that the policy has been violated.

Interim Suspension of Housing and Visitation to Residence Halls (Temporary Notice of No Trespass - Residence Life)

Based upon the sufficiency of the complaint and pending the completion of the Office of Residence Life investigation and subsequent hearing process, the accused resident student may be placed on the University Trespass list temporarily and issued a Temporary Notice of No Trespass for the Residence Halls. This decision may be related to the physical or emotional safety and well-being of the student, to protect the integrity of the investigation, pending the outcome of a psychological or medical assessment, and/or for reasons relating to the safety and well-being of students, faculty, staff, or University property. During this time the accused resident student is not permitted nor privileged to visit, nor occupy, or enter any room/apartment, or residential structure, or property in the immediate area and surrounding the residence halls, the residence halls quad area, the area immediately surrounding the Whiteman, Dougall, Freshman, and Upperclass halls, Cougar Hall and the Residence Dining Hall, for any reason, on foot or in a vehicle without prior permission from the Office of Residence Life or the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct. Failure to comply with this directive may result in arrest by University Police. If items are required from the resident student's room/apartment during this time the resident is required to contact the Office of Residence Life to set an appointment to retrieve items. The resident student is permitted to attend classes during this interim suspension of housing and visitation from the residence halls. Whenever such action is taken, an Office of Residence Life community standards hearing will be convened within ten (10) business days, unless an extension is agreed upon. The Office of Residence Life community standards hearing process is outlined below.
No-Contact Order
In order to preserve the integrity of the community standards process, a No-Contact Order may be imposed between residential students when the fear of retaliation and/or harassment may be present. Specific instructions will accompany the No-Contact Order outlining to all parties the expected behavior including the prohibition of face-to-face contact, correspondence, email, instant message, or telephone. Friends and relatives are also prohibited from contact on behalf of either party.

Student Notification
Following the occurrence of an incident, the student shall receive a letter informing the student of the forthcoming conference appointment as well as the alleged policy violation(s). The letter will indicate the time, date, and location required to meet with the respective administrator. In the event that the appointment conflicts with the student’s schedule, it will be the student’s responsibility to notify the administrator to reschedule the appointment within 24 hours of the meeting time.

Three attempts will be made to the student regarding notification. Following the third attempt without a response from the student, a decision will be made concerning the alleged violation or violations without the student’s input and/or presence based on the information provided in the Incident Report.

As a student allegedly involved in an incident or witness to an incident, the Office of Residence Life cannot stress enough the importance of contacting the Residence Hall Director as soon as possible.

Student Conduct Disciplinary Conference
The student will meet with the respective administrator and must provide a statement of the incident in writing using this link or: https://tinyurl.com/txdkyzn7

The student will be permitted to have witnesses interviewed to present information on their behalf. Witnesses will be required to submit a written statement. In addition, a student may attend the conference with an advisor; however, the advisor will not be permitted to participate in the conference directly. The advisor may communicate only through writing, outside communication, or prior to the beginning of the disciplinary process. If a student chooses to have an attorney as their advisor, 48 hours notice must be provided to the respective administrator.

A student wishing to review documented reports of the alleged incident may do so by completing a request here or https://tinyurl.com/57997uum five (5) days prior to the date of the conference.

Standard of Proof

The Standard of Proof to find a student responsible for a violation is known as preponderance of the evidence. This is equated to 50.1% that the student was responsible for the violation; in other words, more likely than not. Once it has been established that the incident occurred, it is the student’s responsibility to prove that they are not responsible.

Decision Letters

A student will receive a Decision Letter via Kean email once the process is completed. A Decision Letter will provide the student with a basic chronology of events, alleged violations, findings, sanctions (if any), and appeal information. There is no specific time limit regarding the distribution of a Decision Letter although timeliness is stressed. Should a student wish to appeal the decision, a deadline will be provided. For further information regarding the Appeal Process, please review the Appeal Process section below.

Appeal Process

1. Where an individual is found responsible for a violation of the Code that may lead to a sanction less serious than suspension or expulsion, the individual can appeal on the following grounds:
   a. A sanction that falls outside the sanction range commonly assigned for the offense
   b. A material deviation from written procedures that jeopardized the fairness of the process
   c. A demonstrable bias by the hearing officer
   d. New information, unavailable at the time of the hearing, that could be outcome determinative

The appeal may be completed using this link or https://tinyurl.com/328j53nx. The appeal to the Review Committee for Appeals must be received within five (5) business days from the date of the administrator’s determination.

2. In the case of suspension or expulsion, the student can appeal in writing to the Vice President for Student Affairs within three (3) business days of the receipt of the hearing officer’s determination.

3. In the case of housing termination, the student can appeal in writing to the Associate Vice President of Student Affairs or designee within three (3) business days of the receipt of the administrator’s determination. Upon receipt of the Appeal Request Letter, the initial sanction or sanctions may be temporarily suspended, based upon the discretion of the respective administrator, until an Appeal Decision is completed.

4. In the case of suspension or expulsion, the student will not be permitted to be on campus or attend classes pending the outcome of the appeal unless implementation of the sanction is delayed by the Vice President for Student Affairs due to extraordinary circumstances.
STUDENT’S RIGHTS

Each student living within the residence halls has rights that are recognized by the disciplinary system. These rights are as follows:

- To be assumed not responsible until found responsible, by the greater weight of believable evidence, of unacceptable behavior.
- To be informed of the minimum and maximum sanctions that may be imposed.
- To be provided with written notification of the specific charges.
- To be informed that written or physical evidence collected may be presented during the conference.
- To review the documentation prior to the scheduled conference.
- To have an advisor present during the conference.
- To present witnesses with knowledge of the incident for the conference
- To have a fair disposition of all matters as promptly as possible.
- The right to appeal any findings of responsibility and/or assigned sanctions

Mitigating and Aggravating Circumstances

If a resident is found responsible for a violation of any Office of Residence Life policy as outlined in this handbook and/or procedure the administrator involved in the sanctioning process may consider mitigating and aggravating circumstances in recommending or imposing a sanction.

Factors that may be considered upon the discretion of the administrator, after responsibility has been determined, are:

- Present attitude of the respondent.
- Past administrative or disciplinary record of the respondent.
- The severity of the damage, injury, or harm resulting from the offense. Whether the violation involved an action directed at another because of their racial, religious or ethnic background or gender.
- Whether the respondent promptly took responsibility for their violation.
- The respondent’s honesty (or lack thereof) and cooperation with staff during the investigation of the violation and subsequent administrative disciplinary proceedings.
COMMUNITY STANDARDS POLICY VIOLATIONS

The burden of proving that a violation was committed, and where it was committed, always rests with the presenter. Once a violation is shown to have occurred in a resident’s room or apartment, any individual present at the time of staff confrontation must then prove that they were not responsible for having committed the violation. This includes any guests of the resident student.

Each violation has a cumulative effect, and a person’s previous violations during the course of the semester, as well as the previous semester, will be considered when sanctions are prescribed. Additional violations that occur while a resident is on probation may be grounds for residence hall contract termination and/or separation from the University.

The room and mailbox keys must be returned upon termination of the Residence Hall Contract or when vacating the residence halls during breaks.

In the apartments and the new buildings, the same key will open the apartment and bedroom, while the second key will open the mailbox door. The loss of a key creates a security problem for the individual apartment/room and building. Under no circumstances are keys to be loaned or reproduced. The lending of keys is a violation of the Residence Hall Contract and will subject the resident to disciplinary action. Should you lose any or all of your apartment/room keys, students must report it immediately to the Office of Residence Life; a lock change charge will be assessed at the end of the semester. It is your responsibility to visit the Office of Residence Life located in Upperclass Hall, room 104 to obtain the new keys.

If they are unavailable, the resident may go to their Community Center and request a lockout during the hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. For lockouts between 6 p.m. and 12 a.m., students may contact the Resident Assistant on Duty in their respective building. The resident must provide proper identification if a door is to be opened; otherwise, the staff member may refuse access. This service is a courtesy performed by the residence hall staff and should not be abused. Students requiring three or more lockouts during a semester will be referred for disciplinary action in the interest of safety for the community, the lock will be changed and the associated costs will be assessed to the resident.

Students are expected to carry their keys and keep their doors locked at all times. Doors that are left unlocked may also be an invitation to theft or injury. OUTDOOR ACTIVITY POLICY

The Kean University residence halls provide housing accommodations for students for the main purpose of facilitating academic learning. A quiet and healthy living environment is required for effective study. Often residents, as well as nearby community neighbors, experience unacceptable negative effects from loud music and/or unruly behavior in the outdoor area or sports playing in the quad walkways. It is expected that the University should provide a reasonably quiet and safe study environment for the residents.

This policy has been developed to safeguard everyone’s rights and provide a reasonably quiet living environment. The primary purpose of this policy is to regulate, in accordance with University policies and Union municipal ordinances, the prohibited activities within the residence hall outdoor areas and to stipulate conditions and sanctions for violations.
This policy further stipulates that when individuals are found creating high volumes and/or engaging in unruly behavior in the outdoor area after 10 p.m., they will be subject to disciplinary action and/or legal action.

In support of the information above as well as to ensure student safety and security within the residence hall community area, no one will be permitted to gather and remain in the quad area Dougall Hall patio, and the New Residence Hall Courtyard areas between the hours of 3 and 8:00 a.m. Noncompliance may result in disciplinary action and/or immediate suspension from the residence halls.

QUIET HOURS POLICY

The following hours have been established as quiet hours in all residence halls so that an atmosphere conducive to studying and sleeping can be maintained. 24-hour quiet hours will be in effect during the last two weeks of each semester for the final exam period. It is expected that consideration for others will be exercised at all times.

- Sunday – Thursday: 10 p.m. – 10 a.m.
- Friday – Saturday: 1 – 10 a.m.

Some students have different class schedules and different work hours. They may work late into the night and need to rest during the daytime. If a neighbor is resting or studying, keep the volume level down. If any resident requests that the volume level in a room or apartment be lowered, residents are requested to comply regardless of whether it is during quiet hours or not, as 24-hour courtesy hours are always in effect. Noncompliance may result in disciplinary action.

The residential complex is an experience in community living, and as such, individual students must be aware of the ways in which their behavior affects others. This is particularly true of high volumes and other disturbances. It is expected that after 10 p.m. residents lower the volume of any stereo or television equipment so that it is not discernible. Loud music from stereo speakers, radios, and the like heard outside a resident’s room or apartment, indoors or out, is strictly prohibited.

Occupants are considered residents of the Township of Union and are subject to its ordinances. Disturbances by an individual or group may result in disciplinary action as outlined in the Residence Hall Contract and a municipal fine may be applicable.

Following approval, all items will be distributed to the building community centers. An item that is not approved will not be placed in the student mailboxes. The Office of Residence Life reserves the right to restrict the distribution of inappropriate materials.

SANCTIONING GUIDE

This sanction guide is to be used as a guide for sanctioning after a violation has been established to have occurred. If a resident is found responsible for a violation of any Office of Residence Life policy as outlined in this handbook and/or procedure the administrator involved in the sanctioning process may consider mitigating and aggravating circumstances in recommending or imposing a sanction.

Factors that may be considered upon the discretion of the administrator, after responsibility has been determined, are:

- Present attitude of the respondent.
- Past administrative or disciplinary record of the respondent.
- The severity of the damage, injury, or harm resulting from the offense. Whether the violation involved an action directed at another because of their racial, religious or ethnic background or gender.
- Whether the respondent promptly took responsibility for their violation.
- The respondent’s honesty (or lack thereof) and cooperation with staff during the investigation of the violation and subsequent administrative disciplinary proceedings.
RESIDENCE HALL & ROOM GUIDELINES

CARE OF APARTMENTS AND ROOMS

Every apartment and room is furnished; including drapes and appliances. Each student has a desk, bed, chair, and wardrobe as well as living room and dining room furniture. The traditional style residence halls do not have dining room furniture or kitchen areas. Wardrobes in the rooms may not be moved, for safety reasons. Residents who move their wardrobes are subject to fines and/or disciplinary action.

Students in each apartment and room are responsible for providing their own necessities. Students must provide their own vacuum or carpet sweeper and cleaning materials since charges are assessed against improper care and cleaning of appliances and furnishings.

Residents will be held collectively or individually responsible for the condition and cleanliness of their rooms and for any loss or damage that may occur during occupancy. Residents will have to supply their own cleaning supplies and equipment, light bulbs, etc. Charges will be assessed for damaged walls and doors. Permanently affixed furnishings may not be moved. A resident’s University financial account is updated when they vacate the residence halls.

COMMON AREA BILLING

Each resident will be held accountable for any damages, thefts, or vandalism for which they are found responsible and will be charged accordingly. Residents are encouraged to notify the residence hall staff or the Office of Residence Life immediately to confront individuals damaging, stealing, and/or vandalizing residence hall facilities and to inform their Resident Assistant of the incident. In the event that individual(s) do not take responsibility for damages, thefts, or vandalism that occurs on a specific floor, or a common area that is used by all residents, the charges for the repairs will be divided among all residents residing in the building.

Students are expected to take responsibility for any damage, even accidental damage, which they or their guests cause to University property or the property of another resident or guest. This could include damages resulting from a cooking fire, playing hall sports, or setting off the sprinkler system by accident. The student who caused the damage will be expected to cover the cost of repair or replacement as determined by the University. Students who refuse to pay for damages they cause accidentally will be referred to the Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct for future administrative action, which may include additional student conduct action. Those who cannot afford the costs will be allowed to enter into a payment plan.

During an emergency evacuation due to electrical power shutdown, water shutdown, bomb threat, fire, etc. the Office of Residence Life will work with Campus Police, the Office of Facilities and Campus Planning, and Student Affairs to coordinate emergency evacuation procedures.

In the event of an emergency whereby the residence halls must be evacuated the following procedures will be followed:

- You will receive a message from the Campus Alert Notification System or a Kean University official to alert you of the emergency.

- Remain calm and in your room or residence hall, unless otherwise instructed by the Campus Alert Notification System or Residence Life staff.

EVALUATIONS

Each year the Office of Residence Life asks residents to complete a Quality of Life survey. Information from this survey is utilized to set goals for improvements in the future. It is important that all residents participate in this survey. Residents will receive the Quality of Life survey via email at the end of the spring semester.

FINAL EXAMS WEEK

The last week of the fall and spring semesters are identified as Finals Weeks by the University. Therefore, in order to maintain an environment conducive to the pursuit of the student's academic endeavors, the Office of Residence Life will strictly enforce any and all violations of policies and/or procedures, no matter how minor, to the severity of immediately dismissed from the residence hall any and/or all individuals responsible for those violations. Those individuals will also be added to the No Trespass List.

FIRE ALARM EVACUATION PROCEDURES

Planning: It is expected that you attend your respective floor/wing meetings concerning fire safety procedures. The key to successful evacuation is planning. Potential emergencies within a building may require the occupants to evacuate the building. Each apartment door has been provided with a building evacuation floor plan and evacuation guidelines. All students should familiarize themselves with the buildings they occupy, including the location of the nearest available exits and evacuation assembly areas.

If an alarm is activated, the following procedures should be followed at all times:

Before leaving your room, assess that it is safe to do so:

• From inside the room, check for smoke around the door cracks.

• Feel the inside door surface with the back of your hand. If it is hot, DO NOT OPEN!

• Seal up the cracks around the door using sheets, pieces of clothing, tape, or whatever is readily available. The door may assist in preventing extreme heat and smoke from entering the room.

• Hang a sheet out the window to signal rescuers. DO NOT JUMP!
- Open the windows slightly to let in the fresh air and let out the bad air.
- Grab a wet towel. Place it over your head and face (nose and mouth) if the smoke is heavy. If it is safe to leave your room:
  - Put on shoes and a jacket.
  - Take the room key, Kean University ID card, and/or guest pass with you.
  - Close and lock the room door.
  - DO NOT use the elevators.
  - Walk to the nearest exit and go outside. Keep all entrances clear.
  - Once outside the building, report to the meeting area designated for your floor. Be sure to stay at least 100 feet away from the building and clear of all fire lanes.
  - Only re-enter the building once the “all clear” signal has been given by the Office of Residence Life staff.

Residents should expect at least two evacuation drills per semester. Each student is expected to cooperate with the staff and campus police in all phases of the evacuation procedures. Students must evacuate their buildings completely during the alarm. It is state law to exit the building anytime the alarm sounds. Failure to evacuate will result in disciplinary and possible legal action.

Records are kept on the number of times a smoke detector is activated in an apartment or residence hall room. When only one smoke detector sounds in an apartment or room it is known as a local alarm and will transmit to Campus Police Headquarters. Residents will face administrative action and possible legal action for an excessive amount of local fire alarm activations due to negligence during a specific academic year.

In addition, students will be assessed a residence hall charge when the fire alarm for the entire residence hall is set off due to a falsely pulled fire alarm station or tampering. For each false alarm set off maliciously, all residents of the hall will share the $500.00 charge unless the person or persons responsible is identified. Alarm activation due to negligent behavior (unattended cooking, etc.) may result in a fine of $25.00 and disciplinary action. Damage to smoke detectors or fire safety equipment will be charged to individual residents in an apartment/room, or as common area damage. Those individuals found responsible are subject to disciplinary and/or legal action.

FIRE EXTINGUISHERS

Fire extinguishers are provided in all residence hall common areas and community kitchens. They are located adjacent to each elevator access and on each floor in the stairwells. Firefighting equipment is essential to the safety of every person in the residence halls. Your cooperation is expected in respecting this equipment and reporting deficiencies. Anyone found tampering with the equipment is subject to both disciplinary and/or legal action. Campus policy is for all students to evacuate the building upon fire alarm activation.

FIRE SAFETY GUIDELINES

Fire safety should be practiced at all times by exercising prudent judgment and following fire safety guidelines established for the residence halls. Failure to comply with any of the established fire and safety guidelines is a violation of policies and procedures and will result in disciplinary and/or legal action and loss of housing.

- Do not decorate common areas with hanging or other items (including holiday decorations), or provide any manner which would contribute to the spreading of fire, including not hanging or attaching anything to, or on, any lamp or light fixture.

- Do not leave the bathroom door open while showering as the steam may activate the alarm system.

- Do not leave food cooking unattended in-room microwave units or community kitchen areas. Students found in violation will be fined $50.00 and face additional disciplinary action including release from the housing contract. Residents also face fines and restitution as well as disciplinary action in the event there is damage caused by excessive smoke or fire.

GRADE POINT AVERAGE REQUIREMENT

Residents must remain in good academic standing while residing in the residence halls. Residents are expected to maintain the University’s required Grade Point Average based on the Resident’s academic program. If a Resident falls below that minimum, his/her Residence Hall Contract may be terminated or suspended. The University reserves the right to review academic records and academic standing and requires academic support programs in compliance with University Policy. If the Resident does not show academic progress, he/she may have his/her housing contract terminated or suspended.

The Office of Residence Life has implemented outreach and tutoring programs known as ACCESS, Aiming To Create a Community Empowered with Student Success. Students will be notified and every effort will be made to transfer overflow students to a new room as quickly as possible.

PACKAGE INSPECTION POLICY

The security staff may request resident students or guests to display items in their bags if there is a suspicion of illegal items such as alcohol entering the residence hall. Students and guests are expected to comply with this directive. A resident or guest who refuses the request will be denied access into the residence hall. Additionally, the situation will be documented and forwarded to Residence Life staff.

Only full-time students of Kean University are eligible to live in the residence halls. According to University policy, to be considered full-time, an undergraduate student must carry a minimum of twelve (12) credits per semester and a graduate student must carry a minimum of nine (9) credits per semester. If a student falls below the minimum their Residence Hall Contract may be terminated or suspended. Credit situations are reviewed on a case-by-case basis based on current student status. Undergraduate student teachers who carry ten (10) credits per semester are an exception to this policy. During the summer, six credits are required during each summer session to be considered full-time.

RESOLVING CONFLICT THROUGH MEDIATION

If you have roommate issues that seem irresolvable, there are mediators available to assist you with your dispute. Your Resident Assistant and Residence Hall Director are trained to assist you with your difficulties.

To begin the mediation process:

- Contact your Resident Assistant and request assistance.
- Be willing to clearly state your issues.
- Be willing to listen to the roommate’s issues.
- The mediator will facilitate discussion.
- You will work to develop a mutually agreeable compromise.
- An agreement is designed to address all resolved issues.
- If the agreement is violated, disciplinary action may be taken.

Remember, you do not just HAVE a roommate, YOU ARE a roommate. Having a roommate may be a new experience for many residents, and you will need to learn to negotiate and open the lines of communication to have a successful relationship.

Discuss these issues with your roommate:

- Privacy needs.
- Hours you sleep.
- Television, stereo, computer use.
- Sharing of personal property.
- Storage of food items.
- Cooking needs.
Guests in the room during the day and evening.

Overnight guests.

ROOM ENTRY/SEARCH AND UNIVERSITY PRIVILEGES

A student’s room is considered private, and the administration will not enter it without the resident's consent except in the case of an emergency, when there is a clear and present indication that a crime is being committed, when University or Office of Residence Life regulations are being violated, for move-in or move-out, or for routine preventative maintenance, scheduled inspection, or repairs.

A resident visitor/guest who has left personal belongings and/or property in a resident's apartment/room will not be permitted access to obtain such items unless that person is present.

ROOMMATE AGREEMENTS

In an effort to understand who you are now living with and set guidelines for the community in which you will live, each resident will be required to complete a roommate agreement with their roommate as well as their suite and apartment mates. You will need to schedule a meeting with your Resident Assistant to sit down and fill out the roommate agreement with your roommates and suitemates. By signing the agreement, residents agree to abide by the expectations set forth. All agreements will be submitted to the Resident Assistant by the date specified. If residents transfer to another room, a new agreement must be completed. Failure to adhere to this procedure may result in disciplinary action.

In some instances, it may be necessary to add a supplemental agreement to the original agreement. This supplemental agreement is used when roommates are having difficulty living in the community and more specific guidelines need to be outlined. This supplemental agreement will be written under the supervision of the Residence Hall Director and will need to be signed by all parties.

All agreements will be kept in the Residence Hall Director’s office and referenced if a conflict should arise.

ROOM CHANGES

Room changes are permitted following the second week of each semester and when announced. Any move from one room to another must be done through the Office of Residence Life. Students who move from one room to another without proper approval will be subject to disciplinary action. No roommate changes will be permitted after the assigned date without the permission of the Director of the Office of Residence Life or a designee.
ROOM CONSOLIDATION

The Office of Residence Life reserves the right to request students to relocate to another room or to consolidate rooms. When students do not have a roommate and there is a vacancy, they will be requested to consolidate with other students who have no roommate. In the rare instance that consolidation does not occur, the student remaining may only occupy half of the room. The half space must always be available for occupancy or the student may be subject to disciplinary action.

ROOM DAMAGE

Resident students are responsible for any and all damages to any living space occupied which are not the results of normal usage. At the time of check-in, resident students need to carefully review the Apartment/Room Inventory form for complete accuracy. Apartment/room damages will be assessed utilizing this form as well as monthly room inspections. Once the residence facilities are completely closed at the end of the academic year, each apartment/room will be thoroughly inspected by a Residence Life administrator for any and all damages. Charges may be assessed for any clean-up necessary as well as any damages that have been incurred. Excessive damages may be addressed through disciplinary and/or legal action.

ROOM SELECTION PROCESS

Each year, during the spring semester, returning students participate in the Room Selection Process to reserve their room for the following academic year. Students should be mindful of the information concerning the Room Selection Process so that they may secure an assignment. Please note that all students must be registered for twelve (12) credits, complete all necessary paperwork, and pay a $125.00 non-refundable Housing Application fee in order to be considered for a room/apartment for the following academic year.

SAFETY & SECURITY

The safety of students in the residence halls is the first and most fundamental concern of the Office of Residence Life staff; it should be your first priority, too. Your individual actions can have a direct impact on your safety and security and that of each student who lives in the residence halls.

The Office of Residence Life and each resident are partners for the safety and security of the residence halls. Each individual resident has PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITY for their own safety and security. The University and the Office of Residence Life have taken steps that contribute toward maintaining a safer and more secure environment. Staff, equipment, and information resources are provided to encourage behavior that prevents dangerous situations and to assist if an emergency should occur. Despite these reasonable and good-faith efforts; however, it is impossible to predict individual actions or guarantee that no unwanted acts or situations will ever occur. All the fire equipment in Union County cannot prevent a fire caused by a resident's carelessness with a cigarette, candle, or prohibited appliance. Nor can all the campus police at Kean prevent theft when a resident has left the room door unlocked and a wallet on the dresser.

Kean University, Resident Student Handbook | 51
while he or she is away from the room. Remember, when one resident is careless, all residents may be exposed to the consequences of this carelessness!

General Safety and Security Procedures

Here are some personal safety and security suggestions:

- LOCK YOUR DOOR EACH TIME YOU LEAVE YOUR ROOM. CARRY YOUR KEYS WITH YOU AT ALL TIMES.
- Walk with friends or in a group.
- Walk in well-lighted and well-traveled areas.
- Constantly be aware of your surroundings.
- Know the location of emergency phones throughout the campus.
- Report suspicious persons or activity to campus police.
- Keep your room door locked.
- Carry your keys and Kean University ID with you at all times.
- Report damaged doors and locks to your community center or Resident Assistant immediately.
- Report “salespeople” or “solicitors” to your community center.
- Do not let your guests wander the building - they must be escorted at all times. Don’t leave guests unattended in your room/apartment.
- Do not prop doors open.
- Do not use fire exit doors unless it is a fire/evacuation emergency- those who should be in the building should have keys or an access card.
- Remove valuables when you are away and during University closings.
- Keep your vehicle locked.
- Make sure personal property is covered by your own or your family’s homeowner’s or apartment dweller’s insurance policy.

The University is not responsible for loss of or damage to personal property; therefore, individual students are advised to purchase personal property insurance. Contact the Office of Residence Life for more information. All students are provided a hard key to their apartment, except those that live in Cougar Hall, who utilize their Kean ID to enter their room/suite. Each individual is responsible for locking their door.
Students must enter and exit the building through the front doors only. Side exits are for emergency use only and are wired into the fire alarm system. These doors are locked for your protection.

SECURITY CAMERAS

Each building is equipped with security cameras. The cameras are utilized to ensure the safety of the resident students. The cameras are monitored by the Office of Residence Life, Campus Police, and Computer Services.

SPRINKLERS

What you need to know:

- When activated, each sprinkler head produces sixty (60) gallons of water per minute and 3,600 gallons per hour.
- If a sprinkler head is activated the fire alarms will sound.
- If you “accidentally” or intentionally activate the sprinkler head in a non-fire emergency, you will be responsible for all damages it causes to University and personal property and may face disciplinary and/or legal action.
- If one sprinkler head is activated, they all do not activate.
- Sprinklers are in all living spaces with the exception of the bathrooms.
- Sprinklers do not excuse you from evacuating during a fire alarm.
- Never hang items from sprinkler heads or connecting pipes.

STUDY ABROAD PROCEDURES

Students accepted for a Study Abroad program must contact the Office of Residence Life immediately to make arrangements for housing for the returning semester.

STUDY LOUNGES

Study rooms are located in the new residence halls for resident use or programming purposes. Residents are encouraged to utilize these spaces for quiet study time or study groups. The Residence Life staff will utilize this space during scheduled times for programming purposes.

If you should require any of these particular accommodations, contact the Office of Residence Life immediately.

AUTOMOBILES

Any vehicle parked at Kean University must have a registered ePermit. To obtain an ePermit please visit the campus parking webpage (www.kean.edu/parking). Parking enforcement is done through license plate recognition LPR technology. Students may park in the white-lined spaces only. Freshmen are not permitted to keep vehicles on campus. Students are encouraged to utilize the Residence Life shuttle service for off-campus services. Be advised that from 3 to 6 a.m. weekly, parking in campus lots will not be permitted except for the section of the Vaughn-Eames parking lot near North Avenue (behind the colored barrier). Signs have been posted to inform as necessary. Also, be advised that students are not permitted to park in the Downs Hall and Dougall Hall parking lots. Unauthorized vehicles will receive tickets accordingly.

CABLE TV

All apartments have a single outlet in the living room and bedrooms, and all traditional-styled rooms have two outlets for cable television. The system provides over 100 channels of basic programming, premium channels, HD channels, and Kean University channels. The cost associated with this service is included in the overall housing charge. Cable television problems should be reported to your residence hall’s community center staff. Please make sure that it is not your television or tape/disc player that is malfunctioning. You must provide your own cable wire for proper service.

It is illegal to tamper with or splice the cable wiring and/or outlets (from one room/apartment to another or within the same room/apartment). Anyone found in violation of this will be held accountable for any damages and will be charged by the cable company in addition to sanctions from the Office of Residence Life.

CAMPUS ALERT

Kean utilizes the Campus Alert system to notify our community of the following announcements and/or emergencies:

- Emergency Campus Events – Alerts to students and staff of security-related incidents, utility shutdowns, weather related closures and events and other critical advisories as events unfold.

- Information Technology – Provide maximum warning for service disruption and recovery.

- First Responder Mobilization Alerts to campus security, police, fire and emergency services automatically.

All students are required to register for Campus Alert, click here.

ELEVATORS

The apartment residence halls are equipped with two elevators. Any tampering with elevator equipment, emergency bells, or shut-off switches will be considered a serious violation of the Residence Hall Contract. Anyone found responsible for these offenses will face severe disciplinary action. Please report any problems to the main office at (908) 737-1700 immediately.

Keys, Kean ID cards, cell phones, wallets, and/or other personal belongings that fall into the elevator shafts will not be retrieved. In emergency cases, the cost to retrieve these items will be charged to the owner of the items(s).

EXTERMINATION

The Office of Residence Life provides monthly exterminations in common areas of every building. Special requests for individual rooms with extermination concerns must be placed on a work order with the specific location of the problem and submitted to the community center. There is no charge for “special extermination requests.” Residents are encouraged to remove all cardboard boxes, remove the trash on a daily basis, and clean dishes regularly in order to avoid bugs in the rooms/apartments.

GARBAGE/RECYCLING

In each of the buildings, trash rooms are located on each floor. It is the responsibility of each student to empty the trash daily. It is a good idea to use plastic liners for trash. Under no circumstances should any flammable items be deposited in the compactor chute located in the quad building trash rooms. It is not an incinerator! The compactor cannot accommodate wood, cinder blocks, bricks, or heavy cardboard. Failure to cooperate may result in a common area billing charge.

Kean University and the Office of Residence Life comply with the state’s recycling regulations for New Jersey’s institutions of higher education. As a result, recycling is required in all administrative and academic buildings, food service locations, and residence halls.

All residents will be required to participate in the recycling program within the residence halls – recycling trash bins are in each residence hall’s trash room. The initial focus of the campus-wide Recycling Program will include regular, everyday recyclable consumer items:

- aluminum cans
- glass bottles
- plastic containers
- paper cardboard

HOUSEKEEPING/INSPECTIONS

The residence halls do not include maid service for individual rooms. While basic cleaning of corridors, laundry rooms, common areas, and elevators is provided by the University throughout the school year, it is the responsibility of every resident to cooperate in keeping the residence halls clean and attractive at all times. While classes are out of session each summer, the rooms are professionally cleaned by an outside contractor.
The mandatory monthly apartment/room inspection is established by the Office of Residence Life for the purpose of maintaining a living area that is clean, healthy, and safe. The staff of each building will schedule and conduct monthly inspections. All inspections will be pre-announced and each resident will be required to sign-up on the “Inspection Responsibility Sheet” to clean a designated area. If a room is not filled to capacity, the residents of the room or apartment are responsible for cleaning all areas. A Room Inspection sheet will assist in determining the resident responsibility for cleaning areas of the room/apartment.

Any apartment/room that fails inspection will be re-inspected on the following day by the Resident Assistant. Failure to comply will result in the following sanctions:

- First Failure: Verbal Warning
- Re-Inspection Failure: Written Warning, $25.00 fine per violator, Educational Class Additional Failures can result in the termination of the Residence Life contract. The same disciplinary process will apply to consecutive monthly inspections as well.

INTERNET & WIFI

Kean University offers a login-based network access system that will allow students and staff to gain access to local resources as well as the Internet. Such resources and uses of the Kean University Residence Hall Network are privileges and must be exercised in conformity with all Kean University policies and procedures, and all applicable federal and state laws. Failure to abide by these policies can result in the suspension of network privileges and referral of the matter to the appropriate disciplinary process.

All apartments have two outlets in the bedrooms, and all traditional-styled rooms have two outlets for Internet access. Students must provide personal computers equipped with an Ethernet card and Cat 5 or Cat 6 wire or wireless cord in order to gain access to the Kean University network. In order to login, you must use your Kean Google email username and password. If you don’t know your username and password, please call (908) 737-6000.

NOTE: Those students with game consoles (XBOX, Playstation, and Wii) MUST register them (with the console’s MAC address) with the Office of Computer Services in order for those consoles to have Internet access.

It is illegal to tamper with or splice the wiring and/or outlets (from one room/apartment to another or within the same room/apartment). Anyone found in violation of this will be held accountable for any damages and will be charged by the cable company in addition to sanctions from the Office of Residence Life/Office of Community Standards and Student Conduct.

How to Connect to the Internet to connect them to the network. The following steps will guide you through the self-registration process.

2. Please make sure the device you are using to register is connected to Kean’s network (KUAIR, KUAIR-FACSTAFF, or wired connection).

All packages can be picked up at the Office of Residence Life mail room in Whiteman Hall. Students will receive an email at their Kean email account informing them that there is a package that is waiting to be picked up.

Students are responsible for notification of address changes. Any registered mail or packages will be delivered to the Office of Residence Life and students, upon proof of identification and presentation of the packing slip from the Office of Residence Life, may obtain those items. Do not send cash through the mail. Should a student receive another student’s mail, he or she should return it to the building’s community center staff. Bulk mail will not be forwarded.

Please be as specific as possible when citing a repair. Residents who do not request maintenance repairs may be held responsible for damages. SCREENS

Special tamper-proof screens have been installed in each residence hall room. Screens cannot be and must not be removed from the windows. During inspections, if a screen is found damaged, the student or students responsible will be assessed a damage charge. In addition, students found responsible for violating this policy will be placed on Residence Life probation for intentionally defacing University property. If no one student in the room or apartment is willing to accept responsibility, all residents will share in the replacement costs and possible disciplinary action. Continued damage to screens in an individual room or apartment may result in the termination of the Residence Hall Contract.

A 20-passenger shuttle service is in operation for the Office of Residence Life. This free service is available for resident students only and a Kean University ID card is required to board the shuttle. A special lift accommodates passengers in wheelchairs. In the residence halls, each room is provided with a blue bucket for collecting recyclable materials and a wastebasket for non-recyclable trash to be collected. It is the student's responsibility to take materials to centralized trash rooms and separate the contents of the blue buckets into larger bins (e.g., paper vs. cans). For fire safety reasons, the doors to trash and recycling rooms should be kept closed at all times. Large bins cannot be removed from the designated trash room. Kean University custodial staff will remove trash and recycling from the residence halls.
